The Honorable Nikki R. Haley
Governor of South Carolina
1205 Pendleton Street
Columbia, SC 29201

Dear Governor Haley and Mr. Haley:

On behalf of the Congressional Host Committee, we are pleased to invite you to join us for the 64th Annual National Prayer Breakfast on Thursday, February 4, 2016, at 7:30 a.m., at the Washington Hilton in Washington, D.C.

Each year, the President of the United States, Members of Congress, and other national leaders gather to reaffirm our trust in God and recognize the reconciling power of prayer with others throughout the world. During this time, friends and leaders from more than 130 nations seek to build and strengthen personal relationships and deepen international ties through our love of God and care for each other. Although we face tremendous challenges each day, our hearts are strengthened as we seek God's wisdom and guidance together.

Your prompt response is greatly appreciated. We hope you will be able to join us for this special occasion.

Sincerely,

Robert B. Aderholt

Juan Vargas

Historically the leadership of our nation has turned to Almighty God for strength and guidance.

In this spirit, the United States Senate and the House of Representatives breakfast groups, which meet to deepen friendships, to pray and counsel together, inaugurated the National Prayer Breakfast to specifically seek the Lord's guidance and strength as well as to reaffirm our faith and to renew the dedication of our Nation and ourselves to God and His purposes.

This event in the nation's capital, which is organized privately by members of the Senate and House breakfast groups, seeks to encourage men and women throughout the United States and the world to recognize their privileges and responsibilities before God.

With the desire to deepen the spiritual life and moral fiber of the people through a leadership led by God, there have been, in all fifty states, similar breakfasts inaugurated by governors, mayors and other responsible persons.

As a natural outgrowth of such gatherings, many people throughout the world are finding through the teachings, example, and Spirit of Jesus of Nazareth ways to build relationships which can strengthen the family of nations and further the cause of peace and justice.

The foundations of our society and our government rest so much on the teachings of the Bible that it would be difficult to support them if faith in these teachings would cease to be practically universal in our country.

Calvin Coolidge

In extracting the pure principles which Jesus taught, we should have to strip off the artificial vestments in which they have been muffled....there will be found remaining the most sublime and benevolent code of morals which has ever been offered to man.

Thomas Jefferson

America was founded by people who believed that God was their rock of safety. I recognize we must be cautious in claiming that God is on our side, but I think it's all right to keep asking if we're on His side.

Ronald Reagan

Every thinking man, when he thinks, realizes that the teachings of the Bible are so interwoven and entwined with our whole civic and social life that it would be literally impossible for us to figure ourselves what the life would be if these standards were removed.

Theodore Roosevelt
