If you want to fight a cause, understand what you are fighting. First and foremost the Confederate never a national flag representing the South. it was a battle flag flown by several armies in Virginia had been a national flag for the South. understand that the Civil War wasn't just over slavery, while reason slavery ended, it was merely an excuse for the war. The North fought the war over money reason we fight half the wars these days and excuse it by saying we're fighting for another cause. simple. When the South started Secession, Lincoln was asked, "Why not let the South go in peace replied, "I can't let them go. Who would pay for the government?" Sensing total financial ruin for Lincoln waged war on the South. The South fought the War to repel Northern aggression and inv and yes this is a true stereotype, us southerners don't like to be told what to do! Lol. The Confede today finds itself in the center of much controversy. The cry to take this flag down is unjustified. important to keep in mind that the Confederate Battle Flag was simply just that. A battle flag. It v a National flag. so how could it have flown over a slave nation or represented slavery or racism? continued by lack of education and ignorance. Those that villify the Confederate Battle Flag are about history and have jumped upon a bandwagon with loose wheels. To touch on another subject it's a symbol of hate because it was flown over slave ships. and that's false but guess what was? 1 tag. Many also say it was the KKKs flag... Google KKK.... You will see them flying the Americ the Confederate Flag. The US flag flew over a slave nation for over 85 years! I'm not saying an Flag because I love it just the same. I'm simply saying that, if the Confederate Flag sh why not the American Flag?? The North tolerated slavery and acknowledged it as a Di made a vast fortune on slavery and it's commodities. It wasn't until the South decided the North objected. The North knew it could not survive without the Southern money know? At the time the War of 1861 -1865 officially commenced, the Southern States were actually process of freeing all slaves in the South. Russia had freed it's servants in 1859, and the South took this. Had military intervention not been forced upon the South, a very different America would have realized then as well as now.

Racism is being projected onto the Confederate Flag, which is in return, continuing the division and because one racist lunatic supported the confederate flag, doesn't mean every person who supports

The rebel flag to me means home. Southern pride. Wheat fields, sunflower fields, deer hunting, hay trucks, racing, family, and pride in where I'm from. Born and raised here and damn proud of it. Ign both ways. An item can not be racist, unless you are an easily offended person, or racist yourself.

<SUBJECT>Removal of confederate flag</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Governor Haley,

My ancestor, Robert [REDACTED] of Company [REDACTED] South Carolina Infantry, Joined the C army in March 1862.

Robert [REDACTED] had a wife and two children, and lived on a farm in Lee County. Robert [REDACTED] owned [REDACTED] When he left for war, he was also leaving his small family to fend for themselves as best they could. [REDACTED] clear understanding that they could quite possibly fall victim to all the dangers that persisted in that [REDACTED] including starvation. Still he left to fight because he knew that it was his duty to defend South Carolina [REDACTED] northern armies marching on his home land.

His wife worked the farm in his absence. While in the fields, she placed her two small children in [REDACTED] at the edge of the field where they stayed throughout the day until her work was done. They all suffered [REDACTED] Roberts absence. But just as he, they believed this necessary to defend their home.

No one would march off to war and certain death while leaving behind their family to possible starvation [REDACTED] order to defend the right of wealthy aristocrats to own slaves. Robert went to war to protect his home [REDACTED] nothing more.

During your press conference, you proclaimed that there were no winners or losers in taking down the Confederate flag. Yet during the announcement, those in favor of removing the flag because of the flag [REDACTED] represents nothing but hate and bigotry, were allowed to cheer as victors. In so doing, they reinforced [REDACTED] of society that I be given no choice but to accept that Robert Davis and his family were nothing more [REDACTED] [REDACTED] all the rest of my family for making his home and dedication to the State of South Carolina [REDACTED]

I firmly believe that the hate and bigotry that has plagued race relations in our country to this day are due to the humiliation and punishment inflicted on the South during Reconstruction. Without this vengeful retribution, it is quite possible that there never would have been a Klan or any other hate group. I also believe that Abraham Lincoln saw this inevitability if the South were to be so mercilessly punished in his absence. For this reason, Lincoln desired a peaceful reconciliation. The day after Reconstruction, Abraham Lincoln requested the song "Dixie" to be played.

Governor Haley, I would request that you follow the wisdom of Lincoln. If it is the decision of the legislature to remove the flag, then do so with honor and respect for the families who truly hold no hate or bigotry, only in the honor and valor of their ancestors who left their farms and families to die defending South Carolina. If there truly are no winners or losers as you would have us believe, then allow those of us who believe in our honor and dignity. I would suggest a full military honor guard to be sent to take down the flag, and perhaps present it to the Sons and Daughters of Confederate veterans. To those who would oppose this as a further insult to any who view the flag as a symbol of hatred, I would suggest that these individuals have all of eternity to revel in the flag's perpetual absence once it has been removed. For this they should be able to spare a few minutes of dignity for fellow citizens who truly have no hate in their hearts for anyone.

If such proceedings cannot be found agreeable to the members of the legislature, then remove the flag with notice during such time as not to make a spectacle of its removal.

If I am allowed, I would also like to offer a compromise if any such proposition would be found acceptable. In the state of Arizona, in the small town of Tubac, there is a cluster of flags which fly at the entrance to the town to represent all nations that have held this town under their control throughout history. Among them is found The First National Flag of the Confederacy. Tubac AZ is home to a hippy like culture of peace, correctness, liberalism and abundant amounts of golf. It is a blend that works well for them, and they are far from anything one could describe as racist or bigoted. Yet these people still hold to this pro-Confederacy because it is part of their history.

The First National Flag holds none of the racial divisiveness that is associated with the battle flag of the Confederate States of America which is now flying over the Confederate monument. I would like to propose that the battle flag be replaced by The First National Flag. The First National Flag is the symbol used by The Daughters of the Confederate Veterans. By placing this flag over the Confederate monument, this would remove the symbol of hatred and bigotry while at the same time, continue to honor the sacrifice of those who fought to defend South Carolina. This would also demonstrate that Nikki Haley's words were spoken in sincerity when she said that there were no winners or losers in taking down the battle flag.

If this proposed compromise is deemed untenable, then I would suggest that the state flag be flown over the monument. Our state flag, the palmetto and crescent on a field of blue is in fact the Confederate flag of South Carolina. It was commissioned and designed to represent the Republic of South Carolina at the time of secession. It was our Confederate flag, and it has been our flag ever since, as it always will be.

Thank You for your time and consideration.

DEAR GOVENOR HALEY.

I AM WRITING TO PERSONALLY THANK YOU FOR YOUR RECENT SUPPORT TO TAKE THE CONFEDERATE FLAG OUTSIDE THE STATE CAPITAL BUILDING. IT IS TIME. IT HAS BEEN TIME FOR MANY YEARS. IF WE ARE EVER GOING TO OVERCOME THE LEGACY AND OF THIS COUNTRY'S CIVIL WAR WE MUST STOP FLYING A REBEL FLAG. I SHARE YOUR ETHNICITY. MY FATHER IMMIGRATED TO THE UNITED STATES IN THE 1960S. MY MOTHER IS A SECOND GENERATION AMERICAN OF ASHKANAZI JEWISH FAMILY. I AM NOT ALONE. I AM A NON-BLACK RACIAL AND RELIGIOUS MINORITY IN FEARING THAT FLAG. I GREW UP IN WESTERN NC FROM 1980 TO PRESENT. I HAVE TOO MANY EXAMPLES OF THE FLAG OVERTLY CREATE FEAR AMONG MY FAMILY AND FRIENDS TO TOLERATE THE MISNOTION THAT THIS FLAG SHOULD NOT BOTHER ANYONE. THE FLAG HAS BEEN LEFT IN WHITE SUPREMIST LITERATURE ON OUR LAWNS, IN OUR MAIL BOX AND IN THE BACK OF OUR FAMILY BUSINESSES. ON MY MOTHER'S SIDE WE LOST A TREMENDOUS AMERICAN FAMILY DURING THE HOLOCAUST. WE CANNOT IMAGINE ANY STATE IN GERMANY FLYING THE NAZI FLAG DESPITE THE HERITAGE. WE VIEW THE CONFEDERATE FLAG AS NOT DIFFERENT.

IT IS IMPORTANT THAT THE SC LEGISLATURE CONSIDER THE ACTUAL AND MORE HISTORY OF THE FLAG IN MAKING AN UPCOMING DECISION. THE REBEL FLAG WE TODAY WAS NOT IN COMMON USAGE AFTER THE CIVIL WAR EXCEPT AT VETERAN

GATHERINGS OR MEMORIALS. IT CAME INTO COMMON USAGE AS A SYMBOL OF DEFENSE AGAINST CIVIL RIGHTS PROGRESS AROUND THE TIME OF BROWN V. BOARD OF EDUCATION. DISPLAYS OF THE FLAG BECAME MORE AND MORE COMMON THROUGHOUT THE SOUTH IN DIRECT OPPOSITION TO CIVIL RIGHTS MOVEMENT. I DO BELIEVE THAT MANY WHOM DISPLAY THE FLAG ARE IGNORANT OF ITS MORE RECENT SYMBOLISM.

THERE HAS BEEN MOVEMENT IN THE SOUTH TOWARD YOUR POSITION FAMILY BY FAMILY AND YEAR BY YEAR. I HAVE WATCHED AS THE WHITE SOUTHERN FAMILIES OF MY FRIENDS HAVE TAKEN DOWN ALL CONFEDERATE FLAGS AND OTHER "REBEL" ITEMS IN THE LAST 20 YEARS AS THEY BECAME MORE SENSITIVE AND KNOWLEDGEABLE OF IT. I HAVE ALSO WITNESSED WHAT I BELIEVE TO BE THE MAJORITY OF WHITE SOUTHERNS REJECT THIS SYMBOL OF HERITAGE WITHOUT REJECTING THEIR SOUTHERN IDENTITY.

I WISH YOU COURAGE IN THE UPCOMING LEGISLATIVE DEBATE OVER THIS ISSUE.

SINCERELY,

KIRTI A. [REDACTED]

<SUBJECT>Confederate Flag</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Madam Governor!

I write to you in regards to the whole Confederate flag issue. Personally, it is not important to me if it goes, but what matters to me is the left once again using a crisis to push their agenda. I feel that the beginning of them rewriting history. One, I understand that many have used the flag in as a symbol through the years and that it is now a divisive symbol. However, with the left, there is no compromise was agreed to in 2000, just as one author put it, "conversion or censorship." We cannot blame objectors, guns and a flag as making someone commit a horrible and evil act. The shooter is responsible for his actions, we are blaming other things instead. If the flag disappears, evil will continue and people will use it as a symbol of hate no matter what. What is next, remove all memorials and statues of Confederate generals and remove them from buildings. Let's change Hampton Street since the Governor was a Confederate officer. Let's remove the statue from the Statehouse grounds as well as the memorial altogether. Let's not forget the Confederate battle flags in our cementaries that honors those who fought. It is true that slavery was a inhuman and evil act, but we cannot erase it from our history. We learn from it. There continues to be slavery in the United States, the smuggling of humans and in the sex trade. There is an ignorance of history that the left do not want to acknowledge. One, there were African American men who fought under that flag and that the majority of the Confederate Southerners were not slave owners, just a minority. Also, slavery was not the principal issue, we fought the war because Washington was telling the South who they could and could not trade with. The war was about states' rights. Slavery was an issue, but not the only one. Third, we will dishonor men such as Stonewall Jackson who personally was not too thrilled about slavery and even taught and supported a Sunday School class for freed slaves where they learned about the Gospel and reading and writing, something that was illegal. For his courage and leadership, he is the only Confederate general honored in an African American city.

Ave. Presbyterian in Roanoke, Virginia. There were revivals on both sides as men came to know Christ and fought for their beliefs, good or bad. If the GOP continues to lead this crusade with the left, we will be contributing to the eradication of the Civil War. Yes, it was a very dark period in our history as brothers fought each other, but it is part of who we are and we have come a very long way and continue to do so. I am a Southerner and I will do what I can for unity. I agree that we should do what is necessary to unite the South, not at the cost of our rich and diverse history. The left will never stop until they get their way. If they do, they will move to the next thing, schools, buildings, and parks. I am a conservative and you have shown good leadership in this difficult time in our state's history. All I ask you is that you do what you think necessary as our governor, but not at the cost of our history or constitutional rights. We need to educate people and not more importantly, on when to report people who are showing dangerous signs so that we do not have this again. I am proud of my brothers and sisters in Christ at Emanuel AME as they have shown Christ to the shooter and to the world through their forgiveness. This is what we should be focusing on and not blaming objects, books, news programs, etc... for a sociopath's evil deed. We are responsible for our actions. I love SC. I have traveled and lived in other parts of our incredible country and I prefer South Carolina because it is the best and an example of Southern hospitality. We should aim for compromise as we cannot let one side rule. The flag is part of a monument as a result of a compromise which demonstrates good leadership. It is not of a sovereign nation. It is a relic that reminds us how far we have advanced. I understand that Wal-Mart and EBay are refusing to sell Confederate related items like flags and that many communities are trying to remove any link to the Confederacy from their towns. It has begun. We must ask ourselves, are we still fighting the Civil War, us or the left? Thank you for your time.

<SUBJECT>Pandora' Box dealing with the confederate flag controversy </SUBJECT>

<MSG>

To me the confederate flag is a part of my heritage. I love history. I love to do research and I have that Unfortunately our government does not teach the whole truth as to why the civil war began. if the history books the first portion "why it was started" it is either missing altogether or barely even American public is lead to believe the whole war was about slavery which was not even an issue w broke out. I have always felt the history books taught hatred. resentment and separation of races ev young.

The U.S. abolished slavery over a 150 years ago thank god. But there are some people out there wh deserve more because of what there ancestors went through (not them personally). I'm sorry if I so it is next to impossible for anyone to be alive today and not have some ancestor in their past that w Slavery has gone on since the beginning of recorded time and sadly it continues today in the birth p African Americans.

I personally hate the extremist groups that use our Rebel Flag as a desperate attempt to associate to justify their beliefs and cause. but if they knew the true history of the flag. they would not associate with the Natzl flag instead.

If you deny the southerners the right to their heritage you must also deny the desendents of African as well. This is where Pandor's box comes in. There is not one national African flag out there today a history of slavery, oppression, murder, and abuse of women and children. all are stained with blo feet. you would pretty much have to outlaw all the flags of the world from being aloud to be flown flag, because of what we did to the Indians. We stole their land, slaughtered them, imprisoned then them human rights

If the state of South Carolina is truly considering the removal of the flag from the state grounds, then be up to the voters to determine the outcome of the flag.

One more thing, if we are going to band the southern flag because it offends the 17% population of Americans, then we also must for the sake of the African Americans feeling band any and all the ir Lincoln, after all he though they were only half human and half monkey.

Food for thought, teach the truth and stop teaching hate and maybe our country can finally heal fro of the civil war

Thanks for your time

Tracy

Dear Honorable Governor Haley,

While I commend you for your swift action to call for the Confederate Flag to be removed from the State House grounds, after this horrible, demonic massacre of the 9 lives lost last week. I the life of me not understand why the flag continues to fly during Senator Pinckney's viewing today. At the very least it should be flown at half staff!!! I was appalled last week that the Confederate Flag was flying high, while our state flag and the U.S. flag was lowered to half sta embarrassment to our state! I respectfully ask that until the Confederate Flag is removed, PLEASE authority to have this disgraceful flag flown at half staff!!

Senator Pinckney's funeral is Friday and I pray that out of respect for him and the other lives lost, that this flag will be removed or at least lowered.

I would also like to commend you for your courage and for your leadership. Thank you for your assistance. Blessings to you and your family.

Sincerely,

Missy [REDACTED]

Nikki,

We have never met, but I wanted to send you a note. I have no idea if you will receive this, but I hope so.

First - I commend you for recognizing the confederate flag needs to come down.

Second - as a mother of 3 Caucasian children, I have to say that I have been in denial about racism in South Carolina and the genuine feelings of hatred that the confederate flag symbolizes to some people. As I lived here in South Carolina most of my life, I've just been oblivious.

I grew up on a farm in Southern Indiana. The closest thing to diversity were the Amish people in our community. I didn't attend school with any black children, Asian children, or Hispanic children, and I think American Indians still existed. Then I married and moved to Charleston. I worked for a company that employed predominantly African American people, many of which were single moms that worked by the way, they preferred to be called black). I'd never seen anything like it. One of my best friends since passed away was a black woman. We used to walk every day and I remember walking with her to the Walk America event in downtown Charleston and she showed me a hospital. She said that used to be a hospital that she had to go to when she was little. I looked at her and said, why would they paint the bricks black, wouldn't that make the building even hotter? She just shook her head and laughed at me. I admit it, I was clueless. And when she told me what it really meant, I was mortified. In my mind it couldn't imagine anyone treating her any differently than me.

I lived there for 8 years then moved around with my husband's career and we have settled in Columbia here the rest of our lives. When the confederate flag issue was raised in the past I always thought not from SC so it's not my circus, not my issues, and I never really cared whether it was there or not enough. I remember being appalled when the Ten Commandments plaque was requested to be taken to the state house. I don't know what happened since then, if it remained or not, but I was truly upset.

When innocent South Carolinians were killed last week because of the color of their skin, I realized I was home, and this is now my circus, and I need to take a stand. The confederate flag reminds me of the Hazzard, a TV show from my youth; but it reminds black South Carolinians that they were once enslaved, abused, and even people that I loved in my own lifetime were segregated, mistreated, and not even allowed to use the same hospital as I would have been.

In all honesty, I hope this tragic event can bring us together and closer as a nation and as a state. If they get that flag removed and put away in a museum and that can remove a symbol of oppression to our state here in South Carolina then we will be making great strides towards the harmony that I thought already existed. Racism is real. As much as I don't want to admit it, it is still alive in South Carolina and the only thing about it is try to teach my children and future generations that we assess people by their actions or intentions, not the color of their skin. My 15 year old daughter tearfully told me last night that the pastor of the church he forgave the shooter and asked God to have mercy on his soul. If the black community of that church humbled to pray for a person that has killed their family members, then I say the very least that we white community to support our fallen brothers and sisters, is to take down the flag that may continue to perpetuate the hatred that caused the shootings.

My family fully supports your intention to remove the confederate flag!

I have never been prouder of my Governor than I was when you announced your desire for the Cor to be removed from the State House Grounds. I have been praying for this day since 1962 when it the dome. It has always been a flag of oppression. I am a native South Carolinian whose Great Gra fought in the Civil War. But that flag stood for oppression when he fought and it stands for the sam that is simply not what we should be standing for. It belongs in a museum where that part of our sa housed. It has no business being on the state house grounds. Some people use the excuse it is a part history. Those same people would be outraged if they went to the capital city of Germany and saw Swastika flag flying in front of the capital building and heard the people of Germany say, "We hav because it is a part of our history and our grandfathers fought under that flag." Oh, but they killed th name of that flag. Well, we hung, beat, and raped under the idea of that flag.

I am so proud as a United Methodist that you, a United Methodist, heard the word of John Wesley those who believe in God through Christ will be people who do no harm to others though they may you or believe just the way you do. To the Honorable Governor Haley:

As a strong supporter of the Confederate Battle Flag for the real reasons of States Rights, State Sovereignty, Self-determination and a State's Right of Secession...I do not take say the following lightly.

Even I opposed removing the Confederate Battle Flag from the State House Dome to the Confederate Memorial. The complete removal of it from Statehouse Grounds would likely be more-palatable if the Union/Federal Flag was also removed from the Capital completely, if not ALL State property.

This would appease die-hard supporters of the Battle Flag, including those who secretly support it, but be politically correct publically. I believe it to be a fair trade and should garner enough votes.

If this fair trade seems unlikely and the Battle Flag does get removed, then the First National Confederate Memorial should take its place at the Confederate Memorial.

Governor Nikki Haley, your decision to call to have the flag removed is misguided. That flag does South Carolina and the south. It is not a flag of hate or of racism. you are about to dishonor every man fought for that flag. You are being pressured by people who harbor hate and who are misguided in this country. maybe you didn't see the pics of the young gunman but he was burning an American flag. America in general. you can't condemn all for the actions of a truly screwed up person. Reconsider on my Heritage and many others white and black. Dear Governor Haley.

I am very disappointed in you for your decision to remove the Confederate Flag.

You, like so many other politicians and other entities, quickly caved to left-wing special interests. By doing so, you disenfranchise millions of other Americans.

The very people who are accusing the rest of us of being racist and intolerant, are really the ones who are racist and intolerant. By removing the Confederate Flag you are supporting their intolerance towards Americans like me.

The Confederate Flag is part of our history, and for many folks, it's a source of pride that has nothing to do with slavery.

It honors the veterans of the Confederate army, who, no matter how history is twisted, were Americans who fought for their country.

By supporting the removal of that flag you are taking part in rewriting American history and paving the way for empowering a group of people whose misguided agenda is fueled by irrational hate towards caucasians.

Please reconsider what you are doing.

Sincerely,

Diane

I find it amazing that people are connecting the actions of a vile and evil man with Southern history includes the Confederacy. While yes there were slaves in the South, let me remind you that there were slaves in the northern states. These states included New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania, as well as Washington DC, and slaves were also brought into Boston Harbor and Rhode Island.

So if we look at symbols of oppression, then the US flag would qualify, since ownership of slaves in these northern areas. The Emancipation Proclamation only addressed slaves in the states that had not those in northern states.

We also need to look at what the US did to the Native Americans. They view the American flag as a symbol of oppression. Should we not also remove this flag and all symbols of it? Not to mention what Union civilians during the War of Southern Independence, on the orders of Lincoln.

If we are using slavery and brutality as the standard for removing a flag, then the US flag must be removed as well. Also all references to George Washington, Ulysses Grant, Thomas Jefferson and other slave owners must be removed as well.

A proud Southerner and descendant of a Confederate Soldier,

Russ [REDACTED]

Because activists were immediately calling for the removal of the Confederate Flag, using yet another opportunity to sanitize history, I wish you would have not mentioned an option to remove the flag shooter make his mark by being the impetus for the removal of the flag? I wouldn't want the shoot credit for anything.

As you so straight forwardly said the Confederate Flag was a South Carolina issue and South Carolina make that decision. Whatever South Carolina decides, I welcome. I just don't want the shooter to have apparent influence in this decision.

Lastly, America has made missteps along her growth road. We made adjustments and corrections along the way.

The Founders even started corrections of slavery in the Constitution. We still have things to do. Do we sanitizing our history help? Our children and grandchildren need to know all of our history; the good and the ugly. How else can they learn from the innovations as well as the mistakes. And somewhere along the way we must apologize and forgive and move forward. Blacks as well as whites and reds and browns have an obligation here.

Not even lowering the Confederate flag when the US and State flag were lowered in memory of the victims says to me that those promoting the use of the Confederate flag lack common decency and compassion. It is a statement of continued belief in slavery, racism and the belief that the "South will never surrender." Supporters say it is a part of their history. Yes, a history in which the flag was intended to represent the continuation of slavery. My thanks for your courage and insight into why the flag is now divisive and how we can help the healing of the community.

Governor Haley, most of the time I agree with your decisions, but I cannot agree with you on the C flag issue. I feel that if you are going to trump the heritage of many of the people of South Carolina, you have to trump the heritage of all of the people of South Carolina. Slaves were brought to this country in the 1500's, so it is likely that many of those who fought for this country owned slaves. Are you going to remove the United States flag? Since your family is not from this area the flag only means hate for the ones whose family is from here it means something different. Many of the people who fought in the south did not own slaves, but their homes were still invaded. Would you not have defended your home if they chose to use the Confederate flag as a sign of hatred. I do not see it as that. Leave the flag on the map as a historical part of this state.

It is owned by the people of SC and you are SUPPOSED to represent the people, not dictate. Blaming a flag for violence is as lame as Hillary Clinton's Youtube video for Benghazi. Put it to a vote for the people and stop trying to be a dictator like Obama and raised in New Jersey and now live in SC and I have NO ISSUE w/ the Confederate Flag. The flag was NOT fought only because of race/slavery. To label the flag as hate is ludicrous. Yes it SHOULD be government property for that flag is part of SC government history. Shame on you for caving into the demands of groups of some of the biggest racists out there. You will never get my vote again.

The Honorable Gov. Haley

When you were first elected Governor you told the NAACP the flag is where they agreed and that staying. Now you want it removed, surely some sicko with a picture of the Confederate Battle flag suddenly make it evil and racist. The flag is in memory of the tens of thousands Southern soldiers battle. It was never flown on a slave ship or flown on a slave plantation. In fact slavery wasn't an issue Lincoln needed to rally the Northern soldiers.

The war started because the South was sending cotton to Europe rather than New England cotton and only freed Southern slaves, not northern slaves.

Now the blacks want to remove all Confederate war memorials from every where. This will not help relations. The only logical reason you caved is the blacks threaten to turn Charleston into a killing in the church was evil and senseless, but no more evil than the killing of a mother of 3, the 1 month old in his crib, the recent killing of a father and his son on the way home from a birthday party by blacks and swept under the rug by mainstream media.

This is just a few of the atrocities on whites done by blacks. WHITE LIVES MATTER TOO!!! Removing the Flag will pull the plug on a dam that will drown us all.

Respectfully

Thank you for supporting the removal of the Confederate Battle Flag being removed from the state grounds. I understand that to many, this flag represents a proud heritage, and I don't dismiss their fears over censorship and repression.

But understand that to too many others, this flag has become a symbol of hatred and division, especially rose to prominence as a symbol of resistance to desegregation in the 1950's and 1960's.

Everyone should be able to enjoy freedom of speech and display whatever they want to as Americans. No child, or indeed anyone else should be subjected to a flag whose meaning has been twisted, and open hate and racism when visiting their state's capital. Every American should be free to experience and open government, inclusive of all people, without being made to feel as though they are still second class citizens. Which is what this flag truly represents.

<MSG>

Governor, what values do you possess? Pro-life, endorsed by Sarah Palin, you are signaling a greater placed upon restricting abortion than respecting adult lives. A racist murderer forces you to public policy of not displaying the Confederate flag and yet you openly disrespect the dead by failing to r flag in your State Capitol.

Today, a real leadership moment was missed in South Carolina. It can never be regained and will f infamy.

Shot and killed by a racist, Confederate flag-loving terrorist, state senator and pastor of Emanuel A Church, Reverend Clementa Pinckney and his family were denied a moment of dignity. As a horse carriage with his casket aboard passed through the South Carolina capitol in Columbia, the Confed flag still waved overhead.

In spite of all of the lip service from you, Governor, about removing it, and in spite of it being abu that you could remove it temporarily for maintenance, you and the government of South Carolina r so.

It's more than simply a moment missed but is truly an act of utter defiance.

Rep. James Clyburn, the elder statesman of South Carolina politics, requested that you take it down this happened, but you refused.

We will never get that moment, that opportunity, back.

Wal-Mart, eBay, Amazon, Sears, and even the State of Alabama all moved to remove their Confederate battle flag, but that banner still flies in South Carolina.

This is despicable. Are you so indebted to your backers, to the Southern tradition of exclusion and directed to blacks, that you are not sensitive enough to effect progress in race relations--that mass murder, in essence, a hate crime. And that raises the major issue of "how did that hateful imbecile obtain a weapon? do you oppose background checks? Why does South Carolina permit widespread gun ownership? much, much more.

One ignorant, hate filled kid with a drug problem is creating all this fuss over a flag and gun rights in conspiracy theories, I would say this is all pre-planned to incite this kind of reaction and that it's perfectly.

It is necessary to disclaim any connection of these flags to neo-nazis, red-necks, skin-heads and the groups have usurped this flag and desecrated it by their acts. They have no moral right to use this flag of honor, designed by the confederacy to distinguish itself from the Union .

In fact, under attack, it still flies over the South Carolina capitol building. The South denies any hate groups and denies them the right to use the flags of the confederacy for any purpose. The crimes by these groups under the stolen banner of the confederacy only exacerbate the lies which link the slavery interests when, from a Southerner's view, the cause was to distinguish itself from the Union.

Well, you have just put a big bulls eye on every one who lives in SC who wants to preserve our heritage. If I fly the flag, I will be open to vandalism and maybe worse and I will have no defense because I'm a racist. I see people have already vandalized state statues honoring our past history. Because of the NAACP, you have given them a license to destroy confederate statues, memorials, gravestones giving in, you have destroyed the heritage of all South Carolinians because it is racist and must be removed. You have failed us Nikki Haley and our roots have been severed, always to be labeled as RACIST

Dear Nikki,

I respectfully disagree with the removal of the Confederate flag from the Statehouse grounds and I your campaign bumper sticker from my car. The Confederate flag is a historic symbol that should r the "sin" of slavery and a nation divided. Dylann Roof has severe mental disorders caused by his la Christian home and by the people he was around growing up. Just like Patrick Burris who came thr in 2009 as a serial killer and killed Kline Cash, Hazel Linder, Gena Parker, Stephen Tyler, and his c Abby Tyler, it is no different. People die at the hands of other people for a reason. We must come t that or many more will die. A flag is a piece of cloth that represents a nation of people and their wa good or bad. Just like the GLBT gay pride flag is offensive to me. But I'm not asking that it be remo reminder to me of those who have severe mental disorders and their way of life. Our state needs to conservative Christian values if we are to continue as a unified State and Nation. I hope you take th consideration.

Sincerely,

Desmond

Dear Governor Haley:

I applaud your stand on the Confederate Battle Flag issue, but as an amateur historian with a great period during the Civil War, I am also cognizant of the weight of history and its meaning to many constituents. I would propose that you replace the current Battle Flag with the "Stars and Bars" the Confederate flag that flew over the Confederate White House in 1861 and one that has no racist cc fact, it was latter supplanted by what many call "The Stainless Banner" because it looked too much American flag. I think doing this would satisfy both sides of the debate. I look forward to hearing on this.

Thank you Governor for taking a stand on the removal of the Confederate Flag from state property so much more than just a historical symbol. For many the flag is a strong symbol of hatred. In my flag has long been a symbol painted on a barn near Cincinnati at the local KKK chapter. To say it symbol is a complete and outright lie. I am so convinced of this morally and ethically that I will re Myrtle Beach, Charleston, or any other beautiful places in your state until it's removal. Sometimes to take a stand for what is right. Thank you for doing this. I only pray that other leaders in your state the fortitude to make this God-honoring decision. Until they do, we won't be around to your state (Alabama or any other state that promotes hate.

I am a Wisconsin resident, but have been following the events in South Carolina. A possible solution to the crisis, is to redefine the flag for display to be the battle flag without the stars.

This still captures the history and values of South Carolina, but removes some of the negative imagery conveyed by flag users.

<MSG>

Dear Governor Haley,

I would like to express my profound disappointment that the Confederate flag issue, which was supposedly settled 15 years ago, is now being revisited by the South Carolina General Assembly. After much reasonable compromise was reached in 2000. I said then, and will repeat it now, that the people who wanted the Confederate flag removed weren't interested in compromise. Now they are seeking to take advantage of the issue in order to advance a political agenda.

I am appalled that so many supposedly conservative legislators and unfortunately, you, whom up to now I have had much respect for, are cowering in the face of vocal groups who really care nothing about the people of Charleston, but are seeking an issue they can gain mileage from. Since there haven't been any riots in Charleston, they have latched on to another issue that they feel can be used to divide people. And make no mistake, the divisive ones here. The people in Charleston were not killed because the Confederate flag flies at the top of the Confederate monument, and if it had not been there there is no reason to believe these murders would have occurred. And if they get what they want now, they will come back for more. What's next, the Confederate monument itself, as well as monuments to South Carolinians all over the State? Will we rename Clemson? Will we remove Strom Thurmond's statue from the Statehouse grounds as well? Winston Churchill once defined appeasement as feeding everyone else to the lion in the hope that he will eat you last. The Confederate flag, I suppose, is a handy bone to throw to this bunch. Trust me, they do not have the best interests of South Carolina at heart, and no matter what you do, they will think no more of you in the end than they do now. You are fooling yourself if you think your position on this will gain you any good will from them.

no real urgency, as the matter was supposedly settled 15 years ago. I urge you not to bow to the charge of race baiters among us who seek to ride the horrible event to a political victory.

Yours truly,

David M. [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

I am very disappointed in you for your decision to remove the Confederate Flag.

You, like so many other politicians and other entities, quickly caved to left-wing special interests. By doing so, you disenfranchise millions of other Americans.

The very people who are accusing the rest of us of being racist and intolerant, are really the ones who are racist and intolerant. By removing the Confederate Flag you are supporting their intolerance to Americans like me.

The Confederate Flag is part of our history, and for many folks, it's a source of pride that has nothing to do with slavery.

By supporting the removal of that flag you are taking part in rewriting American history and empowering a group of people whose misguided agenda is fueled by irrational hate towards African Americans.

Please reconsider what you are doing.

Sincerely, _____

I was both surprised and saddened to hear that you have called for our Southern Flag to be removed from the state office building. I really thought that we had a stronger leader and that you wouldn't have a knee-jerk reaction to an admittedly tragic event in the murdering of the 9 Christian citizens of Charleston. However, it was, however sad, and while we cannot even conceive the sick mindset of Mr. Roof, the two issues are connected. Why do you attack the symbol, of which, over 18,000 South Carolina soldiers died, during the Civil War? Some see the flag as a symbol of hate but most see it as a symbol of pride and freedom by which we attempted to rid ourselves of the overbearing control of the federal government.....exactly as we did. I don't have all of the answers but your actions will surely have more South Carolinians upset than if you feel it necessary to make a political statement, fine, but why not let the voters of South Carolina decide the fate of our Flag? The Flag will NOT go away....it is more likely that it will grow in popularity as they try to erase our proud heritage.

Please don't take down the flag. Freedom isn't just for liberals. The Confederate flag was a war flag of South Carolina if you think about it. The people trying to take it down are attempting to destroy let them. Letting them means they are stronger than you and the people who do care. I know you h strong to be a governor so please don't.

I beg you to remove the Confederate flag before the funeral of Rev. Pinckney. I implore you, out o remove the Confederate flag before President Obama gives his eulogy. It is appalling that these bla be subjected to this! Whatever those may claim about "heritage", the Confederate flag is a blatant s & discrimination. If you must "save face", just use the "removed because it was damaged" exc it down today! Never fly this again! Do not wave this atrocity in front of all those who will gather funerals. That is sick, cruel, shameful & evil.

Thank you.

I realize SC has had an unspeakable tragedy, but I want to urge you to avoid knee-jerk reactions to calling for removal of the Confederate flag. The flag is part of our history, which Obama and other remove and change (you can't change history). There are now people wanting to remove the Jefferson from Washington D.C. because Jefferson owned slaves. I don't agree with slavery and things that happened in the past, but they did happen and can not be erased. There were many good people who fought for freedom and believed in the Civil War. So many died and they should not be forgotten.

What is to stop people from demanding that the American flag be removed because it offends some people?

Please stop and consider what may come from quick decisions. Our representatives in the U.S. government stopped listening to the people. They give in to everything that Obama wants. The governors must stand for what is right. Our Constitution is being disregarded by those who swore to uphold it.

Unfortunately, there are crazy people in this world but most are not. Don't let the liberals continue to destroy the values of America.

Sincerely,

Paula [REDACTED]

<SUBJECT>CONFEDERATE FLAG</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Is the Confederate Battle Flag Racist?

The word "CONFEDERACY" or "CONFEDERATION" is defined as a group of people or entities formed an ALLIANCE, COMPACT, CONTRACT, which is essentially an AGREEMENT to abide by the terms and conditions thereof.

After winning their freedom from Great Britain, the 13 former British colonies became independent states. Each had their own laws and moral standards of behavior. Some allowed slavery, some did not. They decided to form a CONFEDERATION that became known as the "UNION," but, they DID NOT have the prior status as "INDEPENDENT, SOVEREIGN, NATION-STATES. They had ZERO interest in joining another totalitarian central government like the one they had just defeated in battle. The former colonies had functioned as self-governing, sovereign entities for 180 years prior to joining the UNION. They now refer to as the "United States." They didn't try to impose moral or ethical standards on each other; they certainly did not intend to sign onto a constitution that would allow other states or a central government to impose its will on them later!

The colonial delegates to the Constitutional Convention at Philadelphia in 1787 drafted a new CONFEDERATION that is also called the U.S. CONSTITUTION. The language of that document required both the SLAVE states and the FREE states to be equal members of the UNION. Slavery was a constitutionally protected institution. The CONSTITUTION did not allow the slave states to impose slavery on the free states, nor did it allow the Free states to invade the South or in any way impose its will on the slave states.

Bottom line, Lincoln violated the U. S. Constitution. He BREACHED the COMPACT, the CONTI AGREEMENT. He had no constitutional authority to persecute or invade the South. Ft. Sumter wa that Lincoln himself later admitted was used to justify his false claim that the Southern states were "rebellion." Furthermore, SLAVERY was supported by Lincoln and many Northerners, who still p themselves, or at least did not think of the blacks as equals. In his Inaugural address and later wher office, Lincoln endorsed the CORWIN AMENDMENT, which would have made the federal gover protection of slavery explicit and permanent. After the CONFEDERATE STATES OF AMERICA he told President Jefferson Davis, "Keep your slaves, but come back into the Union."

SLAVERY was NOT the cause of the War of Northern Aggression against the South. Liberals, and Democrats have lied about it so long that the public is suffering from a case of maximum IGNOR/ only thing that Lincoln did was to convert physical slavery into political repression, which continu He inflicted a mortal wound to the Constitution, and placed the Executive branch in charge of the I and Judicial branches. He became another "King of England" who reduced the states into little dist which he became their RULER. Lincoln was a tyrant who accomplished a "coup" that converted a system of government into a "top-down" dictatorial re-distribution of wealth tyranny. After the Lir Republicans left office, and the KKK-led Democrats took over the Congress, they have taught the government is their god. To this day, the black churches are taught by their own pastors to depend Government instead of God, so they have simply chosen to go to work on Uncle Sam's Plantation. are so brain-washed and unteachable that they can't understand why Dr. Martin Luther King was a and that he KNEW the game that the Democrats were playing on the hearts and minds of his black The CONFEDERATE FLAG has NEVER represented SLAVERY and it should remain in place o Capitol Building! 75% of the South did not own slaves, and were opposed the practice. The South Civil War needs to be re-visited by every American because it would reveal the tragic truth about l desperately we need to reverse the damage done by Lincoln's coup. It will reveal the truth about w nation America was prior to the Civil War, and why it is no more. We are losing our freedoms, an understanding the principles of Jeffersonian Federalism, that the CONFEDERATE flag represents road back to recovery. Get the falsehood out of your mind that it has anything to do with slavery, l never has.

You are clearly not from an old SC family. Because some idiot committed an act of murder, a person right mind you join in with the PC media to blame the southern people for this horrible act of mad nothing to do with the confederates or the battle flag. I had many relatives some were killed who fought for the southern cause. They did not fight for slavery but to expel the invading union forces from their home. South Carolina did not secede from the union until Lincoln started a war with the south and called for other states to invade South Carolina and the others, North Carolina would not EVER invade as it joined the war a new nation. YOUR WELCOME SOUTH CAROLINA. No southerner would die for the slave system they fought for their homes and way of life and to repel the ruthless northern invaders. Lincoln asked for the slaves to be freed Lincoln offered to permit slavery in the south if the south would stay in the union. Freeing slaves did not become the goal of the war until the second year when Lincoln used high moral ground and kept England out of the war. Now because of PC we can't even place a flag. Confederate memorials is this freedom? Think about this the slave trade was carried out by the Yankee shippers, George Washington owned over a hundred slaves Jefferson owned slaves and had a child. Washington was a racist so let us remove his name from history with the confederate flag. You should educate yourself and not rely on Yankee propaganda. The shooting in Charleston was all in shock but it was not the confederates who did it it was a crazy kid out of his mind. Learn South Carolina and its history not just the Yankee propaganda.

GOV. HALEY...

Greetings!

I just wanted to say that it is VERY unfortunate that you chose to acquiesce to political pressure and by removing the Confederate Flag from the SC State House. I do understand and appreciate WHY you remove the Flag. HOWEVER, we are now seeing how Leftists in our government and our culture use the wake of your decision to help restrict - even further - our precious freedom of FREE SPEECH.

YOUR HONOR, what we TRULY NEED in EVERY form of government today (in our blessed country) are politicians who ARE NOT reactionary and impulsive in their executive decisions and policy making because of any ideology or philosophy you are wishing to publicly perpetuate; this is why I personify a PROBLEM with your intentions...I trust them. IT IS THE IDEOLOGY OF THE LEFT THAT IS THE GROWING, NATIONAL AFFECT THAT YOUR DECISION HAS IGNITED! IT IS THAT YOU DO NOT TRUST! They wish to change the very history and fabric of our GREAT NATION...That is EXACTLY why you who have been blessed and appointed by God to lead us MUST THINK BEFORE YOU MAKE DECISIONS LIKE THIS!

I truly have faith in you, Gov. Haley. PLEASE MAKE A SPEECH BEFORE THE PRESS EXPLAINS TO YOU YOU MADE THE DECISION TO REMOVE THE CONFEDERATE FLAG; and, DELINEATE THE REASONS WHY.

how and why the Left is using this issue to tear away at our freedoms...PLEASE DO THIS, YOUR

Governor Haley,

I along with millions of others have watched the tragic story of the Charleston shootings and the media and input from everyone who does not work, live or pay taxes in South Carolina telling us what to do. Our idiot in office Obama.

Evidently taking down the Confederate Flag will solve all of our problems, it will create a racial hatred and untold proportions and there will be no more shootings anywhere in the USA.

If you politicians fold under pressure from outside influences you are all traitors to those who voted for you in office. We did not vote for you to curry the favor of people from other states nor even the omnipotent himself. We voted for you to represent us, the citizens of SC.

The Confederate Flag did not shoot those people, nor did it make that nut case do anything. He was a criminal and should be tried, convicted and executed because he committed the crime. Not society, not those who own the weapons, not those who do value their heritage in an honorable way.

If want to be "fair about the Confederate Flag" then let the voters of this State make the decision on the election in November 2016. Let South Carolinian voters decide, not politicians or libatard media.

William D & Tammy B [REDACTED]

Prosperity, SC 29127

PS: We voted for you twice.

<MSG>

It is my understanding that the Governor could bring that flag down immediately, as Alabama has nothing else, bring it down while Senator Clementa Pinckney's body lies in state. It upsets me terribly that hate that included the idolizing of that flag is what led to his death and the death of those 8 other people. I watched the procession and it made me ill that at the end of that street that flag was a ta reminder of hate and death in our community. Please, please have the respect to take it down now.

Sincerely, Pat [REDACTED]

I am urging you to please reconsider removing the Confederate Flag from the state house grounds. not just to conserve the southern heritage in South Carolina. but across the United States. I don't bc and I would hope that the governor wouldn't bow to bullying. Just since you announced the removal of the Confederate Flag many others are removing it. You promised that the removal wouldn't affect our citizens to fly the flag. but everyone is removing it. If you are truly a minority you'd understand the. You also said you wouldn't remove it at your re-election. now you've went back on your word.

I have always been an advocate and supporter of Nikki Haley, even when it was not popular. Becau started this witchhunt which will lead to the abolition of my heritage, I hereby pledge to do everyth power to see that she is out of office, any office, at the next opportunity. The fine people at the chu Charleston were killed by a lunatic, not a Confederate soldier, and the Confederate flag had absolut do with his actions. The governor should be ashamed when she sees the silliness she has created by things regarding our heritage the scapegoat for this senseless crime. Shame on Nikki Haley and sha who are mindlessly following her lead.

Madam Governor. My name is Mark [REDACTED]. I am a US Navy Veteran and a proud descendant of Confederate Veterans and an avid follower of Southern History and Heritage. I am writing to ask you to remove the Confederate Navy Jack from the Statehouse grounds for the duration of the Senator's funeral. There must be a tear, or maybe the banner is sun faded or soiled to a point that makes it not adequate for display and can cause it to be removed for that short period of time for repair/replacement. Have them do a permanent removal after the funeral, but please remove it during out of respect for those who died that week, and those who died for that flag itself. It does not honor a single veteran from the first shot of the Revolution to the last shots fired today overseas to have it wave in the face of an innocent victim's funeral. I have family that died for that flag...I fought for the US Flag, and I am asking you, begging you...to remove this innocent man's funeral. His family has been through enough, as we say here in the south, let's leave that wound.

Ms. Haley,

I applaud your brave decision to take down the Confederate flag.

I must add that initially I was against it. I had a romantic vision of the flag and the southern tradition. After further investigation I was horrified to learn of it's symbolism and what it represents. It has become a symbol of hate and used for evil purposes. I now think it must be relegated to history.

Your stance is a shining example, I hope others will follow.

Best wishes,

Aurora [REDACTED] (Democrat, NJ)

There is already a monument to honor the dead there, but the flag location is divisive. Tho in my mind that Robert E Lee would be among the first to call for it's removal. i have no relatives, any friends that support it's remaining there. Please take it down, it's the right thing to do.

<SUBJECT>Haley's Faking on the Flag: Dishonoring Pinckney</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Today, a real leadership moment was missed in South Carolina. It can never be regained and will f infamy.

Shot and killed by a racist, Confederate flag-loving terrorist, state senator and pastor of Emanuel A Church, Reverend Clementa Pinckney and his family were denied a moment of dignity. As a horse carriage with his casket aboard passed through the South Carolina capitol in Columbia, the Confed flag still waved overhead.

In spite of all of the lip service from Gov. Nikki Haley about removing it, and in spite of it being al clear that she could remove it temporarily for maintenance, she and the government of South Carol do so.

It's more than simply a moment missed but is truly an act of utter defiance.

Rep. James Clyburn, the elder statesman of South Carolina politics, requested that they take it dow before this happened, but they refused.

We will never get that moment, that opportunity, back.

<SUBJECT>Flag Decision </SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Gov. Haley,

I appreciate your intentions in the removal of the confederate flag from South Carolina state grounds. I feel you were a bit misguided in doing so. There has been so much of this "knee jerk" reaction to the press's attempts to turn this horrific terrorist action into a societal race issue. By pandering to these I am afraid you may have created additional tension. Many southerners who have very little or no regard for the flag have been castigated. A flag that was used many years ago to represent states that felt the federal government overreaching has come to indict millions of innocent white (and black) citizens who are proud of the southern independence.

As we can see from current events, this has now started an avalanche of politically correct actions that do nothing but create additional tension and resentment in a society that is already at a breaking point.

I am very, very concerned for our country, and giving in to a segment of the country who would like more than to isolate the South and southern values, and to create an infinitely more powerful federal government who can dictate every action of its citizens' lives, can only further their cause. Their cause is one of freedom and the stand should be one of individual rights, not one of racial politics that further divide.

Sincerely,

Concord, North Carolina

Hi,

Sorry you chose to remove the flag, another step for the WhiteHouse and more damage to the white you and example. We moved from Detroit to a small City Farmington in 1937. Have lived there have went to my grade school and high School worked the farms and NEVER LOCKED OUR HOMES TRACTORS and TRUCKS. Never a call to the POLICE for 70 some years. Now DETROIT with 1 has a problem. 500 thousand move out to the suburbs, our town gets a few thousand and the surround few also. NOW do you know what we have??? after 23 years our Chief of Police retires and tells me have a problem. you know what it is ?? Rape, car jacking, home invasion, armed robbery. Guess what EVERYTHING YOU OWN, get a CCW and watch where you eat now as the BLACKS have taken banks, all fast food places, real estate, donut shops, thanks Mr. President, thanks the Justice Dept. Sharpton, Jackson, NAACP, now you. A FLAG that represents HISTORY now you're given in, you need the votes ?? What a SHA has given in, we the WHITES are in real trouble, we are going DOWN HILL faster than I could imagine looking into CANADA thank you.

A reasonable compromise with the flag would be to take it off the grounds of all state institutions. I flown with protection in CSA cemeteries--as that is the flag those people endorsed and died under. for your time.

I just wanted you to know that I appreciate Governor Haley's statement that she is in favor of removing the Confederate flag from the statehouse. As a New Yorker, I realize that my opinion doesn't really carry weight in South Carolina because I can't vote. Yet, for what it's worth, I appreciate the gesture. I hope Gov. Haley is able to make the removal of the Confederate flag a reality. It's long overdue.

<SUBJECT>Flying the Confederate flag this afternoon.</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

There is no difference between the swastika and the Confederate flag. They both stand for genocide. Millions of Africans died during the middle passage alone. That is genocide. It is illegal to fly the swastika in Germany, you will be arrested. The fact that you have chosen to fly that abhorrent rag this afternoon is a despicable and the gravest insult to the memory of the Senator. The Civil War was fought to end slavery. "Southern heritage" only stands for the defense of slavery, for the right to brutalize your fellow Americans. Your decision to fly that flag this afternoon means you are either a vicious racist who supports the actions of Mr. Roof or a clueless bimbo with no knowledge of basic American history.

This is what I put on my Facebook page this morning . I know I'm about to get a lot of crap for wh say.But first of all I do have a lot of Black Friends and Hispanic,Asian,American Indian,and a friends, different nationality and I'm not forgetting my Gay friends either.But you let a few people take a item and make it out to mean Hatred are Racism.And your all ready to condemn it.And I wa
Black people that were Slaves back in the 1700 & 1800 to raise there hand.Well my point is no were around and I am sorry if any of your Great,Great Great relatives were.I know that Slavery wa and it should have never happen but it did and you can blame the British and other European coun brought slaves here.So if you want to get pissed off at someone do it to them.And this is the Doubl Sword.And where would the bulk of the Black Americans be if there had not been Slavery. So I gu trying to say is I have worked in the Hood on and off for over 25 years.And I have never once had person say to me that they want to see the Flag gone.My point being your letting a few people that this symbol for Hatred. I myself if I lived in the Columbia area I would be that one person with a s LEAVE IT UP & ALONE !!!So to me your being narrow minded.And if they do take down th they should Demolish ALL and any type of Civil War Memorials and Monuments because if they the bud now someone will start pissing and moaning about them too. I could go on & on about said what I think I need to say at this moment.And I am glad I do live in a Country that I do have F
SPEECH.And finally I want you to know my Heart goes out to the 9 families in Charleston and als
Black American family that has been touch with any type of Hatred & Racism.And no I'm not American Indian either.So what ever crap you want to throw back at me I'm here.Thank you for yc

Dear Gov. Haley:

I appreciate your response to the shootings in Charleston and your address to the citizens of SC and thank you for calling for the removal of the Confederate Flag from the State House grounds and realize it is a very divisive symbol and especially hurtful to SC's black population.

I am a born southerner and appreciate the service of those who fought in the civil war, including my great-grandfather; however, it is time to forget those divisions and move to the future.

Thanks again for your actions and I hope you follow through with your legislature to remove the flag.

My great-grandfather served as a courier in the cavalry of General Thomas "Stonewall" Jackson. In the army whose battle flag now flies at the South Carolina Statehouse. I suspect that both General and the deeply religious General Jackson would be deeply ashamed to see their flag flying at full n body of a South Carolina State Senator who was murdered in the name of that same flag. But I sus General Nathan Bedford Forest, along with apparently many South Carolinians, would be proud.

So, you took action to abandon the flag from the state's capital. What's next or you refuse to state it that the next removal will be the national landmarks. You politicians are all the same, you all have no logic put look for votes. You and leader speaker of the house and the head of the senate are bringing the downfall of this country. I urge your support to keep my heritage alive. I am proud of my Southern heritage which dates back to the American Revolutionary War. My great grandfather, his older brother, and two brothers-in-law enlisted in the CSA as young men. He was the only one of the 4 to survive the war. He was wounded, captured, and held in a POW prison. The flag is a symbol of those who did what they thought was right. Please do the same.

Dear Gov. Haley: I wrote to you yesterday and how things have ignited in less than 24 hours. Due to the puzzling attempt to blame the Confederate flag for the recent vicious murders of 9 innocent churchgoers, progressives have followed your lead w/ gusto, i.e. Warner Brothers removing any trace of the flag from the Lee; military installations considering renaming posts such as Ft. Lee, Ft. Beauregard, Ft. Bragg, Ft. Hood; Sears, Wal-Mart, Amazon removing anything depicting the flag, Mitch McConnell considering the removal of a statue of Jefferson Davis; Gov. McAuliffe moving to cancel production of the state Sons of the Confederate States license plate... You, Gov., are a disgrace to the South and those of us with a Confederate heritage. Your actions discredit, besmirch and erase it should ensure your loss in the next election by the electorate you represent, most of whom are Southerners with a Confederate heritage.

Governor,

I implore you to take measures today, 6/24/15, to remove the Confederate Flag from the grounds of the building. It is shameful that it is flying in the face of all the citizens of the United States on the day of Pinckney's viewing.

Thank you

How shameful it was to see the carriage carrying the late Senator Pinckney, a man of concern and being pulled alongside the pole holding the confederate flag, a symbol of hatred and racism. Out o should have been taken down (at least for the day).

I am sure Dylann Roof would laugh his head off if he learned about this. Does he get TV in his pri Please pass this message to Governor Haley. Also. please add more items to your "drop-down" list into nothing on it!

I bet your getting swamped with emails about the flag, both pro and con. Sorry, but here is another Consider this. Is the Swastika symbol a bad thing? You'd think so, right? And it is if you believe it represents that one thing. To a Buddhist, it is a symbol of good fortune, prosperity, abundance and Good thing I am not a practicing Buddhist with that on the side of my house....Id be shot, or worse of being insensitive to the feelings of others. In ancient Greece, it was a symbol linking heaven and ironic, and unfortunate, that a symbol of life and eternity that was considered sacred for thousands (12,000 actually) has become a symbol of hatred. You see where I am going with this, right?

As an alternative, and to be politically correct and less potentially offensive, would one of the original confederate (non-battle) flags be a viable option?

I am not a S.C. resident, but a significant part of my southern ancestry was from Charleston, SC around the 1700s.

Thank you for reading.

The governor issues a new release saying that she has no authority to remove the confederate flag the more than feet from the body of the slain state senator.

Has anyone looked at whether she has the authority to grant a state of emergency § 166A-19.20. G or legislative declaration of state of emergency. I is definitely a stretch, but I think it's possible to s experience of other states (don't need to mention them) in situations involving race have caused se problems.

there's in attempting to be pro-active, declare a state of emergency for five days, take the flag dow state of emergency end and the flag returned to its placed pursuant to the legislation.

I know, it's "off the wall", but sometimes those are the best solutions in extreme s\circum\stances

Governor,

Your career is over. I thought you were a good up and coming Republican, but you have dishonored your ancestors. Your move to be disrespectful has expanded. Now, my governor in Alabama is following your lead. I have emailed him as well. I will make the same promise to you that I made to him. I pledge to donate to whoever your next opponent is, whether it be a primary challenger or even a democrat! You have no respect for the ranks of the history re-writers. I have friends and family in your state- they agree with me- this will be your last term. You may have won approval from the media and national figures, but in the grassroots, you have lost credibility. I am looking forward to election night. Goodbye.

Governor,

I am appalled that you reacted so quickly to the radical agenda of the left. It was a knee jerk reaction time to ponder it I would hope you would have reacted differently. If we allow the media to dictate will be lost. Why not put the flag to a vote to find out what your electorate wants? As a citizenry we are tired of leadership taking away our rights so readily. I don't have any affiliation with the confederacy. I am a staunch advocate of our rights. I am proud to be a South Carolinian and I am normally in support of our policies.

Dear Governor Haley,

I frequently find myself in disagreement with your politics and policies, but I find myself compelled to you in support of your effort to remove the Confederate flag from the grounds of the State House.

I am a proud South Carolinian, but that does not mean I'm proud of everything that has happened in this state. I am disgusted by that recent act of barbarism in Charleston. What better time is there than now to remove a symbol which, to me, represents enslavement of humans and racial segregation?

Please put that flag in the state museum where it belongs, Governor.

Respectfully yours,

Aron M. [REDACTED]

There is no reasonable question but that the State Government of South Carolina owes an apology. Black citizens but also to the 20,000 young men of the State who, at its call, sacrificed their lives in the apology expressly for the conduct of its politicians of the Sixties who high-jacked the symbol c battle flag of the Confederate Army for racist purposes. It is an affront to all concerned that this ha addition to the apology you, as Governor, can order the flag now, to be set at half mast, in recognit distress and the death of innocent citizens at the hands of a maniac.

Governor Haley, please know that I, and many other citizens of the State Of South Carolina are grateful to your efforts to remove the Confederate flag for the State House Grounds. You, being a first generation American have no heritage or ancestors that you can identify with the struggles they endured to form this Nation. Your Culture and heritage is in India, which i'am sure you can relate to the struggles of oppression within your own people, but not within the Southern Culture. As a person of color yourself, I feel that to completely erase the Heritage of Southern Americans into a generic form of existence and to completely destroy any trace of what identifies Southern Culture. All this will be remembered, but not in a good way. A flag is taken down, so must the African-American monument. I feel my culture is under attack, and you don't have a culture and a heritage, just as you do, but mine is here in America, as yours is in India, please stop that.

Dear Governor,

I have noticed it times like these that the obvious solution to some of the problems we face, specific removal of the Confederate Flag from the state capital grounds, can become obscured by politics, even in the case of your desire to have the Confederate Flag removed, their current laws. I propose if you legally have it removed have it covered up.

Respectfully,

Dear Governor Haley.

I have lived in SC for over 20 years. My family came to the USA in the early 20th century from Calabria, Italy. Since I married into a southern family that has lived in the state since we were British, I have arguments regarding heritage. There is a lot to be proud of in our state's history but I don't think the precedence over the history of terror that heritage represents to many of our fellow citizens. It is time for the Confederate battle flag to find a home in a museum.

Thank you for the efforts you are making to remove the flag but it is not enough. It is time for the State of South Carolina to apologize for the sins of the past, slavery, segregation and terror. We should also publicly acknowledge the strength, patience and understanding of this noble race of people who have endured this State for the world to hear that these things WILL NEVER be tolerated again.

I hope you will consider this. An apology would truly start the healing process for us all. Remember the response to Pope John Paul II's apology to the Jews. You can do that for South Carolina.

Thank You.

I happened to be home on Monday when you gave your speech regarding the removal of the Confederate battle flag from the SC Capitol. Thank you, thank you, thank you! I wasn't sure what to expect, but your speech was beautifully written and expertly executed. It hit all the marks perfectly and everyone who actually listened to what you said should stop and take notice. I, like many, have become very frustrated with the 24/7 news cycle trying to pit sides against each other. I'm so thankful that I saw it live and can speak to what was true. Good luck with your battle. I hope it is an easy one, but I suspect it will be challenging. I am holding you in my thought and prayers. Thank you again and God Bless!

Now that you have begun the process of removing the confederate flag, please do not stop there. I know that your compassion will end with this issue. There is so much more that we as a country need to do with voting rights for all. I know you love your state and country, please show it by allowing all citizens to vote.

Dear Governor Haley,

I just want to thank you for your position on taking down the Confederate flag from the Statehouse think its removal will be a tribute to the Charleston victims. will help our citizens heal and come to will make South Carolina look non racist in the eyes of the country. This really makes me proud of I hope the legislature makes it happen.

Sincerely

<SUBJECT>Anecdote related to Race Relations</SUBJECT>
<MSG>

Hello: I'm writing to share an experience while I was traveling through South Carolina. A young man in the Raleigh NC area, who I still consider a friend - had me tag along on his way moving down to meet with some friends - to plant a church. My friend's name is Jay [REDACTED] and he spent time living in South Carolina along with his father [REDACTED] and Francis [REDACTED] was, and I believe still is, a pastor of some sort. During candid conversations with Rocky when he let his guard down and apparently felt some of these ideas were not welcome, he revealed that he (and his congregation) do not want or welcome 'black people' to their church. This was somewhat appalling but at the time I felt as though I was on this strange journey to help a friend, and I was a guest in their house - so didn't 'make a scene.' As I think about the recent nation-wide conversation related to Emanuel A.M.E. Church, I felt that perhaps my one data point, and frankly 'real' experience as a 'real' South Carolinian was more telling and sadly representative (having only visited prior on family trips to your beaches) than a one-off backwards town or individual. I am aware that sharing this information, depending on how it's used, could damage [REDACTED] - but it was and is flat wrong to express such views without these ideas should be exposed for what they are. I will be reaching out to local community leaders in the future but would appreciate guidance on how to proceed. I was unsure how to categorize this message under 'Commerce/Economic Development' as this seemed to be the closest.

I am more proud to be an American as I witness progress in civil rights and race relations in the last few years and have been given hope by the response of many politicians and companies to the latest heinous

Governor Hailey:

I just contacted the Leadership of Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church. last week I contacted J. Bourdon, Charleston's Chief Prosecutor along with both Ms. Loretta Lynch, the U.S. Attorney General, Congresswoman Nancy Pelosi, the U.S. House minority leader. I contacted them in reference to the meeting that took place at the Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church. I encourage you to contact both Matthew & the Leadership of Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church, to find out what this is all about. I don't know already. Once you learn, become aware, of the truth, please openly communicate/voice your concerns on a platform that you have.

Thank you Gov. Haley for your leadership and courage concerning the effort for the removal of the flag from the grounds of the Statehouse. You have taken a dark time and event for us in Charleston an opportunity to do something good for the state and the country. You have become an integral part of healing that is the only solution to such a tragedy. This will certainly be a part of your legacy. I thank you for that.

Governor first I would like to say that I am very sorry for what that person (do not remember his name that is the way it should be) in your state or any state for that matter but I would just like to note that has been so white washed that we forget our history. Like the South was the side that fought for freedom black's not the north. The other item that I would like to bring to your attention is does anyone know NAACP stands for? Not sure that I have this right but you can Google it if you like but if my memory it is North America Association of Communist Party? You are much better than I am with polite words shouldn't these items be brought to the table when they (NAACP) is trying to flush our country down the toilet???

AGAIN AS A PERSON WHO LOVES MY COUNTRY AND I DO NOT SEE PEOPLE BY THEIR SKIN BUT BY THEIR DEEDS.
