Yes, can we do something mid-morning (say 10?). Sometimes an agency will deliver their final comments after 5, or early the following morning, so I want to make sure that we have them prior to the briefing, if possible. Thanks.

Would tomorrow morning work to talk through it? We have the budget conference committee again on Friday, so I'm not sure we'd be able to meet then. Thanks.

Christian, Josh:

As I think I have mentioned to you both, we plan on publishing the First Steps audit next Tuesday, the 18th. We should have final comments from First Steps by close of business today. Would either of you like a briefing on the report prior to publication? If so, please let me know. Thanks.
