South Carolina State Parks

at 17:54:47 on 12/08/2017 UTC · 🌐

Just got this photo in from the park manager at Caesars Head State Park! About two inches on the ground and coming down steady. The park is currently closed. What's it look like in your neck of the woods?

Ann Green Susan Ragan, South Carolina snow. Still looking for that "dusting" in my neck of the woods.

Maxine Wills My father took my sister and I to Maggie Valley back when I was about four or five years old! There was a bear there that drank a Coca-Cola, she would get the bottle put it in her mouth, the bottle would almost disappear, and when she pulled it out it was empty!

Very foggy and winding roads! 🤔
