jclevealandd @hoover864 site #13 at Devil Fork's walk-in tent only campground. You have to book it way in advance to have a chance at getting it. Several months in advance at the least, not including the peak time of year.

jclevealandd Site #13 at DF's walk-in tent campground. It's arguably the best campsite in the state and is also probably the most difficult campsite to find an opening for a reservation. It'd be cool to see a list from @scstateparks ...Like an official "top 10 campsites" list just based on what the booking data says. Maybe even come up with an annual "Campy Awards" 🏆👍👍👍
