Hello, I am a black descendant of two Confederate Soldiers. Every time I hear of a Confederate Flag being taken down or a statue or monument being defaced, I get offended. I get as upset as if it were an American Flag. My ancestors served under their flag as I served under ours. If possible, I would like to obtain one of the Confederate Flags that was flown over your capitol instead of seeing it destroyed. Thank you for your time and consideration. Be Safe!

I would like to start off by saying I think you have done a great job to help build up South Carolina but I don't agree with you on the flag issue. People need to educate themselves on the history of the flag and stop trying to change history because it offends someone. That flag no more stands for slavery or a gun represents to kill someone. Everyone has good and bad in them but it is how we choose to live our lives. We are responsible for our on actions, people need to stop the blame game. I believe we have too people leaving off the government;therefore they have too much time on their hands so they argue about smaller things instead of focusing on bigger issues facing our national. I pray that before the vote the committee will search their hearts and do the right thing and not give into a small minority group like our supreme court did about passing law about the gay marriage. The values that people are living in this country is a disgrace. I pray God will heal our land. In God I trust.....

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

Thank you for taking the time to contact us. These have been very difficult times for South Carolina, but our hearts and minds remain fixed on the nine families and the communities shaken by this tragedy. Their grace and strength set a powerful example for us all.

Even in the midst of our grief, South Carolina set about the process of healing - not by talking about issues that divide us - but by hugging our neighbors, holding vigils, honoring those we lost, and falling to our knees in prayer. We came together as a state, as a unified people, to remember those we lost and to begin this healing process.

We've also come together in acknowledging that certain symbols and events of our past resonate differently among us. For some, the Confederate flag represents a history of their ancestry and heritage. For others, the flag is a deeply painful reminder of a brutally oppressive past.

Inspired by the victims' families and the re-opening of Emanuel A.M.E. Church, I felt compelled to make a statement about moving the flag from the Statehouse grounds. This is a moment in which we can say that the flag, while an integral part of our past, does not represent the future of our great state, and that by removing a symbol that divides us, we can move forward as a state in harmony.

The time has come for us to set the flag among the other markers of our history so we can set our eyes on the great promise of a united South Carolina. God bless.

My very best,

Nikki R. Haley

Governor, please keep racist organization out of SC. This includes the KKK, the Black Panthers and the NAACP. All of these groups give a bad name to our state. Any group that promotes their own race over another is racist. The fussing over the Confederate flag has gotten ridiculous. The battle flag has not harmed anyone. The perversion of the flag by certain groups have. If people actually new history they would understand our National flag, Ole Glory, has had more racism under it than any flag. Have a good day and thank you for your leadership.

Dear n/a [REDACTED]

Thank you for taking the time to contact us.

These have been very difficult times for South Carolina, but our hearts and minds remain fixed on the nine families and the communities shaken by this tragedy.

Their grace and strength set a powerful example for us all.

Even in the midst of our grief, South Carolina set about the process of healing – not by talking about issues that divide us – but by hugging our neighbors, holding vigils, honoring those we lost, and falling to our knees in prayer.

We came together as a state, as a unified people, to remember those we lost and to begin this healing process.

We've also come together in acknowledging that certain symbols and events of our past resonate differently among us.

For some, the Confederate flag represents a history of their ancestry and heritage.

For others, the flag is a deeply painful reminder of a brutally oppressive past.

Inspired by the victims' families and the re-opening of Emanuel A.M.E. church, I felt compelled to make a statement about moving the flag from the Statehouse grounds.

This is a moment in which we can say that the flag, while an integral part of our past, does not represent the future of our great state, and that by removing a symbol that divides us, we can move forward as a state in harmony.

The time has come for us to set the flag among the other markers of our history so we can set our eyes on the great promise of a united South Carolina.

God bless.

Since you do not have ancestors who fought under this flag, I guess you just want to get votes. Once again soldiers do not get the respect they deserve , because everyone must be kept happy. May I ask you if this guy was holding a book of martain luther king or a gay flag, would you be trying to remove this? I cmment the people in the charleston church and family members for the christian, yes I said christian!!!!!! Way they are handling this. S.c. is not doing so good, they are letting a bunch of outsiders come in and destroy what these wonderful chistian people have done. You will not receive my vote in the next election or anyone I know as I have already heard their opinions.

It is hurtful to those of us who have ancestors who served under that flag. My heart is angry about all the special groups taking away everything that represents who I am. History happened! Why can't we leave it alone. I want the American Dream for every American no matter their race. But why do I have to give up my heritage for them to accomplish that. Please consider us also when you decide about our flag. Thank you for your time.

The people of the Mother AME Church had so graciously declined any protest from groups like the black panthers and etc. The elected to do the Christian thing, But here come the Gov. the Pres. and all of the political views on the flag. You took away the focus of what happened at the church, and put it right on the very thing that "Roof" was trying to do, get a war started against the races. Well this isn't exactly a race was but anyway after all of their graciousness and loving and Christian sprit they showed. You took it away from them. What you should have said was, Yes we do have a problem with the flag, and we will discuss that after we have honored these nine great people that have died and laid them to rest. Now we even have a group from some where coming down protesting as the KKK. I didn't know there was such a thing any more. Thank You for your time. The early confederate flag is not as recognizable and is much less offensive. It may be a good compromise for the debate:

Do NOT remove the great flag LEAVE IT ALONE. You know nothing about the civil war or for that matter real racism. Ask any historian and they will tell you that the war was fought over states rights & not slavery. Yes , the economy was based on agriculture like cotton most people did not own slaves. The NAACP stirs up trouble any way they can. They don't know their own history such as Blacks enlisting in the rebel army to fight the north. Talk to any serious historian and they will agree that The Confederate flag has nothing to do with racism. Put the flag back you do an injustice to all by removing it.

I bet the REBEL FLAG caused the two planes to collide in South Carolina, just shows how stupid what your doing is you can blame everything on the Flag. I will fly mine with pride to honor my ancestors who died for something that thought to be correct thing to do, by the way you just as well replace it with a Mexican flag or maybe a ISIS flag, and by the way that bunch of blacks with the Governor look like a bunch of black panthers, im stocking up on ammo just in case. nothing like a good fight. Vietnam 1968 and 1969.

Dear Gov Haley'

As one of your longtime supporters I felt i had to write this note. Unlike you, whom apparently gave no thought to the ramifications of rushing to connect the flag issue with the murders of 9 innocents, I have given this some thought and a cooling down period. By not waiting a few weeks you have brought tremendous negativity and disdain to our state from around the nation. Even those of us who would like the flag to be removed hoped it would occur because of South Carolinians almy coming to an agreement and not because of outside scorn and influences (see michael moore). I hope this is the swan song of your political career as i will devote what ever financial, coercive, and supportive means I have to make sure you do not further your political career by throwing South Carolina under the bus so to speak. Hopefully, you and Sen. Graham can find a seat on the other side of the aisle soon. Sincerely, John [REDACTED]

Here is a rule of thumb: Do not poke a stick at a hornet's nest. Please understand you have done this in a big way! The terrible tragedy in Charleston was a moment we can no more retrieve than the stick in the hornet's nest. The Confederate flag did not cause Dylann Roof to commit the insane act any more than burning AME churches will keep it flying. Both these senseless acts are the work of criminally insane people.

When the tragedy first occurred, hate mongers baited you with taking down the flag and you wisely sidestepped them. I hoped you would stay on the high road and not sink to their level, but they have trapped you and I really see no way out for you. You can never make one group mad in order to appease the other and win. I can only hope our legislators can understand this and bail you out. You can do much to prevent the reoccurrence of these types of acts by speaking directly to the mothers in South Carolina and letting them know they have a resource in your office to use for help when they have a child such as Dylann. His mother, his stepmother and many school officials will tell you they knew he was turning evil but felt they had no where to turn for help. When the arsonist burning these Churches are found, soon I hope, there will be people who will tell you that they knew early on these people were evil. Put the power of your office behind getting the help needed to the adults in these cases. You will be helping those who need it the most and preventing more senseless act of violence.

 <MSG>

The removal of all SC and Confederate National Flags by the National Park Service constitutes a bastardization and assault on history. The rationale given by the Park's Superintendent was even more bizarre noting that boaters in Charleston Harbor might see the flags and become offended. If there were any place for a Confederate flag to flown, it's Fort Sumter, where else can you better teach the historic context of the flag?

All social issues aside, this park's decision to furl those banners including the SC state flag constitutes an assault and corruption of the very purpose and ethics of historical interpretation that the National Park Service holds dear.

Worst, removing the SC state flag represents a clear and present middle finger to the people of the State of South Carolina. I went overseas three times in support of the banner of my state, I'll be damned if I'll let the park service silently take down that indigo cloth that I so dearly revere.

We might as well remove all Nazi emblems for German war graves, all Union Jacks from Boston, and all American flags from Geronimo's tomb.

Dear Ms. Haley

It is unfortunate that the Confederate flag is associated with the deplorable act of enslaving a race of people. The institution of slavery was and is wrong and a vast majority (regardless of race) of us truly recognize this and are moving forward with identifying and correcting civil rights violations.

Being from Montana I can tell you that "The Red, White, and Blue" was carried into countless "battles" with the Plains Indians with the idea of annihilating them, taking their home lands, and opening this part of the country to white expansion. (Please read "Flight of the Nez Pierce" as a glowing example of civil rights violations that were known as high up as the Presidency of the U.S.A.) As a history buff, I assure you that there are hundreds of like "involvements" that were being done throughout the 1860's thru the 1890's in Montana, the Dakotas, Idaho, Wyoming, New Mexico, Arizona, Oklahoma, Texas, and other states.

Flags, even our own U.S.A flag have flown high over deplorable "popular causes" in the name of "government policy." Should "The Red, White, and Blue" be taken down in Washington D.C.? I think not! I do believe we should recognize past shames of history and vow not to repeat them. As a more recent example, we probably should not intern U.S. citizens like we did in WWII with Japanese Americans. Flags are not the problem! Leaders and citizens promoting insanely ignorant acts can be.

Part of history is to view all artifacts for what they were. A vast majority of Southern military in the Civil War did not own slaves, but were, for sure, caught up in the official propaganda of the time.

Sincerely, Van [REDACTED]

Dear Gov. Haley,

I'm not sure how how the KKK got permission to hold the rally but I would ask that you continue to keep the fight against this going forward. I support your position that the flag needs to come down and placed in a museum.

Please do something to stop this demonstration that wants to support that flag.

It's time and our state needs to move forward.

Most thankful for your stance on this issue,

Though I am not from your state, I felt compelled to write. Your stand on removal of the Confederate flag has only increased racism and hatred in this country. Thankfully I do not live in your state as I would be ashamed to have you as my governor.

I am concerned about your recent public statements and stance concerning the Battle Flag of the Southern States. I too mourn the loss of the fine Christian people at the church in Charleston but the out cry to do away with the symbol of the heritage of many honorable southerners is totally uncalled for. You cannot make history go away. You can however study history and make sense and understanding of it. The Rebel Flag is not a symbol of racism even though people try to look at it as such. It is a symbol honoring those Americans who fought and died for what they believed in. Contrary to popular belief the war between the states did not start to free the slaves. I voted for you in the last 2 elections and have always praised you for your leadership. Your latest stance leaves me wondering if your really the leader I thought you were or just another politician who has jumped on the "politically correct" band wagon in hopes of another election victory. To say the least I am very disappointed in you.

Governor Haley,

I was born in Columbia and had family that suffered the civil war. The aftermath of that war continued into my grandparents' lives and mine. It could be said that loses after that war have defined my life.

The confederacy is history and the sacrifices made to make it, no matter how ill conceived or implemented, should be honored. We do not just respect those that win in the fight for freedom do we? There are current arguments over the rights of self-determination and state sovereignty.

But the war is over. It seems that replacing the confederate battle flag with the flag of the confederate states would be a very appropriate recognition of the past and that the battle is not ongoing.

Thank you

Dear. Governor Haley: I write to congratulate you on the compassion and leadership you have shown since the tragic murders at Emanuel AME. If you manage to get that flag taken down, you will have earned your own "Profile in Courage." I can see on your face at the broadcast funerals that this has hit you hard. I believe you when you say you will make this right. I want you to know how many people around the country are rooting for you, as you do the right thing. I know you've got this awful Klan group coming on July 18. Their presence will prove beyond any doubt why the flag can't fly at the South Carolina Statehouse any longer, as their statements already have. I hope the thousands of Charlestonians who walked across the Bridge to Unity turn out in a peaceful counter-rally to show that these mean-spirited outsiders will not divide the Holy City or the Palmetto State. Keep up the good work, you are showing true leadership unlike most of the GOP men now in the headlines! Bless you.

As a current homeowner in Charleston, and a future resident (within two years), I wish to express my heartfelt sadness for the victims of the horrific hate crime in the A.M.E. church last week.

Furthermore, I want to unequivocally state that the allowance of the KKK to hold a rally with the intent to support the continued posting of the Confederate Flag is unconscionable and disgusting. I don't know how to respond except to say that I am reconsidering living in a city that cannot without reservation ban the appearance of an organization that represents the hatred that spawns such crimes against humanity. Shame on South Carolina if it does not take a stand against this rally.

It amicably reconciles all interests, and sets out a strategy to reclaim the flag from hate groups. In the few days since posting, it has received "likes" from Republicans and Democrats, Northern Unionists, Southern Confederates, black and white. It is only there because the WSJ won't touch it.

Ma'am,

Although I'm a transplant from Ohio, I have lived in SC for a total of 11 years, now and I believe that the 'Battle Flag of Northern Virginia' should remain flying, as a symbol of our State's History and Heritage.

The whole twining of the flag and the murders in Charleston is a classic 'bait and switch'. If allowed, those same antagonists will continue on, targeting their next American icon for destruction. It may well be 'Old Glory' herself. Already I've heard mentions of their targeting our Founding Fathers.

This isn't about slavery, but about the continuing destruction of the American Republic, by far leftists desiring the 'hope and change' that Socialism brings (Universal Poverty, according to history).

Don't be sucked into their scheme. They've already rewritten history, as it's currently being taught, throughout our Public Indoctrination System (formerly our Public Education System). Every single one of us has been taught such revisionist history, to one extent or another and only by delving deep into dusty Library books, written during the era, have I been able to discern the truth.

Leave history alone, as only by immersing ourselves in the true history of the past, can we keep from

Honorable Governor:

Please consider that slavery was not abolished in the North United States of America until AFTER the civil war ended. If you take down the Confederate States of America Flag, then you will have to take down the United States of America Flag as well. Please let the ALL the people VOTE on this issue.

If you are going to participate in the current flag debate and call for taking the flag down, Be sure you also call for the elimination of the NCAAP boycott of South Carolina and the elimination of all forms of the South throughout the State. If not, you are guilty of racism! You cannot pick and choose your attacks. You have to be consistent and fair. If not you are more guilty than anyone else because of your office. You are supposed to represent all people, not just the race baiters. Right now Scott Graham and you could not win a dog cather race. I thought more of you than to sink to this level of race baiting

A former supporter!

 <MSG>

There is no difference between the swastika and the Confederate flag. They both stand for genocide. Over a million Africans died during the middle passage alone. That is genocide. It is illegal to fly the swastika in Germany, you will be arrested. The fact that you have chosen to fly that abhorrent rag this afternoon is despicable and the gravest insult to the memory of the Senator. The Civil War was fought to end slavery - period. "Southern heritage" only stands for the defense of slavery, for the right to brutalize your fellow human beings. Your decision to fly that flag this afternoon means you are either a vicious racist who supports the actions of Mr. Roof or a clueless bimbo with no knowledge of basic American history.

This is what I put on my Facebook page this morning . I know I'm about to get a lot of crap for what I'm about to say. But first of all I do have a lot of Black Friends and Hispanic, Asian, American Indian, and a few white friends, different nationality and I'm not forgetting my Gay friends either. But you let a few people who want to take a item and make it out to mean Hatred are Racism. And your all ready to condemn it. And I want all the Black people that were Slaves back in the 1700 & 1800 to raise there hand. Well my point is none of you were around and I am sorry if any of your Great, Great Great relatives were. I know that Slavery was not good and it should have never happen but it did and you can blame the British and other European countries that brought slaves here. So if you want to get pissed off at someone do it to them. And this is the Double Edge Sword. And where would the bulk of the Black Americans be if there had not been Slavery. So I guess what I'm trying to say is I have worked in the Hood on and off for over 25 years. And I have never once had a Black person say to me that they want to see the Flag gone. My point being your letting a few people that want to use this symbol for Hatred. I myself if I lived in the Columbia area I would be that one person with a sign saying LEAVE IT UP & ALONE !!! So to me your being narrow minded. And if they do take down the Flag I think they should Demolish ALL and any type of Civil War Memorials and Monuments because if they don't nip in the bud now someone will start pissing and moaning about them too. I could go on & on about this. I have said what I think I need to say at this moment. And I am glad I do live in a Country that I do have FREE SPEECH. And finally I want you to know my Heart goes out to the 9 families in Charleston and also to any Black American family that has been touch with any type of Hatred & Racism. And no I'm not forgetting the American Indian either. So what ever crap you want to throw back at me I'm here. Thank you for your time !!!

Dear Gov. Haley:

I appreciate your response to the shootings in Charleston and your address to the citizens of SC and the nation. I thank you for calling for the removal of the Confederate Flag from the State House grounds and recognizing that it is a very divisive symbol and especially hurtful to SC's black population.

I am a born southerner and appreciate the service of those who fought in the civil war, including my great-grandfather; however, it is time to forget those divisions and move to the future.

Thanks again for your actions and I hope you follow through with your legislature to remove the flag.

I was sorry to hear that you want the Confederate flag removed from your Statehouse because it offends some people. Well, I am offended by some things too. As a descendant of both the Mayflower and one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, I am offended by Cinco de Mayo, Kwanzaa, having to hear and see (written) Spanish everywhere and Martin Luther King day. It was my ancestors who discovered, built up, and have fought for this country since the Revolution. I have always enjoyed visits to your state, but will now be going elsewhere. Your "politically correct" ideas have won but may have cost your state some tourism dollars.

I object and am filling a complaint with the DOJ regarding Federal dollars being used in South Carolina while it is a practice and pattern to invoke a symbol of racism and slavery. The racist killer used that flag to promote racism. Take it down - you took an oath to all the people. I know God will not give you rest until it down. Governor Haley, I will always remember my mother saying, if you're going to do something, don't do it half way, do it right. I was not as impressed as some by your initial response to taking down that despicable symbol of evil and racism. My vibes are usually spot on. It is evident you really do not understand. If you did, you would have found a way to remove that flag. Again, I appeal to you to do the right thing - take that evil down!!!

As a "white" American, I think it is time we respected the feelings of our fellow Americans who are black. God bless you for your lead in this situation. My prayers are with you because I know this action may bring some negative actions against on you from some quarters. Good for Governor Haley is posted on my FB page!!!

My great-grandfather served as a courier in the cavalry of General Thomas "Stonewall" Jackson. He fought in the army whose battle flag now flies at the South Carolina Statehouse. I suspect that both General Robert E. Lee and the deeply religious General Jackson would be deeply ashamed to see their flag flying at full mast above the body of a South Carolina State Senator who was murdered in the name of that same flag. But I suspect that General Nathan Bedford Forest, along with apparently many South Carolinians, would be proud.

Honorable Governor Haley,

I was so proud of our state and local area's response to the killing in Charleston, till you brought up a non-issue of the Confederate Flag! Why? This has taken a great response to a tragedy of murder and turned into hate in and of itself; divisive. Sad for you making this more than what it needed to be and more over, using a tragic situation for a political ambition!

Respectfully,

dear governor,

I have for several days pondered the situation that occurred in Charleston and what has followed. What transpired was the action of one individual and not a group or mobs action. So, you took action to abandon the confederate flag from the state's capital. What's next or you refuse to state it that the next removal will be the national landmarks. You politicians are all the same, you all have no logic put look for votes. You and leaders like the speaker of the house and the head of the senate are bringing the downfall of this country. None of you follow or respect the constitution or what this country stands for.

My great grandfather, his older brother, and two brothers-in-law enlisted into the CSA as young men. He was the only one of the 4 to survive the war. He was wounded, captured, and confined to a POW prison. The flag is a symbol of those who did what they thought was right

I was saddened to see yet another government official make a snap decision based on political expediency. I had been supportive of Gov. Haley and would have supported her if she chose to run for higher office until she decided in an emotional state, to say that the Confederate flag should come down. I will no longer be a supporter of hers in the future.

Dear Gov. Haley: I wrote to you yesterday and how things have ignited in less than 24 hours. Due to your puzzling attempt to blame the Confederate flag for the recent vicious murders of 9 innocent churchgoers, other progressives have followed your lead w/ gusto, i.e. Warner Brothers removing any trace of the flag on the Gen. Lee; military installations considering renaming posts such as Ft. Lee, Ft. Beauregard, Ft. Bragg, Ft. Benning, Ft. Hood; Sears, Wal-Mart, Amazon removing anything depicting the flag, Mitch McConnell considering removal of a statue of Jefferson Davis; Gov. McAuliffe moving to cancel production of the state Sons of the Confederacy license plate... You, Gov., are a disgrace to the South and those of us with a Confederate heritage. Your actions to discredit, besmirch and erase it should ensure your loss in the next election by the electorate you pretend to represent, most of whom are Southerners with a Confederate heritage.

How shameful it was to see the carriage carrying the late Senator Pinckney, a man of concern and compassion, being pulled alongside the pole holding the confederate flag, a symbol of hatred and racism. Out of respect it should have been taken down (at least for the day).

I am sure Dylann Roof would laugh his head off if he learned about this. Does he get TV in his prison cell? Please pass this message to Governor Haley. Also, please add more items to your "drop-down" list as this fits into nothing on it!

I think it is a big mistake to cave to liberals and take down the Confederate flag. The incident that led to this has nothing to do with the residents of South Carolina. Just like it would be a mistake to change the Second Amendment. I am a patriot from New Jersey soon to be either a North or South Carolina resident. Do not compromise your principles, you know what is right and wrong.

I bet your getting swamped with emails about the flag, both pro and con. Sorry, but here is another one. Consider this. Is the Swastika symbol a bad thing? You'd think so, right? And it is if you believe that it only represents that one thing. To a Buddhist, it is a symbol of good fortune, prosperity, abundance and eternity. Good thing I am not a practicing Buddhist with that on the side of my house....Id be shot, or worse, be accused of being insensitive to the feelings of others. In ancient Greece, it was a symbol linking heaven and earth. It is ironic, and unfortunate, that a symbol of life and eternity that was considered sacred for thousands of years (12,000 actually) has become a symbol of hatred. You see where I am going with this, right?

As an alternative, and to be politically correct and less potentially offensive, would one of the original confederate (non-battle) flags be a viable option?

I am not a S.C. resident, but a significant part of my southern ancestry was from Charleston, SC and GA since the 1700s.

Thank you for reading.
 -Drew

The governor issues a new release saying that she has no authority to remove the confederate flag that lies little more than feet from the body of the slain state senator.

Has anyone looked at whether she has the authority to grant a state of emergency § 166A-19.20. Gubernatorial or legislative declaration of state of emergency. I is definitely a stretch, but I think it's possible to say that experience of other states (don't need to mention them) in situations involving race have caused serious problems.

there's in attempting to be pro-active, declare a state of emergency for five days, take the flag down, have the state of emergency end and the flag returned to its placed pursuant to the legislation.

I know, it's "off the wall", but sometimes those are the best solutions in extreme s\circum\stances

As a past long-time resident of N Charleston I wish to voice my strong objection to your action to remove the Confederate Flag from the statehouse grounds. Especially, since much of its Honor was surrendered when the agreement placing it there was made. That was a multi-party agreement. This goes to show that you cannot trust democrats or black to honor anything. Now I cannot trust republicans either. You personally have displayed your willingness to throw Honor under the feet of out-of-state assholes. I trust this will be the last term for you, Graham and others of your weak brand of politics.

However, I'm far beyond being disgusted with ideologues trying to force change, i.e., "batter down the door"

You make your choice; I'll make mine:

If South Carolina votes to keep the Flag, fine with me.

If someone chooses to be offended, too bad. But that's fine, as well.

(I was offended that 62 million of my fellow citizens elected a president with a pitifully anemic resume' in 2008. Small good that did me; but so far I've survived. Hopefully, they'll vote rationally in 2016.)

Dear Governor Haley,

In the wake of the tragedy your state and the nation has recently endured, and with the Reverend Pinckney laying in state at the State House, I would like to offer a potential temporary solution. I wonder if the law as currently written would allow the possibility of enrobing the Confederate flag in a black shroud rather than having it removed, at least until a more permanent solution can be achieved.

Sincerely,

Kyle [REDACTED]

As a now FORMER supporter of yours, I wanted to let you know how disappointed and angry I am that you would even think about pulling the confederate flag. Are you kidding me? That kind of censorship is completely unacceptable. Feel free to insist that this be put on a statewide ballot, but please, PLEASE don't abuse your authority as Governor to pull a stupid stunt like this. Seriously. You need to apologize for this stupid knee-jerk reaction to a tragedy and apologize not only to your own state, but to the country whose history you are disrespecting by doing this. You can't even begin to imagine how offended I am that you did this. Please fix this immediately. Not only did you lose my support, but you have also lost my respect.

 YOUR ORDER TO REMOVE THE STATE FLAG FROM YOUR CAPITOL IS AT BEST TOTALLY USELESS, AND AT WORST, PANDERING. IT ACCOMPLISHES ABSOLUTELY NOTHING. ANOTHER REASON TO STAY HOME ELECTION DAY.
 SAUL ALINSKY COULD NOT HAVE DONE IT BETTER.

So how meanful is your intention to really remove that flag???

Governor,

Your career is over. I thought you were a good up and coming Republican, but you have dishonored my ancestors. Your move to be disrespectful has expanded. Now, my governor in Alabama is following suit. I just emailed him as well. I will make the same promise to you that I made to him. I pledge to donate money to whoever your next opponent is, whether it be a primary challenger or even a democrat! You have joined the ranks of the history re-writers. I have friends and family in your state- they agree with me- this will be your last term. You may have won approval from the media and national figures, but in the grassroots, you have lost a ton of credibility. I am looking forward to election night. Goodbye.

Governor,

I am appalled that you reacted so quickly to the radical agenda of the left. It was a knee jerk reaction and given time to ponder it I would hope you would have reacted differently. If we allow the media to dictate policies all will be lost. Why not put the flag to a vote to find out what your electorate wants? As a citizenry we are getting tired of leadership taking away our rights so readily. I don't have any affiliation with the confederate flag but I am a staunch advocate of our rights. I am proud to be a South Carolinian and I am normally in support of your policies.

Dear Governor Haley,

I frequently find myself in disagreement with your politics and policies, but I find myself compelled to reach out to you in support of your effort to remove the Confederate flag from the grounds of the State House.

I am a proud South Carolinian, but that does not mean I'm proud of everything that has happened in our beloved state. I am disgusted by that recent act of barbarism in Charleston. What better time is there than now to remove a symbol which, to me, represents enslavement of humans and racial segregation?

Please put that flag in the state museum where it belongs, Governor.

Respectfully yours,

Aron M. [REDACTED]

There is no reasonable question but that the State Government of South Carolina owes an apology, not only to its Black citizens but also to the 20,000 young men of the State who, at its call, sacrificed their lives in its defense, the apology expressly for the conduct of its politicians of the Sixties who high-jacked the symbol of a great battle flag of the Confederate Army for racist purposes. It is an affront to all concerned that this happened. In addition to the apology you, as Governor, can order the flag now, to be set at half mast, in recognition of its sore distress and the death of innocent citizens at the hands of a maniac.

Dear Madam Governor,

Regarding this Confederate flag controversy, I would suggest the most appropriate solution would be to put this question to the voters at the next general election. The question should be very simple; Fly or don't fly the flag - Yes or No.

Let the people decide, it's the democratic way.

We don't live in SC but we have traveled to and through it several times a year to visit relatives. I do understand being proud of your heritage but in this case it is wrong. You have a way to take the flag down for a short period of time to honor a man that was killed because of this flag and what it means to many of your citizens. You as the Governor and a US citizen should do everything in your power to honor this man, not humiliate him more. You should be embarrassed and ashamed to be the one that causes this dishonor and forces his body to lay under this piece of cloth. I may not live there but from this point on my family will have to come here for visits because I will not spend one more penny in your state and I personally will tell all of my friends to tell their friends to do the same.

I personally am ashamed to say your state is part of the country I fought for.

Governor Haley, please know that I, and many other citizens of the State Of South Carolina are greatly opposed to your efforts to remove the Confederate flag for the State House Grounds. You, being a first generation American have no heritage or ancestors that you can identify with the struggles they endured to forge this Nation. Your Culture and heritage is in India, which i'am sure you can relate to the struggles of oppression within your own people, but not within the Southern Culture. As a person of color yourself, I feel the agenda is to completely erase the Heritage of Southern Americans into a generic form of existance and to completely destroy any trace of what identifies Southern Culture. All this will be remembered,, but not in a good way. If the flag is taken down,, so must the African-American monument. I feel my culture is under attack, and yes,, I do have a culture and a heritage,, just as you do,, but mine is here in America,, as yours is in India,, please respect that.

Dear Governor,

I have noticed it times like these that the obvious solution to some of the problems we face, specifically the removal of the Confederate Flag from the state capital grounds, can become obscured by politics, emotion and , in the case of your desire to have the Confederate Flag removed , their current laws. I propose if you cannot legally have it removed have it covered up.

Respectfully.

I was deeply saddened to learn that in the face of the Charleston tragedy that you have called for the Confederate flag to be removed from state house grounds. I have always been a strong supporter of you but you have caved to appease the liberal extremists and I cannot support that in any way. That flag did not cause this tragedy in any way, shape, form or fashion. What is next, remove the civil war monuments, rename the streets, etc. The snowball effect of your actions is underway, Amazon, Ebay, etc, etc. This is shameful. Steve A Waters, company B 4th BN SC reserves, My great great grandfather left home at 16 years of age to fight for this cause, Government oppression. People need to get their history straight for once and quit blaming inanimate objects for peoples evil actions. Your actions will solve NOTHING.

Dear Governor Haley,

I have lived in SC for over 20 years. My family came to the USA in the early 20th century from Canada and Italy. Since I married into a southern family that has lived in the state since we were British, I have heard the arguments regarding heritage. There is a lot to be proud of in our state's history but I don't think that should take precedence over the history of terror that heritage represents to many of our fellow citizens. It is time for the Confederate battle flag to find a home in a museum.

Thank you for the efforts you are making to remove the flag but it is not enough. It is time for the State of South Carolina to apologize for the sins of the past, slavery, segregation and terror. We should also publicly acknowledge the strength, patience and understanding of this noble race of people who have endured so much. State for the world to hear that these things WILL NEVER be tolerated again.

I hope you will consider this. An apology would truly start the healing process for us all. Remember the positive response to Pope John Paul II's apology to the Jews. You can do that for South Carolina.

Thank You,
 Peter [REDACTED]
 Anderson, SC

You could poll representatives and see if calling a special joint session to remove the flag would work. This tragedy happened when my wife and I were in Florida with our two grown children. Both have ties to Charleston and were deeply affected. I think most everyone I know feel it is time to quickly take the flag down.

I will continue to send this until I get a response from Ms. Haley. If you block me, I will go to social media. I am trying to go about this in a professional and proper way without getting frustrated or downright angry.

I happened to be home on Monday when you gave your speech regarding the removal of the Confederate flag from the SC Capitol. Thank you, thank you, thank you! I wasn't sure what to expect, but your speech was beautifully written and expertly executed. It hit all the marks perfectly and everyone who actually heard or read what you said should stop and take notice. I, like many, have become very frustrated with the 24/7 news cycle, trying to pit sides against each other. I'm so thankful that I saw it live and can speak to what was truly said. Good luck with your battle. I hope it is an easy one, but I suspect it will be challenging. I am holding you and all of SC in my thought and prayers. Thank you again and God Bless!

Now that you have begun the process of removing the confederate flag, please do not stop there. I am concerned that your compassion will end with this issue. There is so much more that we as a country need to do, starting with voting rights for all. I know you love your state and country, please show it by allowing all citizens the right to vote.

Dear Governor Haley,

I just want to thank you for your position on taking down the Confederate flag from the Statehouse grounds. I think its removal will be a tribute to the Charleston victims, will help our citizens heal and come together, and will make South Carolina look non racist in the eyes of the country. This really makes me proud of our state and I hope the legislature makes it happen.

Sincerely

Gov. Haley with all due respect I feel your are wrong. The flag that you surrendered to political correctness. Was there to honor the 22,000 South Carolinian that died during the War. I thought you had courage but you proved you don't. You slapped every person in this state who has ancestors that fought. I hope you can sleep at night. I feel that if you are not a black,Hispanic or Muslim you don't count for anything. You are part of Liberals plan to destroy our country. One of the first way is to take away our history.  <MSG>

Hello: I'm writing to share an experience while I was traveling through South Carolina. A young man who I met in the Raleigh NC area, who I still consider a friend - had me tag along on his way moving down to Tampa, FL with some friends - to plant a church. My friend's name is Jay [REDACTED] and he spent time living in Loris, SC along with his father [REDACTED] and Francis [REDACTED] was, and I believe still is, a pastor of some sort. During candid conversations with Rocky when he let his guard down and apparently felt some of these ideas were welcome, he revealed that he (and his congregation) do not want or welcome 'black people' to their services. This was somewhat appalling but at the time I felt as though I was on this strange journey to help move my friend, and I was a guest in their house - so didn't 'make a scene.' As I think about the recent national news related to Emanuel A.M.E. Church, I felt that perhaps my one data point, and frankly 'real' experience with a 'real' South Carolinian was more telling and sadly representative (having only visited prior on family vacations to your beaches) than a one-off backwards town or individual. I am aware that sharing this information, depending on how it's used, could damage [REDACTED] - but it was and is flat wrong to express such views and those ideas should be exposed for what they are. I will be reaching out to local community leaders in the Loris area as well but would appreciate guidance on how to proceed. I was unsure how to categorize this message but choose 'Commerce/Economic Development' as this seemed to be the closest.

I am more proud to be an American as I witness progress in civil rights and race relations in the last few years, and have been given hope by the response of many politicians and companies to the latest heinous acts.

Governor Hailey:

I just contacted the Leadership of Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church, last week I contacted Mr. Mark J. Bourdon, Charleston's Chief Prosecutor along with both Ms. Loretta Lynch, the U.S. Attorney General, & Congresswoman Nancy Pelosi, the U.S. House minority leader. I contacted them in reference to the tragedy that took place at the Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church. I encourage you to contact both Ms. Lynch & the Leadership of Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church, to find out what this is all about, if you don't know already. Once you learn, become aware, of the truth, please openly communicate/voice it on the platform that you have.

Thank you Gov. Haley for your leadership and courage concerning the effort for the removal of the Confederate flag from the grounds of the Statehouse. You have taken a dark time and event for us in Charleston and used it as an opportunity to do something good for the state and the country. You have become an integral part of the healing that is the only solution to such a tragedy. This will certainly be a part of your legacy. I thank you for that.

Governor first I would like to say that I am very sorry for what that person (do not remember his name and I feel that is the way it should be) in your state or any state for that matter but I would just like to note that our country has been so white washed that we forget our history. Like the South was the side that fought for freedom for the black's not the north. The other item that I would like to bring to your attention is does anyone know what the NAACP stands for? Not sure that I have this right but you can Google it if you like but if my memory is correct it is North America Association of Communist Party? You are much better than I am with polite words but shouldn't these items be brought to the table when they (NAACP) is trying to flush our country down the toilet???

AGAIN AS A PERSON WHO LOVES MY COUNTRY AND I DO NOT SEE PEOPLE BY THE COLOR OF THEIR SKIN BUT BY THEIR DEEDS.
