

Account: South Carolina State Parks

Content type: Facebook Page - Timeline posts

Record ID: 20201014South-Carolina-State-ParksTimeline-posts52748_10158816346023166

South Carolina State Parks

at 19:35:30 on 10/14/2020 UTC · 🌐

Did you know sometimes we have to relocate sea turtle nests laid on our park to ensure their safety and viability? Take a look as Sea Turtle Specialist Leah Schwartzentruber shows us how it's done at Edisto Beach State Park.

Catherine Rigdon Katie, maybe this is what had been done to that nest?

at 20:36:26 on 10/14/2020 UTC

Katie Rigdon Catherine Rigdon maybe. Seems a little to big

at 20:58:22 on 10/14/2020 UTC

Madison Bradley Drawdy Go Leah Schwartzentruber

at 23:38:44 on 10/14/2020 UTC

Deloris Thomas My next stop. Edisto State Park

at 1:12:55 on 10/15/2020 UTC

Version: Current

Tags: edited

Dawn Rizer We are so lucky to have Leah on Edisto!!

at 1:35:12 on 10/15/2020 UTC

Peggy Eddens Leah , thank you for giving the eggs a safe chance to make it to the sea .

I have had the privilege to witness one boil on Oak Island about 15 yrs ago .
Truly unforgettable.
Again , thank you !

at 4:54:58 on 10/15/2020 UTC

Pamela Swain Thank you for posting Leah that was very interesting. 😊

at 21:42:36 on 10/15/2020 UTC