Flying this flag is anything BUT American! If it's about the southern confederacy, why do I think black don't fly it? There were blacks in the south! ALL excuses for flying it come down to one lame ideal -RACISM

I'm signing because it's well past time to put the bigotry that flag represents behind us. Put it in museums, discuss the inhumanity and greed of the men and women who flew it, who sought to destroy our fledgling nation in the starkest terms. Discuss the mislead men and women who died defending the privileges of the plantation owners, in the starkest terms. And use those examples to illustrate how that history is repeating itself today.
