Great! Thanks!

So does list mean all four days two tickets each? Or, the two means two days? For instance, I had heard from Cheryl Stanton that she was only going to be there on Saturday.

Let me know.

Angie

Angie,
Below is the list I have been updating throughout the week.
Are you able to bring these up on the 26th so we can make sure they are hand delivered?

Yellow means I have not hear from them.

Thank you,

Hey Katherine,

I have been asked to combine our lists as soon as possible especially as they relate to Friday attendance. Please send me all the requests you have received to date today. I have been making calls to those people who have responded directly to me from the letter sent out on Monday. The duplication situation has been explained and everyone has completely understood.

Just send me what you have. This is for internal purposes only to see where we are.

The chart below shows who has responded to me and what they have asked for.

We have a board meeting on Monday and I need to report on all of this.

Thanks! ABT
