Subject: Governor Haley for Joy Reid this Saturday?

Hello Chaney:

I hope this finds you well. I am reaching out to see if Governor Haley could be available this Saturday for MSNBC's Joy Reid to talk about South Carolina one year later after Charleston and also what happened in Orlando. Anything you could do to help facilitate would be greatly appreciated. Alternatively, we could tape something on Friday. What do you think? Anything you could do to help facilitate would be greatly appreciated!

Best,
