Ms. Nelle H. Taylor
Chairperson
Commission on Higher Education
Columbia, South Carolina

Dear Ms. Taylor:

During your tenure as Chairperson of the Commission on Higher Education, you have served South Carolina's system of public education honorably and well. Under your leadership and through the diligent efforts of your colleagues, the credibility and visibility of the Commission has been heightened as you worked to implement a number of major new initiatives, including the Cutting Edge. The CHE has been extraordinarily industrious during this two year period and, as a result, South Carolina is on its way to acquiring "world class" universities and colleges.

In recognition of these achievements and on behalf of the people of South Carolina, I am pleased to award you the Order of the Palmetto.

Sincerely,
