South Carolina State Parks

Have you ever wondered who those folks are that help us in our campgrounds? Many of them are camp hosts! Read more about this very important position in our state parks, and the story of Don & Norma Kennerly: <https://southcarolinaparks.com/messages-from-the-director/our-amazing-campground-hosts>

Hillary Williamson Something my husband and I would like to do when we retire.

Terrey Mike Streath Been there. Tried it for 6 weeks. Hopefully Santee's campground host program got their act together.

Joey Barrett Pretty frustrated with our state parks, specifically Devil's Fork. I was already mad enough about the fact they now charge $8 per person and conveniently they changed the park pass so now you have to buy the $100 one. I usually don't mind paying pro fees and didn't mind buying the $50 pass that included Jocassee. Now it's 100 bucks for the premium pass that lumps our mountain lake in with Myrtle Beach State Park.

Anyways, I call up to Devil's Fork and tell them I'm planning a week long trip to camp somewhere, legal but not in the park (they know about it), and asked about how to handle leaving my truck and trailer there. I am told that I will have to pay park admission for EVERY Day my truck is there!!!! Or I would get a ticket.

That is ridiculous! It's a shame they are allowed a stranglehold over the most beautiful lake in the state.

Anne Darnell Enjoyed hosting for 8 years for the state parks. Loved all the campers and their stories and met some amazing rangers and park managers that kept the parks running smoothly. The best time of my life. Served Edisto, Santee, Barnwell and Aiken.

Page Reid I hosted at a state park a few years ago. The hosts at this park were responsible for cleaning the bath houses everyday. I took a lot of pride in having the cleanest - after all I had to use it too.
