Housing is now open!

Join us for the 69th Annual Meeting of the Southern Legislative Conference in Savannah, Georgia. The Annual Meeting of the Southern Legislative Conference provides policymakers with an opportunity to share their experiences with others facing similar issues. Regional and national policy experts address an array of topics germane to the Conference's six standing committees. In addition, the Host State provides youth and guest programming, as well as Conference-wide social events, unique to the host city and state. Join us in exploring the sights, sounds and flavors of Savannah and the Empire State of the South!
