Governor Nikki R. Haley

First let me tell you congrats on being the Dead Beat Parent capital of the U.S. The policies that SC hold are ridiculous and favor the non-custodial parent. Couple that with rude customer service representatives and an equally rude Governor's staff member, Gerri. I've unsuccessfully tried to reach Beverly Small, my caseworker, who is conveniently avoiding my calls.

SC has insisting that I take off work, drive 6 hours, plus the time it will take to go to court, find someone to get my children from school, just to fight to have my child support increased from $36 weekly(2 children). This is the most outrageous request. I have offered to send legitimate documentation verify my income. Although, I don't think I should have to do so, considering the children live with me. Certainly his sporadic payments of $36 week doesn't cover their living expenses. It is 2014! Tell me, Governor Haley, who supports 2 children on $36 week. Let's do the math. $5.14 per day for 2 children. That equal $2.58 per child per day. Tell me governor, how much do you spend in food? Is it less than $2/day? Can you live off $18 a week? Will that cover, food, shelter, clothing, transportation, entertainment, etc.?

The non-custodial parent, Calvin Hicks, who is married. He has his full time check and that of his wife. While I struggle working multiple jobs to take care of his children. You expect me to take off work, lose money in gas and from work to prove that I'm already taking care of my children? He knows the system very well. He knows that he can go to the court and lie about how much he makes and the Great State of Dead Beat Parent, SC will continue to sympathize with his plight. I will continue to struggle to raise his children ALONE. The Great State of Dead Beat Parent SC doesn't even garnish his wages. So the ridiculous child support payments are made when he feels good and ready to make it. Let's keep that going Governor. Nothing like having an embarrassingly low child support payment come only a few times a year. Good thing I'm a hardworking, caring parent, otherwise those two children would starve and live in a box, waiting for these payments.

The Dead Beat Parent, only has to drive a few minutes, to continue to lie about how much he makes and go back home and continue to NOT support his children all with the support of the Great State of Dead Beat Parent Capital, South Carolina. Kudos, for keeping your title intact. No other state harbors a Dead Beat Parent like SC. You should take a much deserved bow.

My court date is December 9, 2014 1:30pm in Aiken, SC.
