Hi Christian,

Sorry for the multiple emails today but I received word from my colleague about the parent I referenced earlier. Her child is currently receiving BabyNet services. She is interested in serving and her information is below:

Christy Sears

Also, in thinking of other possible names from the General Assembly...

Do you think Senator Robert Hayes would be a good voice for the Council?

Many thanks,
Heather

Hi Christian,

Here is the contact information for Katie Wolfe. She is an Assistant Professor of Special Education. Her concentration is early childhood special education and young children with autism.

Also, I reached out to a colleague who may have a parent of a young child with disabilities to recommend. I will share that name with you as soon as I hear back from him.

Thanks,
Heather

Thanks again for passing along your original concerns and for taking the time to talk through these issues. I have staff doing a little additional research on the existing appointments and have already started to reach out to agencies, as well. HHS has already given me a name, for instance.

Also, I run into Joe Waters pretty regularly, so next time I see him, I'll mention this too. Thanks again.

Hi Christian,
I just wanted to thank you for your time today. I hope that I was able to contribute constructive suggestions to move things forward with the SCICC. I know that the Institute for Child Success is interested in BabyNet reform and First Steps reform. They may have something to add to the conversation as well.
Thanks again,
Heather
