Lily,
Enjoyed talking with you the other day. I don't believe I got your email, so here is the follow up to our conversation.

Would very much like Kevin to speak at the dedication to our Veterans Center here in Greenwood. This is I believe the largest veterans center in the state. It is a showplace for all things Veterans and since the Lt Gov office also deals with senior issues I thought he would be most appropriate to speak. It looks like the governor will not be able to make it. On top of that since Kevin is in Anderson district it is close to him. There is going to be a full dedication with a military flyover and much more. Over 2000 people are expected Here is the link that shows the veterans center and of course if you have any other questions don't hesitate to call or email me.

the ceremony will be at 2pm with a meet & greet before for dignitaries at 1 pm. Afterwards there will be a general meet and greet. Our Veterans Center boasts a Hall of Heroes Museum. Our yearly inductees into the Hall of Heroes. All Veterans needs are handled right out of our huge facility which was our Library so this building has been repurposed. Also Lander ROTC program is headquartered in the building.

Certainly hope we can have Lt. Gov Kevin Bryant at the ceremony as a speaker for this momentous occasion on May 19th.

Also certainly am interested in having him on my radio show as well as the gentleman you told me about who is handling the senior affairs.

Look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,
