Subject: Re: Draft ad copy for ethics ads

This looks great. I would suggest one change to broaden the scope: "Now, too little information is disclosed to the public and ethics complaints against our Senators and . . . " PAC disclosure is especially important to Sen. Martin and I think he would appreciate acknowledgment of this piece of reform along with the other kinds of disclosure.

Good Afternoon All,
Please see below for draft copy for the ethics ad. We would substitute Senator Chip Campsen and his telephone number for the ad that will run in the Post and Courier.   Please let me know if you have any edits/corrections by close of business Thursday, January 14th. We will need to get the copy in the pipeline for the ad to run on Sunday, January 24th. A graphic is forthcoming.
Thanks,
Coretta

Thank you Senator Larry Martin

Thank you Senator Larry Martin for leading the charge to make lawmakers accountable to voters. Right now, ethics complaints against our Senators and Representatives are investigated by committees of fellow legislators who meet behind closed doors. South Carolinians deserve the peace of mind to know their elected official are representing them, not special interests. Senator Larry Martin has proposed that an independent body investigate ethics complaints.

Call Senator Larry Martin at 803.212.6610 to thank him for his efforts to promote good government.
