

Nikita Haley
The once great Gov.
South Carolina.

My my what a shame watching you go down the tubes.

We here in Vermont were very proud of you, and loved watching your career progress.

I guess we both know that has come to an abrupt stop.

Now sadly you have turned on the people and become what the people hate.

Just do your time, collect your Cadillac health plan, and pension, then go home and hang your head in shame.

You are living proof of power corruption , wow and you did it in record time.

I guess that something to be proud of, but little else .

See you soon on the foam bath with your gay buddies.....

So sad and disappointed

Your folks must feel the same way.....
