Quote from Haley press secretary Chaney Adams, "Governor Haley believes the flag should be removed from the Statehouse grounds - she was unequivocal about that Monday. Based on the 2000 law, she does not have the authority to remove the flag herself, today or any day, and rather than violate that law, she will continue to work to change it."

Good morning. Wondering whether Gov. Haley's office has a response to the suggestion today, by state Rep. Rutherford on MSNBC's "Morning Joe," that the governor should use her authority to take the Confederate flag down for "repairs" during the viewing today for Sen. Pinckney.

Does the governor have that authority? And, if so, does she plan to use it today?

Thanks very much.
