Sir,

Below is the list of Voluntary agencies that are assisting. Having said that, and in order to be as inclusive as we can, we strongly recommend using only the vague topic of SC VOAD. Our collective concern is if we single out or exclude any organization we hurt ourselves in the strategic fight.

If you need more let me know.

Regards,

JR

JR,

How does this look ?

Greetings,

Among the many ways that the voluntary agencies have offered assistance in South Carolina as a result of the devastating flooding, there are many that are supporting the recovery efforts. Through the South Carolina Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster, (SCVOAD) these organizations are planning to assist those who are particularly vulnerable with individual and family disaster recovery planning to address unmet needs. Voluntary organizations will provide the assistance through the approach they call the 4Cs, coordination, collaboration, cooperation and communication. We want to thank those organizations for all of their support.

The following list is 13 faith-based organizations participating in the South Carolina Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster (SCVOAD) Repair-Rebuild-Recovery Task Force:

ORGANIZATION
United Methodist South Carolina Conference
All Hands Volunteers
All Hands Volunteers
Cooperative Baptist Fellowship
SC Baptist Convention - Disaster Relief
SC Baptist Convention - Disaster Relief
Presbyterian Disaster Assistance
Disaster Recovery Support Initiative of the Church of the Brethren, United Church of Christ and Christian Church D
Samaritans Purse
St. Bernard Project
Mennonite Disaster Services
Reach Global Crisis Response
World Renew

The groups listed above are a small representation of the organizations and agencies participating in South Carolina VOAD that are helping in the recovery efforts across South Carolina like Adventist Community Services-Disaster Response, the American Red Cross, The Salvation Army and the United Way Association of South Carolina and many more
