If accurate, clear, and concise report writing is important for your students, trainees, or officers please take a few seconds and review the best Report Writing book in the country. Investigative Report Writing for Law Enforcement and Security Personnel was written by Police Officers to train future law enforcement professionals in report writing "best practices." This manual directly addresses essential skills needed for effective prosecution.

Police & Fire Publishing, LLC is family owned and operated by a retired California Police Sergeant and a retired US Army Lieutenant Colonel. Their goal is to help the next generation of law enforcement professionals develop skills needed to make their cases stick.
