Subject: Huge Discounts on Almost Every Carnival Cruise!

Dear Mr. Kester,

Some cruise lines offer additional discounts for Vacations To Go customers who live in certain states or provinces (regional discounts), customers who are 55 or older, airline employees, police, firefighters, EMTs, teachers, active and retired military personnel and cruise past passengers.

Vacations To Go offers a feature, unique in the cruise industry, that allows us to show you every special discount for which you are eligible, whenever you browse our site. These special rates don't apply to every sailing, but when they are in effect, they are the lowest available.

If you have not recently updated your Vacations To Go Account to make sure you see the biggest discounts for which you are eligible, please click here to do so now. It will take only a moment.

Here are some great money-saving offers that we've negotiated with Carnival, Holland America, Disney, Regent, Azamara and Costa. They include shipboard credits, which are as good as cash on the ship and can be used toward onboard purchases not covered in the cruise fare, such as shore excursions and spa treatments.

Carnival is offering our customers fantastic markdowns -- save up to 82%. Past passengers may see better rates on select sailings. See dates and prices.

Holland America has reduced rates by up to 80% for Vacations To Go. In celebration of the line's 70th anniversary of cruising in Alaska, it's also offering our customers exclusive shipboard credits of up to $250 per cabin across a variety of Alaska voyages (you also can receive shipboard credits on last-minute Caribbean departures and in other Holland America destinations). As a bonus on select Alaska cruise tours, pay a reduced deposit and receive a free beverage package, a dinner for two in the Pinnacle Grill specialty restaurant and a $50 spending credit to use during the land portion of the vacation in Denali National Park. Book a suite and also get prepaid gratuities for two and a $200 Internet credit. Past guests may see better rates on select sailings. Book by November 15. See dates and prices.

Escape winter with a three- or four-night Disney Cruise Line vacation in the Bahamas from Florida. You'll find fun for everyone on board, including Broadway-style shows, deck parties with fireworks at sea and spacious staterooms. Itineraries call at Castaway Cay, Disney's private island paradise. Vacations To Go is offering our customers rare discounts of up to $1,000 per cabin and shipboard credits of up to $100 per cabin on sailings departing from now through early 2018. See dates and prices.

Regent is offering our customers savings of up to 84% and shipboard credits of up to $800 per cabin. Regent fares include unlimited shore excursions, gratuities, unlimited beverages including fine wines and premium spirits and unlimited Wi-Fi. See dates and prices.

Azamara is offering Vacations To Go customers discounts of up to 82% and shipboard credits of up to $1,000 per cabin on a variety of sailings. Book by November 14. See dates and prices.

Costa has reduced rates by up to 77% on an array of sailings, and select voyages qualify for shipboard credits of up to $400 per cabin. Plus, kids sail free on certain departures. See dates and prices.

As always, these offers are for new bookings only and subject to availability. Restrictions may apply.

Norwegian is set to open its new private island, Harvest Caye in southern Belize. The Norwegian Dawn will be the first ship to call there, arriving on November 17.

The resort-style destination features a white-sand beach, an expansive pool, multiple dining options and a shallow lagoon for kayaking and paddleboarding. It will host a variety of adventure and nature tours -- explore mangrove estuaries, see manatees or river tube through a rainforest. The 130-foot-tall Flighthouse provides aerial attractions like ziplining, suspension bridges and free-fall jumps.

In addition to Norwegian, sister companies Oceania and Regent will call here. Click here to see cruises that visit Harvest Caye.

Holland America has banned smoking on stateroom balconies, starting in January 2017. The new policy will be in place on most ships in the fleet by January 13. The Amsterdam will prohibit balcony smoking beginning April 26 after it returns from a world cruise, and the Prinsendam will do the same on May 6 when it completes a series of grand voyages.

Among the major cruise lines, only Costa still allows guests to light up on their verandas. Seabourn announced its own impending ban earlier this year; it will eliminate balcony smoking by December 7.

If you're looking for an extended escape from winter after the holidays, I've compiled a list of round-trip Caribbean cruises of 14 to 21 nights that depart in January. While you sail to sunshine and sugar-white beaches, your onboard meals and housekeeping are taken care of and you'll be looked after by a friendly, dedicated crew. Click here to view these departures, along with discounts of up to 67%.

For those who dream of even more time away from the snow and cold, Oceania invites travelers to become "Snowbirds in Residence" aboard two Caribbean cruises this winter: Settle into the Riviera for a 72-night cruise departing January 3 or the Marina for a 58-night cruise departing January 22.

Fathom has added three new shore excursions to its Cuba cruises from Miami. "In Hemingway's Footsteps" visits the writer's home as well as his favorite fishing village and watering holes. "Beyond Havana: Exploring the Cuban Countryside" takes guests to a self-sustaining eco-village and the remains of an old French coffee plantation.

Finally, "Magic of Santiago Featuring El Cobre" tours Santiago de Cuba before heading to a historic copper mining town, where participants see the shrine that is the country's most important religious site.
