South Carolina State Parks > Olde English District Tourism Commission, #OEDtravel

at 12:18:05 on 4/12/2021 UTC · 🌐

If you're anything like us, this weather has you itching to get out and explore nature, like serene Lake Juniper at Cheraw State Park in the Olde English District of South Carolina! Discover the lush cypress wetlands by kayak, canoe or the boardwalk trail that borders the lake!
#oedtravel

Katie Nicole Wade, no full hook up, but they have a 9 mile mountain bike trail.

James Miller Nice park!
at 16:26:40 on 4/12/2021 UTC

Kay Tritt Davis Sounds nice. Wish it was closer to Weaverville, NC. But might be a nice stopover to try en route to the beach.
at 16:41:02 on 4/12/2021 UTC

Greg Bailey This is 1 Of 49 state parks in s.c. and they all are great but this is a awesome park,worth the ride from anywhere.

at 20:54:29 on 4/12/2021 UTC

Gayle Throckmorton Hey Alex 😊
at 21:00:55 on 4/12/2021 UTC

Larry Mas Took the Lakes away from us last year because of the few people went play by the rules I buy a season pass every year because I love to kayak and I am partially disabled they even almost double the price for people who are disabled and you want us to continue to enjoy what you have to offer that you barely take care of I will spend less time using your facilities this year that will be for sure and only pay for day use you hurt us will hurt you right back it's a sad day in South Carolina state parks

Mina Harrington Larry Mas The cost for camping has skyrocketed as well. Even tho we senior citizens get a discount, it is getting too expensive to go as much as I would like.

Ethel Waldron Larry Mas do you have a Federal Pass? That will reduce your fees. I got mine so long ago at an old fort i was visiting in Maryland. NY & CT State and Federal parks are free. Golf is 50% off. That was years ago. But the passes are still available from the Federal Gov.

at 1:02:59 on 4/18/2021 UTC

Serita Simpson Beautiful

at 1:09:12 on 4/18/2021 UTC

Glenda Klein Dieterly Michelle Howard yes!

at 1:54:42 on 4/18/2021 UTC

Larry Mas Yes I have a federal park pass but that does not apply in South Carolina for state parks or County parks County parks have their own separate fee I found that out last fall in Pickens County the states have gotten real greedy and they're supposed to be getting Federal help especially state parks by Lake Jocassee owned by Duke Energy nuclear power station and control by Corps of engineering since they obstruct the flow of water and they don't spend a lot of money on these places except for Ranger fees and of course normal other stuff

at 2:12:45 on 4/18/2021 UTC

Larry Mas We all know that DNR gets a good chunk of that money as well anything the government is involved where state taxes go to help fund that bike local residents taxes paid to the county and the state of South Carolina it's a very sad day when they have to keep raising the rates and offer no more to the residence or guess staying at their facilities but you do hey how hospitality Temple more of their corrupt ideas and pet projects

Joey Woodall Larry Mas Mile creek in pickens county on lake keowee is $5 for a day when I can go to south cove in oconee on the same lake for $2 a day. I think pickens county getting ritzy lately.

at 2:25:54 on 4/19/2021 UTC

Stokes Smith Jr. Larry Mas <https://scparkstore.com/pages/frequently-asked-questions>.

Passes are either $75 or $99, depending on the access you want. 100% disabled and residents over 65 get the park passes for half off, per the website.

at 2:46:10 on 4/19/2021 UTC

Larry Mas I did mine paying the $25 a year for my past I've been doing it for several years but when you're on a fixed income that's a lot of money

at 3:19:22 on 4/19/2021 UTC
