Description/Significant Features:

Rectangular plan; side-gabled roof. Full-width, hip-roofed front porch; the porch has been enclosed with a wall on the lower half and screening on the upper half, but the original supports may have been the square posts that are still partially visible. Centered porch door is centered, likely corresponding with a central entry door on the front elevation. Five bays wide; evenly spaced, single-panel, rectangular casement windows on the upper story. Two bays deep, with the same windows evenly spaced on the upper stories of the north and south elevations. Wide eave overhang along the front elevation and deep cornice returns. Upper story and porch structure covered with vinyl siding

Alterations (include date(s), if known):
