ANNOUNCEMENTS

2015 Alzheimer's & Related Dementias Webinar Series for Professionals

The National Institute on Aging at NIH (NIA), Administration for Community Living (ACL), and Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) are pleased to invite you to join the 2017 webinar series on Alzheimer's disease and related dementias for professionals in the public health, aging services, and research networks. Click here for the full webinar schedule.

Alzheimer's Resource Coordination Center (ARCC) Grant Application Information

ARCC within the Lieutenant Governor's Office on Aging is pleased to announce a solicitation for Alzheimer's services program grants for the grant year beginning July 1, 2017. The ARCC is requesting grant applications for respite care services as well as educational interventions for persons with Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders (ADRD), their families, and caregivers. For more information, please click here.

ElderCare Trust Fund

The ElderCare Trust Fund supports small community-based programs throughout South Carolina that help seniors stay in their communities. You can help seniors stay in their homes by checking Line 28 of your 2016 South Carolina Income Tax Return and completing Form I-330. Remember: "It's not too late to check Line 28!" If your organization has a program which accomplishes the mission of the ElderCare Trust Fund by helping seniors to live in their communities, click here for a grant application information packet.

SC Coalition for Care of the Seriously Ill (CSI) Advance Care Planning Analysis

The University of Kentucky has been contracted with the SC CSI to conduct an analysis of Advance Care Planning in South Carolina and to make recommendations. This survey should take no longer than 10 minutes. Please note that your answers will be anonymous. Click here to access the survey.

FREE LEGAL CLINICS

The South Carolina Bar sponsors free legal clinics around the state focusing on the following topics: Elder Law; End of Life Issues; Senior Issues; Powers of Attorney; Wills, Estates and Probate; and Senior Scams. You can find the schedule here. For more information about the clinics, or to schedule a clinic for your organization, contact Debbie Morris at debbie.morris@scbar.org.

Please let us know if you would like to be removed from our contact list by contacting Caitlin Watson at 803-576-3782 or cwatson@scbar.org.
