RE: Commonwealth of Virginia v. Bivia Rebecca Huie AKA Bivia Rebekah Huie
Extradition

Dear Ms. Huie:

Based on the hearing which you attended as well as their review of the paperwork submitted by Virginia, the South Carolina Attorney General's Hearing Officer has recommended that the Governor issue a rendition warrant for your return to the Commonwealth of Virginia. As you are aware, you were given consideration due to your pregnancy. We did not wish to risk any complications which may have arisen from your incarceration in South Carolina awaiting transportation and then continued incarceration in Virginia. Virginia consented to wait until the birth of your child to pursue your return to answer their charges. We agreed that you would stay in touch with this office and advise of any change in your contact information. I have spoken with your former employer and they have advised that you are no longer employed there. I have attempted to contact you by phone at 843-379-3393 and it appears that the phone is not in service.

It is imperative that you contact this office at 803-734-5283 as soon as you receive this letter to discuss these matters.

Sincerely,

Robert E. Merritt
Extradition Coordinator
