Katherine—I hope all is well with you and yours after the deluge. As you may know, the State Ports Authority intends to sell bonds in the coming weeks, which under applicable federal law requires the Governor's approval following a public hearing. I attach the signed affidavit of Peter Hughes, CFO of the Ports Authority, as to the public hearing, as well as the affidavit of publication of notice of the hearing. Finally, I attach the proposed certificate for signing by the Governor. Knowing how hectic the Governor's schedule is at this time, I took the liberty of emailing these to you so you could have them whenever the Governor had a free moment to sign. When she does, please scan and email the signed certificate back to me. I really appreciate all your help. Please convey my best wishes to your mom—I miss her! Again, I hope she and you came through o.k., and thanks for your help. Best regards, Paul
