Subject: Stand for Something; Stand with Me

Dear Friend,

In an email I sent to you just a few hours ago, I asked you to stand with me on four key issues:

- fighting for state sovereignty and against Washington overreach,
- fighting for the right to keep and bear arms,
- fighting to protect and defend the unborn, and
- fighting to protect South Carolina families from unvetted and potentially dangerous Syrian refugees.

In South Carolina, these are critical issues that a majority of our friends and neighbors agree with us on.

Unfortunately, the political establishment in Columbia is willing to compromise and cut corners to sell out on these issues for the right price.

That's why the State Senate needs a conservative conscience – a champion of these issues who will stand firm and not waver when the going gets tough.

I have always believed the popular saying, "If you don't stand for something, you'll fall for anything."

That's why I've stood firm for our constitutional conservative principles, enshrined in our Constitution and set forth by our Founders.

If you're like me and you stand for these bedrock foundational principles, I hope you'll stand with me by making your most generous contribution of $25, $50, $100, or more before the critically important deadline on Thursday night at midnight.

The political establishment will throw everything they can at us in my re-election campaign in the coming weeks and months, and I must be ready to take them on.

Your support and investment in our grassroots campaign will give me the ammunition needed to break through the noise coming out of Columbia and help carry this campaign across the finish line.

You have been a strong and faithful ally in the past, and I hope I can count on you today.

Please stand with me by making your most generous contribution of $25, $50, $100, or more before the clock strikes midnight on Thursday night.

Thank you.

For Liberty,

Senator Lee Bright

P.S. I have always stood firm on our constitutional conservative principles, and now I'm asking you to stand with me. Please make your most generous contribution of $100, $50, $25, or whatever you can afford toward my grassroots campaign for state senate before the critical midnight deadline on Thursday. Thank you.
