Description/Significant Features:

This is a 1-story brick church with an L-shape footprint. A front-gable section facing west toward the road features 3 bays, with a central single door flanked on each side by a small single double-hung window. The central entrance is protected by an open one-bay gabled porch supported by two square wooden columns. A cross gable section extends to the north from the rear of the front gable section, with an open full-width shed roof porch supported by 10 evenly-spaced slender wooden columns. Each of the four southernmost and the northernmost bays contains a single door, the fifth contains a double door, with four square stained glass windows interspersed.
