Thanks Chrystal,

You are correct, they should be able to register with us and receive their free credit alert.

Can you please send the company contact info so we can investigate and rectify this as soon as possible.

The company may be confusing us with the Experian solution which requires the company to reside in South Carolina.

Look forward to hearing from you.

Thanks

Subject: Out-of-state Businesses

Derek and Matt,

I received a call yesterday from a business located in California that was told they could not be registered for free for the CreditAlert product because they were not located in SC, however, they have filed SC tax returns in the past, so their information may have been compromised.

Out-of-state businesses should be able to register for free if they have filed a SC tax return. Can this be corrected?

Thank you,

Chrystal Laughlin
