Amended Disaster Resources

This morning, an email went out from us that provided information about Food Loss and the Affidavit of Loss Due to Benefit Group Misfortune. We have been working with DSS and following their direction to provide an immediate solution to those who have lost food during this crisis. However, DSS has since informed us that clients must visit their local DSS office to inquire about completing the Affidavit of Loss. We continue to look to DSS for guidance on how to best assist community members in need and will pass along any information we receive.

At this time, please do not pass out the Affidavit of Loss Due to a Benefit Group Misfortune form to your clients. We apologize for any inconvenience this has caused you.

Below are links to the list of DSS county offices and a Resource Flyer for disaster assistance. Feel free to share this with anyone who may need assistance information.
