Here you got Holly. Let me know when you get this.

Quote from Governor Nikki Haley, "Chris won by the will of the people, and he should continue to follow his instincts that won him the trust of so many. His drive, knowledge, and experience will allow him to be a great governor. I look forward to working with him."

Hi there,
Thanks for your help. Even a sentence would be great.
I'm writing about Republican Chris Sununu, who was just elected governor of New Hampshire. He just turned 42, and will be the nation's youngest governor.
Does Gov. Haley have any advice for him? Did being the youngest governor turn out to be significant in any way for her?
Thanks,
