Hello 😊 Me and my fiancé are getting married in October of next year and we were interested in the lace house. What are your prices and availability in October specifically the 26th?

Hey Dani, I am so sorry for our delay in responding back to you! Attached are our Rental Rates. Unfortunately, October 26th 2019 is already booked.

However, that Sunday the 27th is available. The price for that day would be $2,200.

Thanks,
Sarah
