INTRODUCING:

Omega Industrial Products is introducing a new, first-of-its-kind pedestrian safety barrier: R•U•F (Roll-Up-Fence) is an innovative solution to protect dangerous worksites and pedestrian traffic zones. This patented product saves time and money for contractors, public works projects, and event coordinators. Anywhere pedestrians need to be directed or segregated from hazardous work zones.

The R•U•F is one of the most effective jobsite and pedestrian safety advancements in recent history. It will create safer and more efficient settings for any application that requires segregating pedestrians from dangerous worksites and conditions.
