---

Katherine,

Here is information from our events staff. Please let me know if you need anything more specific.

We would love to have the Governor do a press conference Friday, November 15 in the morning on the report for her reg review task force.

Please let me know what else you need.

Katie

Sure! See below:

· We are currently holding meeting space at Wild Dunes for the Friday morning press conference. We either have the entire Tides Ballroom or Palms 6-8, both located in the Sweetgrass Pavilion. Click here to view floor plan<<http://www.wilddunes.com/charleston-wedding-location.php>>.

· We typically have around 250 attendees at the Annual Summit. Attendees include upper-level executives from banks, insurance companies, manufacturers, law firms, etc. The Summit is the Chamber's annual meeting and open to members and non-members so there will be various types of companies represented. Sponsors committed as of today include companies such as Ogletree Deakins (presenting sponsor), BlueCross BlueShield of SC, Ernst & Young, Bank of America, Sonoco, AT&T and Santee Cooper, just to name a few. I can provide a full list if needed.

· Wild Dunes is a gated resort and visitors must provide a pass to enter or be on the list of attendees. Therefore, we would need to provide WDR with an advance list of media outlets who plan to be there.

Let me know if you need more! :)

Tish,

Katherine Veldran with the governor's office would like some more information about the Summit (numbers of attendees, who it is open to, format) for the potential for the governor to come down there for a press conference Friday morning. Can you throw something together for me? Thanks!
