Subject: Tourist Tax Vetoed (Local Option H. 5011)

Howard - Would you please ensure that all S.C. Congressmen get this email by May 31, 2016

Dear Senator Rankin,

This past week, Governor Nikki Haley stood up for over 15 million tourists, as well as 29,000 Myrtle Beach residents. Each of these had no say in a tax that cost our town $30 million annually in a regressive tax that never produced tourism growth of any kind.

On Sunday, we post this article that we will push to over 4 million Myrtle Beach tourists. <http://www.myrtlebeachsc.com/governor-haley-vetoes-tourist-tax/>

What is most upsetting about this tax to locals is the quiet nature in which this new extension was arranged. Locals now know that the media are fully in on this matter.

Luke - Residents and Tourists equally dislike this tax. We have not yet forgotten to corrupt way this tax came into existence.

We ask that you encourage each of your fellow senators to allow this tax to die the death it has so needed.

As ethics chair, work with those of us in this state who have come to realize how evil and unethical this tax has been and will be.

Sincerely,

David Hucks
