Katherine-

Since this appointment is made by the delegation, it looks like the letter just needs to be sent to the Secretary of State.

The Governor's signature is not required for this board appointment. We will be happy to draft a letter if one is required- let me know if you have any information to the contrary.

Thanks,
John

I do not see anything that the Governor office has to do with appointing for the Board of Education.

Thanks Have a Great Weekend.

Tracy- the link below goes to the law that describes appointment authority for the State Board of Education.

It appears to me that the Governor does not need to sign an appointment letter for the attached recommendation from the delegation, but perhaps I am reading this incorrectly. Any thoughts?

Thanks and have a happy weekend.
