Governor Haley, my great great grandfather fought for the Confederacy. I'm proud of my ancestry, but frankly the Confederacy is a defeated power with a racist ideology. It is inappropriate to fly the Confederate battle flag over the State Capitol. Some (white) people can claim that it's their "proud heritage," but to African Americans and to many others, that flag simply represents slavery. Although I personally find the flag's symbology offensive, I wouldn't deny individuals their right to display it. However, it should not be displayed by government institutions. It is telling that Justice Thomas, one of the most conservative Supreme Court justices, recently found with the majority in favor of Texas in banning the Confederate battle flag from license plates. He clearly finds it offensive. I'm sure your Black constituency does as well. It is a very divisive symbol that harms South Carolina's image. It is time for it to go. Please make a stand. Thank you for your consideration.

 <MSG>

Dear Governor Nikki R. Haley,

It is with great respect that I write to ask, even beg, that the Confederate flag be taken down. I recognize that there are some in your great state who believe that the flag represents the heritage of South Carolina, and the south, but those beliefs are misguided. Symbols have great power, and the confederate flag is a symbol of racism to most people who view it. The fact that is is beloved by white supremacists adds to its visual power as a racist symbol. I know that as a politician, you must look for compromises to promote the interests of all, but there are times that we look to our leaders to provide exceptional leadership, and this is one of those times. Our country is in great turmoil because racism continues to thrive and it is time that all Americans ask, even demand that it stop. Taking the Confederate flag down would be a powerful symbol to your state, the country, and the world, that America is interested in healing our history of racism.

Respectfully yours,
Beckie [REDACTED]

Governor Haley,

I read in the Santa Rosa Press Democrat today, our local paper, that you want to wait until the grieving is over before addressing the issue of the Confederate flag which flies at full staff over the South Carolina state building.

Please, show some courage, take the flag down now. It is an abomination to see a flag fly that represents states that went to war to maintain the heinous tradition of slavery. It is the slap in the face to every African American citizen in South Carolina and to every person in the U.S. who supports them.

Do the right thing. Take the flag down now.

Dear Governor Haley,

I understand you need the assembly's permission to fly the flag at half staff. You look weak. Be a leader!!! Such an ugly thing that tarnishes a beautiful state that although I don't live there, I love. The Confederate flag needs to show reverence to what has happened and by doing so will begin to establish a new image in the face of the world.

It is so wrong to have the flag flying. You show that the flag symbolizes racial hatred to leave it up as it aligns with the message sent by a murderer. Take it down!!! What will the assembly do? Impeach you??? Take it down. Do it yourself.

Be a leader!!!! Susan [REDACTED]

The killings at the Emmanuel AME Church in Charleston are shocking for many reasons, but primary among those is the connection to the long history of racism in South Carolina. Rev. Pinckney understood himself as carrying on the extraordinary history of activism on behalf of Black Americans. We must understand the desire to kill him and his parishoners for what it is, which is a political act designed to terrorize the African-American community. This is in line with the history of White supremacy in the South, of which the Confederate flag is the most direct symbol. Southerners who support the Confederate flag as a symbol of "heritage," must understand that racism is a core part of that heritage. That heritage therefore goes against what is truly the most important part of American culture, which is its radical commitment to equality as the basis of freedom. Please work with the Legislature to remove the Confederate flag from government land in South Carolina. It would be a powerful sign that the state intends to place itself on the side of justice and equality, rather than the side of violence and hate.

Dear Gov. Haley,

I am an 80-year old white retired professor who grew up in the segregated south (Virginia). In 1954 I left to attend Columbia Univ. and have lived in the north ever since. I witnessed the evils of segregation and racism during my early years, including the racist attitudes of my family. I guess I voted with my feet by heading north. All this time I have seen the confederate flag as a symbol of a mindset that condoned injustice and suppression. I still cringe when I see it. I beg you to remove the confederate flag from the state house and help the citizens of your state stand for justice and caring--a caring that has been evident in the last few days, including that which you yourself showed on TV. I have seen beautiful, caring people among your constituents. The display of the confederate flag at this time does them an injustice. It belongs in a museum. Thank you.

I'm requesting that the Governor immediately call a Special Session of the Legislature to discuss the confederate flag issue as a way of showing her state that she hears all of the people. The body that regulates that flag can consider an amendment or emergency order to take the flag down permanently. If it fails to pass, then she tried. If it does pass, then I think the entire country will believe that South Carolina does mean what it says on camera.

Thanks and God Bless you all as you travel through this dark time.

Its quite hypocritical for you to stand in front of TV cameras and cry about the savage massacre of 9 of your citizens in their CHURCH, when you have the confederate flag, a racist icon not unlike the Nazi flag, flying prominently from various SC government buildings, including your residence. It's shameful!

The Confederate flag certainly has its place in history, and it should be relegated there, to museums and archives, as the shameful symbol of schism and racism that it is.

 Nikki,

As a former resident of South Carolina (early 1990s), I call on you to take a position of LEADERSHIP and remove the obviously-racist Confederate Battle Flag from the SC state capitol grounds. Do not be vague - take a stand. Your recent responses (<http://www.alternet.org/south-carolina-governor-gets-called-out-cowardly-confederate-flag-defense>) suggest that you either don't know right from wrong or are afraid to lead.

If you want to honor SC history, take the time to learn and teach the history. Why not consider, instead, flying the South Carolina Sovereignty/Secession Flag (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Flags_of_the_Confederate_States_of_America)?

Lead - don't follow.

Gregg

Governor Haley

Please let the flag not be removed by Roof and his horrible action! This is a flag that he withstood all the years of SC history. If it is time for any idiscussiobs to be addressed - put it to the people of SC by vote. Not by outsiders like President Obama, news media or even yourself. Let the people's voice and vote count. That is your responsibility. Let the People of SC decide I think you will find that to be the right and appropriate solution.

PLease so not do anything right now that connects The flag to the horrible murder committed by a mentally ill person. Can you not see how wrong that is?? It is as wrong as closing Golds Gyns or when he burned American flags or used a hand gun.

Address the confederate flag during our next election. NOT NOW over these murders because of a simple 21 deranged murderer.

PLEASE!

It is appalling to me that you did not direct your staff to take down the Confederate flag, or at least to fly it at half-mast today, Friday.

Georgia no longer flies the Confederate flag. Other Southern states and leaders recognize that it is a symbol which is used to rally those who support segregation or seek to return our Country to the era when only "white men" were making laws.

Your unwillingness to take leadership action, and your non-responsive answers to questions posed today, also calls into question for me your personal commitment to racial equality.

My husband and I were in the process of planning a family vacation in Charleston, and environs.

We will not visit Charleston or your state until the Confederate flag is no longer displayed over the Capitol and other state buildings.

Dear Gov. Haley:

I'm an Indian American/South Asian and I am saddened and deeply outraged by the shootings in Charleston. I understand that you have defended the display of the Confederate flag on the grounds of the statehouse in Columbia. Please take down the flag which is a symbol of racist ideology and actions targeting Black communities. Anybody with a true understanding of our nation's ugly racial history knows that this flag has NO place in our society now, and only serves to divide this nation further. As an Indian American/South Asian, I stand against racism and inequity. I hope you will too.

Governor Haley, Firstly my heart goes to those who have suffered great loss and the family members hearts filled with pain, to say the least, in lieu of the horrible incident at a church in our beautiful, historical state. I'm deeply saddened. I know what loss is, and the pain that overwhelms in the grief process. I was thinking that maybe it's time to consider pulling the Confederate Flag Down over the State Capitol, put it in a museum, and Honor it for what it truly meant back in the civil war days. As A Retired Non-Commissioned Officer, who unconditionally served our country, without prejudices, with Loyalty, Duty, Respect, Selfless Service, Honor, Integrity, Personal Courage, I personally feel, in Respect of those who died tragically, because of Hate, Please consider putting the Confederate Flag in a Honorable rest if you will, as it has been abused, objectified, and deemed a hate symbol for Caucasian hate organizations. The Confederate Flag wasn't always an evil symbol, it was a flag that represented a Militia's unit, and symbolized the core values of that particular civil war military organization. Put it in a Museum, Honor it for what it truly meant to civil war time militia. Respectfully asking you to consider, Respectfully, Retired Sergeant First Class, Troy W. [REDACTED], Non-Commissioned Officer, United States ARMY, Thank you for your time.

I just watched Govenor Nikki Haley on CBS This Morning and was disgusted by her and her inappropriate smile and was shocked that she would not openly support taking down the confederate flag. She disgraces your state and all human beings. That flag represents a terrible war in the US history over enslavement of human beings! I am a white person who knows what Jesus would do - He would burn that confederate flag on the pole for all to see.

Please stop lying about your reasons for not taking down the confederate flag. See the attached from the Daily KOS:

It's this law that Republican Gov. Nikki Haley is falling back on to excuse the flag's glaring presence during this time of mourning; a spokesman says the governor "does not have legal authority" to do anything about it.

But that's actually not true. The law itself says that the provision preventing the flag's removal "shall not apply to the maintenance and repair of the monument." All Haley has to do is send a member of the grounds crew up there and say that something needs fixing. Then we'd see if any Republican legislators have the temerity to complain. It won't happen-Haley would never have the guts-but it should.

Surely you need to take this very seriously. The man is obviously influenced by hate ideology and the flag is representative of this.

Please out of respect for the terrible killings, remove that flag...and permanently. We do not need hate propaganda. Those who want to honor their Civil War relatives can do so in other ways.

The confederate flag represents a government that seceded from the United States largely because we elected a president who "declared that that 'Government cannot endure permanently half slave, half free'". The confederate flag supports slavery. It symbolizes slavery.
Remove the flag from the statehouse and celebrate its removal!

I admire the work you are doing in the state of South Carolina. However, please consider placing that Confederate Flag in a museum. I heard you say on a television newscast that it is your heritage. The Germans do not fly the Nazi Flag or Swastika on their government buildings. People would be insulted and hurt to see that flag. Don't you think your black constituents feel the same way. It is a very hateful, harmful part of their history. I was stunned to see it was not even flown at half-staff following the tragedy in respect for the victims. Please remove that flag.

It is time for South Carolina to remove the Confederate flag. Please be a leader in ridding your state of this offensive symbol which is an embarrassment to the vast majority of Americans. This action is long overdue. If you and the S.C. state legislature do not act now, your state will continue to be seen as backward and unpatriotic. The flag is a symbol of a traitorous group of states that illegally attempted to secede from the Union while fighting to keep human beings toiling in slavery. How can you, as Governor, accept that flag flying over the very building where you work each day? It is a moral imperative that you replace it with a symbol that unites rather than divides.

In light of the recent hate crime at Mother Emmanuel church in Charleston, I believe it is past time to reopen the discussion of removing the Confederate battle flag from our state house grounds. There is no place in a progressive state for such remnants of a repressive past. It is interesting to me that we are 'concerned' about the SA and Rhodesian flags worn by this obviously troubled young man, and yet with the full weight of our state government to support it, we display an equally divisive symbol on our Capitol lawn.

I am a South Carolinian by birth - white - female - senior citizen. In my opinion, flying this flag does nothing to promote unity among our citizens and only serves to remind us of a shameful period in our history. Even though businesses being courted for relocation to SC have not expressed any concerns about this flag, I suspect it is because they are more interested in the number of tax breaks they can obtain than whether they should be making political or social statements.

Dear Governor Haley:

Your time to mark history is now. Leave your mark in South Carolina and US History now. Take the flag down now. You are our leader. You are an original American and a woman at that! Demonstrate your born-given leadership abilities as South Carolina's first American Indian Woman Governor and lead the road to take the flag down now. (You may wish to use reverse psychology with certain legislators and explain to them that "The South Can Rise Again Now If We Take The Flag Down Now". You are bold Governor. You are strong Governor. You are brave Governor. You can do this.

Dear Governor Haley, thank you for your consideration is removing the Confederate flag from the capitol grounds. My husband is LTC retired and I am a retired R.N. I am just saying because we are not totally ignorant. We are from Missouri and retired in SC because two of our three daughters and two grandsons live here. From the start we have been shocked and embarrassed that many SC residents still fly the Confederate flag in place of the American flag. We do understand that the existing Confederate flag is displayed at the war memorial and that it is impossible to lower it to half mass. We strongly feel that it should be removed from the capitol grounds and only displayed in historical museums and such. We strongly feel that it is not a symbol of South Carolina pride, but represents hatred and a very sad period in SC history. Thank you very much!

We all use visual clues to determine who we might be dealing with, face tatoos and prison ware, are useful information when trying to be safe.

What the rest of us in this world sees when you fly the Dixie flag, is lower IQ's, hate, foolishness and blood on your hands. Blood then, and blood now. We will avoid you, cross the to the opposite side of the street, spend our money elsewhere.

While you may feel this is unfair, it is your reality. Even if you are not the hater the flag represents-your are responsible for your state and the messages it endorses.

Governor Haley,

I have posted the following letter to your Facebook page, in the comments section of your post concerning the tragic murders committed in our state. Please have someone contact me to discuss what I can do to facilitate correcting this horrible message the flag sends, not only to all our black citizens, but to the rest of the world. We are sending a message that we not only tolerate racism, but celebrate it in South Carolina.

Sincerely,
 Wesley W. [REDACTED] III.

People aren't born racists, racism is learned. We've come a long way, but we aren't there yet. The first step towards healing, is for the sons and daughters of the South, to give up displaying and romanticizing the Confederate Battle Flag. The Governor should have it removed from the state grounds immediately, and if that is beyond her power, call an emergency session of the legislators and demand they amend SC's constitution to clearly state that NO flag, other than the sovereign American and SC State flags be flown on public property, except within a museum, or temporarily, for historical purposes, like reenactments. I have several forefathers who fought on the Confederate side during the Civil War and I am proud of my Southern Heritage, much of which is because I grew up witnessing black and white people working together for the common good, instead of just segregating themselves, as practiced in so many Northern cities. We actually aired our dirty laundry in the Sixties, shined a bright light on it and stated to the world that we were a better society and weren't going to tolerate racism. Sadly it appears that under the surface, behind closed doors, in the dark recesses of many peoples minds, the hatred simmered, until after electing our first multiracial President, pockets of racism have once again boiled to the surface and has reared their ugly heads nationwide. Once again, we must clearly state, in no uncertain terms, that we are better than this, and that we will NOT tolerate this behavior in our society!

Until that racist flag comes down, my family will not visit South Carolina. There are plenty of nice beaches to visit in other states. I would not even stop in your state for fuel while traveling. That flag represents a regime that went to war to protect the right of some men to own others. You have only to look at South Carolina's "Declaration of Causes" to understand that the war was fought to preserve slavery. The states rights argument was just a means to an end. The fact is remains: that racist flag is perceived as racist by 49% of the population I hope that South Carolina will suffer the same economic disaster that confronted Indiana when it passed the discriminatory RFRA. Times are changing, South Carolina. Try to keep up this time.

Dear Governor Haley,

As a lifelong citizen of South Carolina, I am writing with such a heavy heart after the tragic shooting in Charleston this week. My ancestors fought and died for the South in the Civil War, and yes, the Confederate Flag is a symbol of Southern heritage, but it is now time to remove it from the State House grounds. This flag is used by far too many extremists as a symbol of their hatred and intolerance as tragically demonstrated by Dylann Roof in his killing of these 9 precious souls.

I know you do not have the authority to take down the flag, but you have such a powerful position to take a stand and through your influence, remove it. I have already contacted my representatives. I pray that you have the courage to stand up against what I know will be many in opposition. Out of this horrible crime, may something wonderful and courageous take place. Please show the world that South Carolina loves ALL of its citizens!

Respectfully yours,

Melinda [REDACTED]

I believe it is time for the state of South Carolina to remove the stars and bars from overtop of government facilities throughout the state. Yes this flag has historical significance but it is A symbol of racism and bigotry. It was flown by a secessionist group of states of this country a treasonous part of the United States and we fought a war out amongst ourselves to end it's rule. Like the German Nazi swastika in Germany it does not represent the values and ethics of the state of South Carolina anymore and should be removed from above all state facilities . It can be flown privately, or at historical assemblies commemorating the Civil War but it is not a flag representative of the people of the state. It is time for history to move to its proper place in the past and this flag is very much representative of a time well past .

My son is a rising junior at University of South Carolina. An honors student and scholarship recipient. He is extremely proud to be a Gamecock (and I'm honored to be a Gamecock mom). The one thing neither of us are proud of about his time in South Carolina (or more accurately disgusted by) is that the confederate flag flies at the capitol building every single day. My son sees it numerous times a day on his way back and forth to class. A symbol of the civil war. A symbol of slavery. A symbol of prejudice. How can you allow that symbol to fly in front of the capitol one more day? One more hour? One more minute? You (and those that pressure you to keep it up) may have rationalized in your mind that it represents the great heritage of your state. Respectfully, I would say you have your head in the sand if you don't realize that for the majority it is a symbol of prejudice that continues to hold this country, and your state, from reaching our full potential as a nation and a people. I have lost count how many news stories this week that include references about the flying of the confederate flag in Columbia. Want your term as Governor to make a lasting impact on your state and this country? Take down the flag. Take it down this week. Take it down today. It is an embarrassment for your state. And for this country. Please. Make a statement. Do the right thing for your state. For this country. Thank you.

I noted Governor Haley how you were deeply touched by the senseless tragedy in Charleston, and how you and others have called for a conversation on racism in this state/country. However a good start to that conversation and in the memory of those killed would be to take down the confederate flag flying over our state capital. The flag is offensive to the black community and is a symbol of the racism and oppression they have had to endure. The flag must come down!! You could show true compassion and leadership by being the one to take it down. Please respond. Thank you. Also nothing really matched under topics, so it could be what I chose or it could be Welfare - welfare of the state that is.

Governor Haley: The Confederate flag on statehouse grounds had absolutely nothing to do with the horrible attack in Charleston. NOTHING! Liberals have been trying to get rid of that flag for decades, under any conditions and issues. I am a proud, South Carolina-born native who knows and loves our history, and still support the reason for our secession two hundred years ago: STATES RIGHTS! Slavery didn't become an issue until half-way through the Civil War, when Lincoln decided freeing Confederate-held slaves was the only way to break the back of the South because he wanted the war ended. Let it be known forever: Lincoln freed only those slaves in Confederate states! In the North, slavery still held sway for a few more years, and alternating territories were still being admitted as slave-holding states after the war ended! As abhorrent as slavery is to us now, that flag still means STATES RIGHTS for native South Carolinians of every color, Governor. Surely every state in the U.S. wants boundaries limiting Federal power over us. South Carolina, hold firm, and let the world know we still rebel against tyranny. We would all be better off if true history was not diluted, twisted, rewritten or forgotten. Respectfully, Donna [REDACTED]

Hi! A few years ago I published a book entitled THE SMART ALECK'S GUIDE TO AMERICAN HISTORY. While comedic in tone, I took the research seriously. It led me to reading a lot of newspapers from the 1850s and 1860s, as well as all of the articles of secession issued by various states who left the Union. All of these made it very clear indeed that they were leaving the Union primarily to protect slavery. There was no tip-toeing around it, no real effort to protect "state's rights" in the Confederate constitution. I'm sure you're familiar with South Carolina's Declaration, linked below. That flag is not about heritage. It is only hate. I understand that people will be upset if it's taken down, but I don't really care. It's the right thing to do. When you lose the war, you take down the flag. Please have the courage to stand up to their hatred and take down the flag. Declaration: http://avalon.law.yale.edu/19th_century/csa_scarsec.asp

Dear Governor Haley,

20 odd years ago my husband and I entertained the idea of moving our business a bit more south. South Carolina was one of the states we looked at. Our ONLY reason for NOT moving to your state was the fact that we saw that RACIST CONFEDERATE FLAG everywhere, even over your State Buildings. We did not want to be a part of any state that was so obviously and openly hateful to almost half of it's population.

My husband and I are in our 70's now and have since sold our business and retired. All our lives we have fought for civil rights; and were so encouraged when President Obama was elected. Our joy was short-lived. We are ashamed to be white and Americans; a statement I never thought I'd make. We are ashamed of States like yours that are still so racist.

If your pain is real over the recent massacre of black people in your state you should AT LEAST, move to get rid of that horrible Confederate Flag. OR, perhaps you should introduce a nazi flag to go with it? Both flags are equally offensive.

Sincerely

Jan [REDACTED] and Mark [REDACTED]

I implore you to remove the Confederate flag from the state house - though the argument may be "heritage not hate" it is clearly a symbol of hatred and oppression that has no purpose in our modern world. Most would likely agree that the Nazi flag is both a historical artifact AND a symbol of violence, hatred and genocide. The same could be said about the Confederate flag. It belongs in a museum to teach others about the damaging nature of oppression, not as a symbol of our state. Given the horrific violence on Wednesday and the clear racial motivation, it is time to retire the symbol of the Confederacy once and for all.

And shame on you and your state for flying that racist flag. And don't give me this shit about heritage. It's a heritage of hate, violence, and oppression of an entire race of people. How can you take pride in that? Your Southern white ancestors were assholes.

In my mind, you and those like you have blood on your hands. You wave your damn flag and use code words about "those people". You feed the hatred. And innocent people die.

Take down that racist flag!

Please, out of respect for one of your own politicians, Senator Pinkney, lower the Confederate Flag to half mast to show respect. To not do this very respectful act and keep it full mast to me in an insult to us all.

I am a DAR member, my Mother was a 17th Century Colonial Dame etc, but right now, I am appalled that the Confederate Flag is not being represented in a respectful way. How is it that the American flag can be half mast in honor of a death but not the Confederate Flag?

My forebears who fought in the War of Independence would want to show respect for a death.

I am heartbroken that we now are in the 21st Century and this flag that meant a great deal to my own family members is inflicting hurt to so many of us by not being lowered for this gentle giant of a man who stood for peace and worked so hard for human rights.

Even the governor must know that the confederate flag celebrates a time when she would have been considered less than others. Ms. Governor show the country what you are made of. Speak out. Dear Gov. Haley, Your state is quickly becoming a shining example to the rest of our country. The compassionate actions of the people of Immanuel Church in Charleston, and your heroic stance on bringing down a symbol of hatred are being viewed as visionary by everyone I have talked to. If the people of your state can show this much love in the face of such a senseless crime, I suspect it will be a huge draw for both tourism and new business to your state. Much more than this, you will serve as a beacon of hope and courage for transforming old prejudices left over from a less enlightened era of our country's history. You have my admiration and respect! Keep up the good work.

America cannot advance with policies that support open warfare on peace loving individuals. Do you want our cities to look and feel like Syria? That's where this ends. Please consider taking down the confederate flag. It represents nothing but prejudice and a dark history of hate. I spent four years living and studying in Charleston, and while it is a beautiful city, it is a dark city with a dark past that cannot be forgotten until all symbols of hate are removed and stowed away in a museum. You are a woman in politics and must understand what it's like to be judged unfairly based on your appearance. Take it down. We will not rest until you make this happen.

This flag is used during hate parades, along side the old Nazi Germany flag. It represents hate. Prisoners tattoo it on themselves to fit in with the other white supremest prisoners. Endorsing this flag is like endorsing the Nazi flag. The Confederacy killed hundred of thousands of American citizens. Why is this celebrated? I'm Jewish and when I see a swastika it sends shivers down my spine...why do you think a black person wants to see a symbol of their ancestors enslavement? You embolden those who hate...flying this flag at a government institution endorses what it stands for. People think that hate is okay if the flag is flying at the capital. YOU may not think it represents that. But millions of people who hate look at that flag as an endorsement of their hatred, that their hate complies with the law of the land. This incites the 1% of those haters to do something insane.

Interesting that in the drop-down menu, there is no listing for "policy," for it is the policy of the State of South Carolina that is at issue here. Flags are symbolic representations; the flag of the United States symbolizes its suffering to obtain freedom and represents the values of the country. The state flag, I assume, symbolizes the history, beliefs and traditions of ALL the citizens of SC -- black, white, Native American, Latino, etc. What, exactly, does the Confederate flag symbolize to ALL the citizens of South Carolina? Before the massacre in Charleston, Did anyone asked what that flag symbolized to white supremacists like Mr. Roof? Did any one inquire what the Confederate flag symbolized to the murdered victims who had invited a murderer into their Bible study group? If the Nazi flag flew in Berlin, what do you think that would symbolize? Have the political leaders of South Carolina no shame?

All sorts of tests, educational courses, and study are required to obtain a drivers license. What is required to obtain a gun permit?

Here's what the politicians of South Carolina symbolize to me: foolish, weak-minded and cowardly, and I have no plans to ever visit the state of South Carolina until changes are made.

<MSG>

Dear Ms. Haley,

I realize that you have probably already had your fill of letters concerning the presence of the Confederate flag flying over a government building. If you'll indulge me, I'd like to add another view point for your consideration.

I realize that there are those who view the Confederate flag as a symbol of pride of southern culture. I've grown up with a sense of this pride and ethic. The value of hard work. The determination to carry ones own weight. The willingness to give the shirt off your back for a neighbor in need. While we have held tight to those values, we've had little success in sharing it with the rest of the country. I believe that is because of that flag.

While those flying it might think of fried chicken, apple pie and a distaste for all things "tacky"; the rest of the country sees slavery, Jim Crow laws and bigotry. I believe that if we are to ever change the countries vision of the south, to view our culture with the same respect that we do; we must separate it from the feelings this flag conjures in their minds.

This flag gets in the way of our image. It perpetuates the deffinition of southern culture as one of bigots. The flag needs to be removed. It taints our image.

SC it is time for change, this flag represents hate, and division on so many levels. I believe it does not deserve to fly at our state building. We should want to foster all things that equate love, respect, and equality for all in this state!

 <MSG>

I was born and raised in Columbia SC. Never went far from home for most of my life. I live in Columbia now. I am a conservative, a senior citizen, and I am white. And yesterday was one of the most horrible days spent in an otherwise wonderful state. How sad I am for us. When the debate about the confederate flag was going on, I didn't much care one way or the other. I do think it is odd that we place this flag in front of the state house as a symbol of the passed instead of having a symbol that represents our future. And your administration has done so much to make that future look progressive and bright. The confederacy means nothing to me. I am the child of Sicilian immigrants. But yesterday I changed my mind. The flag needs to come down. It needs to come down in the memory of the people who lost their lives to a young man that thought it was okay to hate people for the color of their skin. I fear that our need to fly the confederate flag is giving young people the message that it is okay to hate. It validates these beliefs. I think it is appropriate to take that flag down and offer it to the families of the victims as a sign that we are sorry and are trying to do something to fix what is wrong. Our state is capable of being progressive (although most don't think so) and growing. We can take a new path. But I think if we continue to display a symbol of oppression I don't think we can move forward. I know the legislature will be the most resistant but I think now is a good time to start the discussion again. Perhaps the flag that flies now can be folded and placed on the desk of the senator that we lost. It will say that we can remember our history but we don't have to be imprisoned by it.

 <MSG>

I ask that someone please find the political will to REMOVE THE CONFEDERATE FLAG! It is time for the state of South Carolina to move past out ugly past of racial hatred - REMOVE THE CONFEDERATE FLAG. It is a slap in the face to over half the citizens of this state. That flag is a symbol of hatred and sedition. The argument that it is about heritage is so far off the mark - this is the battle flag of the Confederacy not the actual Confederate Flag a nuance lost on many who support it.

Outside of the moral reasons to REMOVE THE CONFEDERATE FLAG - lets look at economic reasons. The State of South Carolina could be open to say hold NCAA tournaments - bringing cold hard cash into our state. If we can't sell morality lets sell what everyone likes -money. Use the "boost to our economy" argument if you have to but please lets do what is necessary and right!

Governor,

To many, the Confederate Flag is a symbol of slavery and oppression. You know the history as the rest of this nation knows it.

NOW is the time to take down the confederate flag from the SC public square, anywhere it flies in the public domain.

It belongs in the history books, on display in museums so this country never forgets the hatred and oppression it represents.

Instead, it flies atop your Capitol saying to others that your State represents the meaning behind that flag.

It was a disgrace for me as an American that it flew at full staff while the American flag and SC flag flew at half staff after this your tragedy in Charleston.

Take the flag down Governor.

Regards,

PA Born and Raised Rural American

Governor Haley, I do not live in your state but I am a Union Civil War Re-Enactor of 43 years. I am so tired of hearing about the Confederate flag issue. I have family ties to the South and the the way to shut the uncivil war educated people up is to take down the battle flag. Yes the flag every one hates is the battle flag. Take it down and replace it with the 1st National confederate flag. I think that will confuse a lot of them. That flag does not show hate or what ever else they say. The Stars and Bars looks like a flag people will maybe feel more easy with. But look at the flag first see what you think of it and if you like it fly it. It would not hurt to try it and I hope you check out my suggestion. See these groups do not tell us that over 70,000 black men,women and children fought for the Confederate States. The Union had over 180,000 that served and the ones that were not in the army or navy were cooks, bakers, wagoners, and even cut new roads ect. It was the same for the Black Confederates as well. But you never hear this cause no body teaches it or talks about it. But I hope this helps you. Thank you for your time Don [REDACTED]

As a southern born & raised individual, I STRONGLY SUPPORT THE CONFEDERATE FLAG flying over South Carolina capital. I am proud of my southern heritage, including being proud of my ancestors who died fighting for our confederate states. Please DO NOT remove our confederate flag simply because some loud mouth protestors are trying to convince others the flag is racist. IT IS NOT a racial issue. It is an American issue. We fly the POW flag....so are we going to remove that flag because of anti-Vietnam war protests. Insanity does NOT rule in America. Tell the protestors to BUTT-OUT of South Carolina. Rebels & Yankees live together in South Carolina and if they can live together in harmony, then the OUTSIDE TROUBLE MAKERS CAN GET OUT OF TOWN!! Good riddance.

Is a shame that your State can justified displaying the Confedere Flag, that was not your State flag and the Civil War was because the South wanted to owned humans and no other reason. The flag belong in a Museum. South Carolina of Slavery? The Germans do not display the Nazi Flag because of what represent. I don't how smart people in United States be so Ignorant. Take the flag down before the demonstration that will show that you are a smart person. Freedom is not free from a Retired Army Disable Veteran. We gave our lives to fight the Nazis and your state is displaying our Nazi Flag

While it did feature prominently in "The Beverly Hillbillies" and "The Dukes of Hazzard" the days when this could be considered a harmless symbol of southern pride are long gone.

No person who has had a great-grandfather dragged from his home and lynched should have to see the flag carried by the hooded mob who lynched him flying on the grounds of his state capitol. No child on her second-grade field trip should have to see the flag under which her ancestors were enslaved flying above a monument to those who enslaved them.

The Confederate flag is a raised middle finger to all whose people suffered at the hands of terrorists bearing that flag. The equivalent would be the German government flying the Nazi flag in honor of their ancestors who fought bravely in WWII. Let's not make this a we/they issue, but a "we care" issue.

I would like to voice a concern about the flag waving over your governmental offices. As a former long time resident from Anderson, SC, I am embarrassed and ashamed that you are flying that flag after the massacre. YOU HAVE NOT EVEN PUT IT AT HALF STAFF!! Do you know what kind of message that sends to the rest of the world? I always thought the SC succession flag was 'don't tread on me'. It is incredible that an entire state holds on to that flag like it was a God. Unbelievable. And the news says it cannot change until January? have they lost their minds? It would not surprise me in the least if your state is boycotted. This is a serious national matter and the feelings of people holding that flag and that all the clubs or whatever/KKK/are able to rule that part of the U.S.; Like I said...this is absolutely crazy and I hope that someone has the courage to stand up for what is RIGHT.

Why do some people dislike the use of the Confederate Battle Flag? It is certainly an honorable symbol of an honorable time in history. People dislike it because of the hate groups who have used it for their causes over the decades. SUGGESTION = stop using that banner and replace it on the State House with the First National Flag of the Confederate States. This flag is mostly unknown to most Americans, and certainly has no negative connotations (unlike the 2nd and 3rd National Flags, it does not incorporate the Battle Flag). Southerners can still honor their past and their former flag, while not upsetting other Americans. The change would be simple to make, and would probably be agreed to by those in government. Hopefully, other states would follow your lead.

Dear Governor,

I am a native son of Greenville, South Carolina who joined the Marine Corps nearly 25 years ago. I still serve our nation on active duty and I look forward to returning to SC upon my retirement from active service. I am writing to you to implore you to do all that you can to remove the Confederate flag from our state's capitol building.

There was a time when I believed the Confederate flag represented southern history and culture and I believed it to be a symbol of great southern pride, which I embraced. Those days are long gone. I am far more educated and cultured now than that 18 year-old young man who departed SC so long ago. I feel a sense of embarrassment that my home state refuses to remove the flag from its capitol. It is clearly a hate symbol. It represents a shameful past that should neither be forgotten, nor celebrated. The flag has been adopted as a rallying symbol for virtually every white supremacy group in existence. And yet it still flies proudly over the SC capitol, empowering these hate groups with a sense of government endorsement.

I ask that you open your mind and ask yourself what the Confederate flag might mean to African-Americans. While I am not an African-American, I can only guess, but I imagine it would represent something like this: tyranny, slavery, ignorance, intolerance, cowardice, an unjust judicial system, a lack of civil rights, an inability to vote, a government that does not represent me, a lack of opportunities, fear for my family and hatred. It clearly does not reflect solidarity, freedom, honor, courage or justice.

Thank you for your leadership and your time in this matter. I ask that share this letter with anyone you wish in efforts to remove the Confederate flag from our state capitol.

Thank you and God bless,
Kenneth [REDACTED]

Gov. Haley - you appear to be a very reasonable and responsible person.
Your state's state's insistence on proudly(?) flying the confederate flag is both unreasonable and irresponsible.
Flying this flag - under any circumstances - is an insult to many (blacks & whites), and you KNOW this to be true.
The flag has clearly become a symbol for white supremacists and any group in the opposed to other ethnic groups, and you KNOW this to be true.

And to allow this flag to fly high, while the US and SC State flags are lowered to honor the horrific and unnecessary killings in Charleston, is a direct affront to the victims, their families and everyone in SC, as well as across the US, and you SHOULD KNOW this to be true.
Having attended college in Virginia and having lived for several years in NC, I know EXACTLY what people living there were expressing when they proudly display the confederate flag, and it is and continues to be a dark, ugly side of America.

It is time to remove this symbol of intolerance and hate from the American line of sight.

<MSG>

Please take the leadership necessary to have the Confederate flag removed from public display during this historical tragedy. Although some may feel the Confederate flag is a symbol of Southern Heritage. I would challenge this thought by saying the meaning of the flag has become a symbol of white supremacy and hate. By flying this flag, many people are emotionally tortured long after slavery should have ended. I am a white, Christian, female teacher of elementary students. I long to share the story of an American where people stand up for others and protect others before themselves. I want to show young people, change is still possible today. Racial tension is coming to a peak. Please support peace and healing by taking the necessary steps to remove the Confederate flag. I challenge those holding on to the symbol of a war long lost to represent themselves with a symbol of heritage which does not identify with the devastation of the South. I think if we just all sit down with a nice, refreshing glass of iced-sweet tea and really think about things. Common sense and good nature will prevail. Thank you for your quick resolution in this matter. You can make history with the courage to challenge those unwilling to relent. Thank you again, Shannon [REDACTED]

I am shocked that this flag flies over the Capitol building. This is a symbol of the Civil War that the South supported slavery. Just because family members were in this war does not mean we should fly the flag. It is as if we are celebrating supporting slavery and rascism. If someone's family member was s German Nazi, should we fly the flag with the swastika on it? Or do we stop and say, Hitler annihilated innumerable numbers of Jews in a cold calculated way and the swastika represents prejudice and rascism against the Jewish community. The Confederate flag symbolizes an ugly time and should not be celebrated. Please respect the lives of the 9 murdered people and take down this flag. Sincerely, Karen [REDACTED]

Gov. Haley,

I read your comments regarding healing the people of South Carolina, you should. You also artfully dodged any mention of leading a movement to remove the confederate flag from the Capital and all government buildings. You can do two things at the same time can't you? Can't you even for a moment, put yourself in the skin of a Black South Carolinian, and see what this flag represents to them? The greater good dictates that the confederate flag be retired to an appropriate history museum. There is no Mexican flag at the California, OR Texas capital grounds. Do the right thing. Show genuine leadership and lead the movement to retire the confederate flag. It's the most healing thing that you can do.

 <MSG>

Governor Nikki Haley,

First of all, Thank You for loving and caring for the state of South Carolina. I believe that there are times in our lives where we are appointed for "such a time as this". You have been elected into this position for such a time as this. You have been chosen to hear the cries of the hurting and bring about peace, victory, better policy, and change.

As we mourn such a devastating loss of 9 beautiful lives, I beg of you to fight on the behalf of SO MANY blacks in the low country, such as myself, and around the state of SC, that feel so betrayed by a symbol of hate flying over our state capital. I have heard politicians say "it is a sensitive subject" and "that debate is opening pandoras box". But, we can no longer let fear over a "topic" prevent us from making the RIGHT decision. IT is beyond wrong to let this flag that brings about such fear, animosity, separation, anxiety, and turmoil fly from a public political platform. As a bi-racial child to a Black Father and White mother, I was lucky to grow up seeing pure love between black and white... My parents have a great marriage and skin color was always minuscule to content of character. Unfortunately, the unity & equality of black and white is not backed up by our state. This is because, every SINGLE day that the confederate flag waves in front of the state house we are declaring, as the State of South Carolina, that prejudice is acceptable, that division is our motto, that my white mother is a better human being than my black father (not true they are both extraordinary). The flag may be a part of history, but it should not be a part of our future. The future of SC should be about love, peace, unity, and standing together to say NO MORE hurting, NO MORE killings, NO MORE fighting over skin color. I believe that you, Nikki Haley, have the platform to be the Low Country's greatest hero. You can listen to our cries and heartbreak and be our voice. God is going to use you bring about FREEDOM from racial hatred to South Carolina. God is going to use you to do what is right. I pray that he give you the boldness and bravery to tackle this sensitive subject that simply can no longer be left un-addressed. Thank You in advance for fighting to take this flag down. Thank You for loving SC enough to actually care about our cries. (Germany realizes that the Nazi Flag existed and it can be seen in museums, but they WOULD NEVER fly it from a political platform as a banner over their future.) May the new banner over SC be love, it is "for such a time as this". Thank You.

<SUBJECT>flying the confederate flag</SUBJECT>
<MSG>

If there is any sincerity to the statements of sadness over the shooting of nine blacks, who were killed solely due to the color of their skin, the very first thing that should be done is to lower the confederate flag to half mast. And better yet, remove it altogether, in honor of the Americans killed so hatefully. It is a disgrace to the state to keep it flying. As a 64 year old white woman who grew up in the south, I understand the position that our ancestors fought a fight for states rights and should be honored. My great grandfather died at age 21 after the second Battle of Manassas. If it were up to me, I would proudly wave the confederate flag in honor of my great grandfathers. But it offends too many people. It is a symbol of slavery and racism to at least half of your state. It is a disgrace to fly it knowing that it is encouragement to people who think like Dylann Roof.

My family came from Charleston. We visit at least four times a year. For the last 20 years, I have done research in the South Carolina Room of the county library. I don't think I can go back until that flag is down.

If you care about those who so needlessly died while praying, or their families and friends, take the flag down. Let's let the civil war end, and maybe that will help end the kind of thinking that caused the deaths of innocent people.

You need a policy initiative to end official racism. TAKE THE FLAG DOWN!

Sincerely,
Langdon [REDACTED]

I was shocked to hear that you have received no complaints about the Confederate (Rebel) flag that flies from your statehouse. So, I wish to register a flag. We have yahoos here in Texas that fly the rebel flag, usually on a post in their pick-up truck, cruising the beach, seeking attention.

Please take note of the word rebel. The people that originally flew this flag rebelled against the Constitution of the United States and wage war against the United States of America. They were traitors and as a result of their treason, 600,000 Americans were killed.

That is not a heritage to be proud of. Take down this treasonous flag!

Sincerely,

No. I will NOT sign. The US Civil War is one of THE MOST SIGNIFICANT EVENTS in this country's history. THE CONFEDERATE FLAG SHOULD FLY. It is ONLY A SYMBOLBOF HATRED. IF YOU LET IT BE, SND BY ACKNOWLEDGING IT AS SUCH. The "X" ball caps acknowledged a important piece of Afro-American history. The X hats, the Confederate Flag are, likewise, Freedoms of Expression, PROTECTED BY THE First Amendment. NEITHER IS THE CAUSE OF HATRED, NOR OF BIGOTRY.

The entire world is looking at South Carolina. And what does it see? A symbol of hate and defiance atop your capitol dome.

Alabama Gov. George Wallace hoisted the Confederate battle flag in 1963 before a visit by Attorney General Robert Kennedy in DEFIANCE of a judge's order to integrate the University of Alabama.

It took Alabama 30 years to remove a flag that was never intended to be flown over Alabama's capitol.

The Confederate Congress never officially adopted the flag -- actually the Army of Northern Virginia pattern battle flag -- that flies above South Carolina's dome.

Get your history correct, South Carolina. The world is watching and we are not impressed.

I humbly request that you put into action a plan to remove the Confederate flag from the State House grounds immediately. The forces of evil that have adopted this flag as their own have made it clear that the the Confederate Flag will never again be a positive symbol for the great state of South Carolina. As you can see from my name above I have a personal investment in this state dating from before the Revolutionary War. The flag no longer symbolizes the indomitable spirit of SC. Do the right thing. Take it down now.

 <SUBJECT>Emanuel AME Church Massacre</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

Dear Governor Haley,

South Carolina, the first state to secede from the union and begin the Civil War, has a long history of racial division and hatred. The Confederate Flag, the symbol of the Civil War and the racist mentality which fomented it, still flies above South Carolina's state capitol. Each day it waves, it is a daily reminder to black and white citizens alike that the races in South Carolina are not, even in 2015, equally respected. South Carolina is shamed and stained with the blood of so many black men, women and children and with unfair and unequal treatment of its black brothers and sisters which continues today through unequal health care, unequal schooling, etc. The flag fans a belief in racial superiority of white and hatred toward black citizens in white men like the depraved young man who massacred 9 black citizens in Emanuel AME Church for no other reason other than their color.

How long will South Carolina continue the abomination of waving its flag of hate?

There is much to be healed in South Carolina and this nation. A good symbolic first step toward healing would be to take down that shameful flag and fly only the flag of one united nation.

Enough is enough!! I beg you, PLEASE TAKE DOWN THE CONFEDERATE FLAG!

Sincerely,

Marilyn [REDACTED]

Displaying the confederate flag is a disgrace to all Americans. How much time do people have to wait to have this symbol of racism taken down?

I believe in change and I believe in unity and the only flag symbol we should care about is the United States flag. I understand the positive connection to the confederate flag but I also know the hurt its darker side brings. Im not saying it needs to disappear completely but it doesn't need to be flown on a capital pole!

Gov. Haley, I am a 59 yr. old white male from Kentucky who retired to Florida. Providentially, I am a son of the South. Allow me to express my profound condolences to you and the people of your great state. It's horrific and tragic. My e-mail is in regard to the Confederate flag being on the Capitol grounds in Columbia. I know that many think of that flag in very different ways. But as a Methodist, I am sure you will appreciate Jesus' logic on such matters. We are to do unto others as we would have them do unto us. Obviously, our African-American brethren find fault with a flag that for them symbolizes oppression. If we were in their shoes I think we would feel the same. Given Jesus' ethical instruction, I suspect that He wants us to take that flag down. I think love requires it, and I also think as softhearted as you are, you do as well. It can be situated in private places, most reasonably a museum. I think the people of your state are ready for it being taken down. I have some friends in your great state, and I can assure you they would. Paul said to prefer others. I think it's a perfect time to do that very thing. America and history will applaud you and your legislature. God bless you Governor and the fine people of South Carolina.

YOU ARE A WOMAN. AS YOU KNOW IN THIS SOUTHERN CULTURE, IF YOU ARE NOT A STRAIGHT WHITE MALE, YOU WILL BE KEPT IN YOUR PLACE. SO MY QUESTION IS, WHY DO YOU SUPPORT THE HANGING OF A CONFEDERATE FLAG, THAT DOES NOT LIKE TO SEE WOMEN PROGRESS, ALONG WITH KEEPING PEOPLE OF COLOR IN SLAVERY? HAVE SOME COURAGE AND TAKE DOWN THIS FLAG. BECAUSE OF THIS CULTURE, THIS THUG WENT OUT AND SHOT OTHER HUMAN BEINGS. HE IS SHOWING US THE EXAMPLE OF WHAT HAS BEEN TAUGHT TO HIM BY THE PEOPLE SUPPORTING THIS FLAG AND CULTURE OF THE SOUTH. I WILL NOT VISIT THIS STATE AND GIVE YOU MY MONEY WHICH IS WHY I PUT THIS UNDER ECONOMY. THESE FLAGS WILL COME DOWN EVENTUALLY, SO YOU MAY AS WELL HAVE SOME COURAGE AND BE HELD AS A LEADER WITH VALUES AND MORALS.

Tears are not enough. It's long past time to take the confederate flag down and put it in a museum where it can take its place in history. While removing a flag won't solve today's racial divide, it's a step towards saying this is a new day. The flag has come to represent a very bitter and oppressive era in American history, at least to Americans not living in South Carolina. It's waved as a symbol of pride by white supremacist hate groups. To the rest of us, it's an affront to the Bill of Rights we hold dear. South Carolina is a beautiful state with many wonderful people - but it's unfortunate that you choose to fly a symbol over your statehouse that has become evokes an image of an era of slavery and one that perpetuates a racial divide. I hope you and your political leaders will consider removing that flag as a testament to the 9 who died. Thank you for listening.

After the shooting at the AME church in Charleston, I was horrified to see the Confederate Battle Flag still flying at the top of the flag pole in front of the capitol building. I'm not sure who makes these decisions, but I don't think that flag should be flying in front of a public building. It makes it appear like all the southern states are still angry that the war ended - over 150 years ago - and slavery was abolished. Get over it. Show some decency. Seeing that flag still flying is repugnant!

I am a son of the South. My ancestors hail from South Carolina, Tennessee, and West Virginia. Some fought on both sides of the Civil War. The Confederate flag may represent heritage to some, and they are free to fly it on their property. But the Confederate flag also represents the effort of some states to perpetuate human bondage and to dissolve our nation. The US and SC flags were rightly flown at half mast on state grounds after the act of murder and terrorism at the AME church. That the Confederate flag remained at full mast is insensitive to the suffering of those in grieving. Remove the Confederate flag.

I find it appalling that the confederate flag is still flying any where much less out state capitol. Yes it is historical. But it is hatred. To see you cry over such a senseless tragedy in Charleston but knowing you havent gotten rid of this ugly stain on South Carolina makes ne sick. This flag has got to go. Ignorant rednecks should not be cratered to here in SC. We need to show how we are about equality. Taking that flag down would go a long way in race relations. Leaving there tells extremist rednecks like Dylaan Roof that SC considers the barbaric practices on the C.S.A were okay and that their ideals are still prevalent in todays society. Its time for the flag to go. Its time for equality. Its time for it to really be a great day in South Carolina.

Madam Governor,

With the horrific incident of last week foremost in our thoughts, the issue of the Confederate Flag flying near the South Carolina State Capitol Building has once again come to the forefront of discussion. Since the flag that flies is in fact the Confederate Battle Flag (most often erroneously associated with the Ku Klux Klan--see <http://www.rulen.com/kkk/>), NOT any of the actual national flags of the Confederacy, I would respectfully suggest a campaign be initiated to clearly define "Southern Pride" with the third national flag of the Confederacy (the "Bloodstained Banner" <http://goodoldrebel.com/know-your-confederate-flags-and-symbols-part-5-the-bloodstained-banner/>) and NOT with the Battle Flag that has rightfully or wrongfully accumulated so much bad baggage. Crystal clear public statements by officials such as you, other political leaders, and also community leaders could clearly delineate the different messages flowing from the two distinctly different flags, and might help begin the healing process.

Just my thoughts as a casual history buff.

Respectfully,

Dr Ed [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley:

Because of the AME Church terrorist attack, I respectfully request consideration be given to removing the Confederate flag from state government flagpoles. This flag symbolizes a time in our history when a great injustice was law and is symbolic of racial conflict. I do not believe this flag represents the overwhelming majority of decent, law abiding South Carolinians. I realize this act would not "end gun violence" but it would be a major symbolic gesture of reconciliation and a repudiation of those for whom this flag represents a belief system.

Thank you for your consideration of this suggestion. May God grant healing and peace to the victim's families and all South Carolinians.

Respectfully your,
Thomas J. [REDACTED]

Governor Haley: You said the other day that your job is "to bring everybody back together again." Then take down the Confederate flag; condemn racism; become an advocate for gun control. And read aloud to the people of South Carolina and of the United States the poem by Marjory Wentworth omitted at your inauguration. Certainly, now, two minutes of time is not too much to spend to acknowledge the history of racism of South Carolina. Contrary to what you said less than a year ago, South Carolina hasn't "really kind of fixed" its image problem.

Here, where the Confederate flag still flies beside the Statehouse, haunted by our past, conflicted about the future; at the heart of it, we are at war with ourselves huddled together on this boat handed down to us - stuck at the last bend of a wide river splintering near the sea.

Take a step to end that war and "bring everybody back together again." Be a leader and heal the pain being felt by the people of South Carolina and the nation.

I'm writing to express my concern and disgust regarding the confederate flag which currently flies at the capitol of South Carolina. As a proud American I have to tell you that I cannot and will not enter a state that flies the flag of a former enemy of the United States that was defeated in the most horrible war that we have ever fought. I am currently planning an extensive road trip of the United States and will now plan routes that take me around South Carolina as I will not enter your state and I will not spend any of my money in your state. If keeping Americans out of your state is your objective then I commend you on your success.

Gov. Haley, I support the ideas put forth in our U.S Constitution. I suggest that you read the Constitution of the Confederate States of America before you make a decision on the flag (and don't have a staffer do it). It clearly states what it stands for. How anyone can support that document is beyond my understanding and indefensible. It is clearly racist and hateful. What kind of community would proudly display that? I am glad I don't live in that state! When money is removed from politics ,politicians can actually vote for what is right and not be beholden to their masters. Change the culture, it is not ok!

Governor, I would like to make you aware of a political movement that is being formed to force you to remove the Confederate Flag from your State's emblem.

This has been tried before back in 2008, at that time we were facing a similar problem in New Jersey I will send you details on that situation

In the meantime don't concede anything. What these racial hucksters are trying to do is to take your legitimate grief and then to transform it into a blank check of obligation Somehow they want to use this tragedy as a means to another end!

I will send you a more substantial explanation to the problem in the near future, Don[t concede anything, This has nothing to do with Christian Ethics, .

It is the symbol of the ongoing fight of Washington D.C. tyranny over us and especially the good people of the Southern States.

The Civil War was about many things including the societies of the North looking down their nose at the People of the South. It still goes on today.

Stay strong.

Bring down that flag. It's nothing but the American version of the Nazi flag. I understand the history and the symbolism of it, but in today's world, all it does is widen the gaping wound of the racism it now embodies. It no longer means what it once did, it's now the symbol for white supremacists who want nothing more than to obliterate the black community. It's time to move forward and continue the healing process. Be a part of that and take it down.

At this time of grieving, it's time for South Carolina to rethink it's flying of the Confederate flag over your Capital Building and the naming of your major roadways after Confederate generals. It shows your state honors segregationists and white supremacists. It is revolting in this day and age to think your state is so hateful after 150 years. It's time to act! I, and many others, refuse to visit your state as long as that flag flies over your Capital. Wake up and do the right thing please!! Let this tragedy bring about some meaningful change in your state.

 governor,

this week's tragic assassination of nine god fearing black citizens in south Carolina makes us all aware that racist ideas wont disappear without active leadership on anti racial education in the state, a role for you as governor, the legislator, and teachers, parents, and everyone.

Prayer may make us more self aware but active teaching of the history of race in south Carolina and active analysis for our children of illogical racial ideas is now needed.

Is the confederate flag a battle flag symbolizing the sacrifice of hundreds of thousands or a symbol reincorporated to the state in 1962 to express opposition to freedom justice equality and voting rights of black citizens?

Who raped whom? Did black men rape white women or white men rape black women? This subject could be part of south Carolina history that focuses on the details of slavery and post slavery south Carolina required for grade 12 high school students?

How about helping high school students understand that south Carolina was founded on religious tolerance and racial intolerance.

How do we understand race and Christianity or race and islam or race and Judaism? a great subject for courses on religion. What do the old testament and new testament say about slavery? What about religious justification for slavery, part of all our religious histories? Where does the Klan fit into our history?

The young racial terrorist imagined the white supremacy of recent history in Africa. When teaching world history and world current events, can slavery and racial supremacy and religious or ethnic persecution elsewhere be studied to understand south Carolina history?

I encourage you and the leaders of the state to review education from kindergarten through grade 12 to see where age appropriate education about race can become core curriculum, with the goal of openly discussing racial attitudes and beliefs.

As a child of immigrants you understand the appeal of America and its reality! I hope you can rise to the opportunity you now have good luck

My name is Laura [REDACTED] I was born in Houston, TX. Educated in Seattle, Washington and Dallas, Texas. I'm a Family Nurse Practitioner currently working in Washington, DC. Beyond that I'm bi-racial, born into a family deeply entrenched in cultures rich with history. You are currently the Governor of South Carolina. You are also a woman born into a family deeply enriched with cultural history. I ask you, then, how do you sleep at night? Knowing such histories. Knowing American history. Knowing what that flag you happily pass on the way to work every day represents? Are you a traitor? Are you a secessionist? Are you racist? Do you support slavery? Have you no heart? No empathy for the lives taken from a racist terrorist? Take that god awful piece of cloth down. Burn it. Put it in a museum. Label it "the flag of the traitors" and move on. I am disgusted that a bill is being introduced to remove that hideous reminder of a filthy past. Do the right thing. Order that cloth removed TODAY. NOW. And not a moment later. Expect multiple phone calls regarding this issue.

Sincerely,

Laura [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

I support maintaining the Confederate battle flag. It is a symbol honoring those who lost their lives for something which they believed.
Do not allow activists to destroy this symbol. It and what it stands for did not have a part in the tragedy. It was caused by a madman.
Don't let minority activists ruin the symbol.

Does this apply to US flags, or to SC State flags only ?

having watched your tear-stained address following the killings in Charleston I was left wondering so what do we do? Do we continue to refuse to address the gun culture that we allow to permeate our daily life? Do we continue to allow the NRA to shape our gun laws? Do we continue to fly the confederate flag above the state capital? The very symbol of oppression and a way of life based on the suppression of an entire race is at the same time a validation of the racist views of many in our country. So save the tears. Do the brave and right thing and deal with the reality of what is going on. In the end ask yourself "what would Jesus do?"

I was moved by your reaction and televised statement following the massacre of 9 of who are said to be your finest citizens. But as an outsider watching the horror of yesterdays shooting play out I am struck by the paradox that this reaction happens after your state passed the most repressive voter restriction law obviously at people of color and the poor, and that your obviously shocked and heart felt reaction to the slaughter of nine of your state's residents took place under lowered flags except for the Confederate flag flew a full mast. You cannot have it both ways.

Slavery was immoral. The South fought to maintain an inhumane and cruel life inflicted on Africans. In this present day, groups that hate African Americans use the confederate flag as their symbol. I would think that people of South Carolina would be embarrassed to be proud of this part of their history. I am white.

The Governor went on national TV and appeared to be barely holding back tears when speaking about the killings of 9 black people in a church. But the confederate flag still flies high (not even at half mast) outside the legislature. And the governor has not labeled this as a terrorist attack. Why not? Maybe because she, like so many in the South, doesn't really care about black people. Maybe because she, like so many Republicans, is happy to subtly vilify black people and promote policies that keep the poor (black and white) "in their place". Shame on her. This was not just an attack on 9 people. It was not just an attack on black people. It was an attack on our entire nation, on the right to "life, liberty and pursuit of happiness". Nikki Haley may be Governor, but she is not a leader.

As a fellow United Methodist Christian, I plead with you to use your exceptional influence to rise above the usual political partisanship and ideology and lead the state in dealing with the underlying issues of which the terrible shooting is symptomatic. To view this as merely an isolated act of a single individual and thereby ignore the complex cultural environment that gives rise to such hatred and violence would be a dereliction of your duty as Governor. Now is the time to lament, grieve, and come together! However, it is important that we eventually move to action on such toxic issues as racism (including the Confederate flag), the gun culture, and the politics of hatred propagated by many political figures and members of the media.

I urge you NOT to yield to the knee-jerk reaction of a few radicals. The battleflag of the CSA does not symbolize the cowardly attack by a lunatic on the Church last Wednesday.

In this day and time, any reference to the Confederacy has come to symbolize race hatred. There are those of us who honor the memory of the South and hold no racial animosity to blacks. The flag should remain flying.

The wake of the attack on the Church, the next thing to come will be gun control radicals calling for confiscation of all guns.

My husband and I were considering SC as a state in which to retire, but after the bible study shooting and the refusal of the state legislature to remove the Confederate flag from the state capitol - we have decided that SC is not a suitable place for retirement. The racial hatred by some and the fact that parents would provide a gun to someone with such bias and hatred is disturbing, to say the least. Please convey these sentiments to your legislature and the state department in charge of attracting the relocation and/or retirement of those outside of your state borders.

I am deeply saddened and ashamed to live in a country that flies the confederate flag over a state capitol. I have been aware of racism since I was 9 years old and I still don't understand it. Please remove this symbol or racism and violence from the American scene. Symbolism is important. The Christian forgiveness of the victims of the slaughter in your state should move you to inclusiveness and kindness. Please do everything you can to keep guns out of the hands of murderers. You in a position to do good. Please do.

We need to have swift justice in the case of the Charleston murders. It is shocking that in this country we can wipe out diseases yet still have the plague of racism. I am concerned at the discussion of changes to gun laws and talk of removing the historical images of Confederate flags. Dylann Roof should not have the gratification of remotely thinking he made any difference for his cause in his twisted mind that changes occurred due to his act of trying to start a "racial war" . Guns don't kill, people do....and today, criminals can even manufacture a gun on a 3D printer if they want one bad enough. We need to address how to identify and handle folks with mental issues and racially violent issues before they become harmful to others or themselves. About the flag, it is part of our history, if you hide your mistakes...you will not learn from them. If you tried to remove all the pictures of slavery from the walls in SC it would not change the fact it happened. People need to see these things as a reminder to never let it happen again! We must stand united as citizens of every race to wipe out Racism.

Madame Governor,

I write to tell you that I will not set foot in your state until the racist flag is removed, and you and your administration recognize the racial conflicts that permeate especially the white population of SC.

The only way I can affect change is to withhold all tourist dollars from your state, and to continue to remind everyone--family, friends and anyone else-- to refrain from visiting there and spending money there.

You have a chance to make a difference, change policies in areas that will ensure that this tragedy never happens again.

Yours,

"C.B.S. This Morning" Really Gail King??? All you could think of in interviewing S.C. Gov. Nikki Haley was why the Confederate flag was still up... Nothing about a "mentally disturbed" man going off and killing ? Did it occur to you that all the rioting, burning, stealing -shown over and over on TV could have set this disturbed man off.... I am upset about the murders in S.C. praying for the families..We are living in troubled times...KUDOS to the Gov. Haley for standing up to Gail's stupid attempt to stir more trouble in race relationships -shame on you Gail King-- Gov. Haley was was awesome in her response-shut you down! Let us talk about healing.

Cry and grieve all you want, be choked with emotion as you speak about this hateful terrorist attack on a church, but the response to the church killings should be to immediately remove the symbols of racism from your state: Confederate flag flying over the State House and all the roads named after Confederate Generals. These are powerful symbols that are caustic to the open racial wound that won't heal! Do something and do it NOW!

You are the governor, show some authority and respond with action.

Govenor:

I have seen your comments about explaining the Charleston terroristic act by a racist man from your state. My prayers go out to these victim's family, friends, and church members.

You mentioned about the talk you needed to have about your son and why this could ever happen. This is a talk no parent wants to ever have with their children. Where does one even start?

As govenor, please start by removing the Confederate flag which flies over your state buildings. Do you want oart of your legacy being that you continued to allow such a symbol for hate and all it stands for to continue to foster these attitudes.

How will your son explain this to his children and your future grandchildren that their grandmother

Gov Haley, I watched your interview on CBS This Morning earlier today, and I have this to say -- what a gutless response. Nine people died because of a white supremacist, you recently had a white cop shooting an unarmed black man, and your state reportedly has nineteen hate groups active. And you don't have the sense to say, "Effective immediately, the Confederate flag will no longer be displayed on any state building in South Carolina. It is a symbol of hate, just like the swastika is, and I am ordering it taken down right now."

But no. You'll "have a conversation." Seriously, quit being part of the problem and do something right. Stand up for something. You're a big girl now, you're on the national stage -- do something in the public interest.

Governor Haley

I am a 64 year old White Male. USMC Combat Veteran. And I've had enough of all the racial overtones of late!

I am saddened to hear what happened in your State. I know you and your administration are equally so and are working to see justice will be swift for this heinous crime as well as working with the cities and communities to maintain a calm while denouncing all forms of racism!

My prayers go out to those impacted by this young man's poor values and with you Governor as you work with all to see swift justice is done!

I for one feel there should be no other punishment but the death penalty for this man's action. There is no gain to any form of racism in Our Country especially in this day and age and a strong message needs to be sent out to all that this will not be tolerated, that justice will be swift, carry a capital resolve and with no appeal!

But I do not agree with our president regarding more gun control! If anything we need to encourage our Law bidding Citizens to carry more and protect themselves and others if/when needed. This incident is not one but one of many, we have had our churches robbed during services throughout Our Land except in those States where the citizens are known to carry often and in all places.

This should not be played as a white on black issue. We need more news coverage showing whites and blacks working together, helping each other and residing side by side to a common goal of good and equality. I mean this sincerely, you and your administration should look into doing more coverage of this than the news coverage of this killing done by a minor ethnic percentage with low values!

And I do not believe the Confederate Flag should be made to be a sign of evil! It's original conception was one of Unity, Strength, Prosperity not racism. It has been made to look racist but it should be portrayed more for what it was meant to stand for, it should be part of Our Countries heritage and as such not tampered with! Here is another area where more coverage, education and form of pride should be brought to the public throughout Our land. Removing this piece of History will solve nothing and only add to the separatism that is in effect!

I look forward to seeing the quick results of this matter and would be interested in hearing from you regarding this email.

If I can in anyway be a symbol of support for You or your State please let me know.

Sincerely

Patrick H [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

Thank you for your sympathetic commentary after the tragic hate crime in Charleston. It grieves me to say that neither I, nor my friends and family, will visit South Carolina due to the presence of the confederate flag and the avenues named for confederate generals. This is a stick in the eye to black Americans in your community. I am not black so this is from a white person's perspective. Thank you for your time. Kathleen [REDACTED]

Dear Sirs

As a neurologist who used to practice in South Carolina, I must express my deep concern with the Governor's hesitation to issue a statement that the Confederate flag needs to come down - and permanently so - from the State House. It bespeaks racism, and every day that it continues now to fly is a strong statement in favor of racism and prejudice - and a long-outmoded view of the world.

Please pass my concerns along to her. They are not isolated, as even such people as Mitt Romney are now calling for a change.

I would like to see South Carolina lead into the future rather than lag.

Cordially and with deep concern

We are an Air Force veteran family and also a family of faith who have proudly called South Carolina home for 7 years. I am deeply saddened at the horrible violence that has occurred in Charleston and it deeply disturbs me that still, in this day and age, we still fly the Confederate flag in this state and that very few of our elected officials have the guts or conviction to see how morally wrong this is. How is this acceptable? What occurred in Charleston was motivated by hatred of another race and yet it seems our state looks the other way at improving race relations and getting to the root of this problem, which is racism. What happened in Charleston was not tragedy, it was home-grown terrorism, and I'm still waiting for one of my elected officials who I support to be strong enough to address this issue and bring it to light. My support in the future will go to the ones who are. Thank you for your time.

Governor Haley,

My heart goes out to your state and people dealing with such a horrific tragedy. As a high school history teacher, I have often seen the passion of the young turned toward terrible things but this instance is paramount. I'm so, so sorry that your people, your state, your administration, and you must come to terms with the devastation left by this young man's racism and hate.

I know sometimes as a leader you are between a rock and a hard place. I know that you must balance tradition with progress in a deep south state in order to remain a viable candidate in the future. I hope you will consider finding a way to finally stop flying the confederate flag at the capitol. This symbol of your proud history is also a symbol for racists and for hate. Though historians have tried to separate the two, most people are unable to make the distinction.

As a woman of learning, I know you are aware of the political minefield that surrounds the lowering of that symbol. I know you will do what you can in the face of political badgering. I just thought I'd lend a voice to the "put history in it's place" crowd.

Again, my sympathies for what you and your citizens must face together. I believe we are entering another era of civil rights and am sad to say that these people of faith are now martyrs to that struggle.

Sincerely,

Donna [REDACTED]

Why is the Confederate Flag on the State House grounds not lowered to honor the deaths in Charleston? If it is truly a symbol of honor and not hate, it should be lowered.

And so does the General Assembly plan to hold a vote on lowering the Confederate Flag to half staff for this horrific assault that left one of their own number dead? If not, then please spare us your crocodile tears. And put away that tired line about heritage. It really isn't about heritage. It really is about hate. And you've exposed that to the eyes of the world.

Yes, it is part of history, put it where it belongs back in history, not relevant today. Thank You.
