South Carolina State Parks

at 13:07:48 on 9/29/2009 UTC

We finished up day one of our Fall Color Tour yesterday at Devils Fork. We took an awesome boat tour of Lake Jocassee thanks to Park Manager Kevin Evans and Asst Manager Jim Stanton. Many folks would argue that this could not be in South Carolina! It is a sight to behold. We will have more pictures and videos from Devils Fork. It is a great place to view fall colors in the Upstate.

Faith Cloud when will the elaves turn in the midlands

South Carolina State Parks Faith--the peak for fall foliage in the midlands is usually around the first week in November. Of course, they will begin to turn before then. It all depends on the weather, as cooler temperatures bring on the leaf color!
