Historical Information:

Five privately owned, small store buildings once fronted Emma Cudd Road across from the Glendale Mill Village. Reaves Barber Shop held the business for which it is named. With the Walter Reaves, Sr. Lunch Room (site #1637.01), the Claude Reaves Store (site #1638), the LeMaster (later Hopper's) Grocery (site #1647), and Dillard's Meat Market (site #1648), this store is recommended as contributing to the NRHP-eligible Glendale Mill Village HD due to its close connection with the village and its residents.
