This is a win. We might want to think about announcing this mid/late next week. The embargo lifts on 1/3.

CWRC Partners,

Hope each of you continues to enjoy the holiday season! Just wanted to let you know that South Carolina was 1 of the 5 initial states chosen to participate in the Certified Work Ready Communities Academy. ACT will send formal notification to the states on January 3rd, so it is not for public consumption yet. Our first meeting as a CWRC State Leadership Team will be in Atlanta February 14-16, 2012. More details will certainly follow. I look forward to working with each of you on this important state initiative.
