This is good for LLR... the collective agencies are also working up an "Ask for ID" NR for people to be cautious when someone comes on personal property claiming to be a relief worker.

Lesia at LLR would like to send out the attached release. I don't think there's anything problematic about it, but wanted to make sure everybody was okay with giving them the go ahead before I do.

It reiterates a lot of what we sent in our release about protecting yourself from scams.
