It is clear that Trump is closing gap and now ahead of Hillary as per latest pool. Surprisingly even CNN is saying so.

Trump is on the trajectory for a potential victory in spite of the fact that most stalwart of Republican Party had left him to fight alone whereas the other party is fighting collectively very hard. He met NRIs in NJ and very supportive of India

My suggestion is that let us not loose opportune time. Let us get into supporting Trump

Further we can speak on phone.
