As a follow up, I just heard back from Karen Alexander that she and Ms. Lawton connected this morning. Karen walked Ms. Lawton through how the tax rates are calculated and introduced her to a payment plan option. Karen indicated that Ms. Lawton was fine when they finished the conversation.

Please let me know if I can assist with anything else.

Thanks,
Jean Cecil

Lisa,

Thank you for bringing this to my attention -- I have touched base with Anne Wallice on the calls she is getting.

Karen Alexander from our tax department left Ms. Lawton a detailed message with Karen's direct dial phone number on January 6 around 3:30 pm. Karen has not heard back from Ms. Lawton to date, but in light of your follow up email below, Karen is again reaching out to Ms. Lawton this morning.

Please let us know who else on Senate staff is having issues receiving responses. We have not made any changes on this end, but if there are others who are not getting responses quickly enough, I would like to circle back with those individuals personally to learn more about the issues they are having so we can correct them going forward.

Thank you again for bringing this to my attention so we can it resolved for Senator Fair, Anne, Ms. Lawton and all other constituents.

Please let me know if I can assist with anything else.

Thanks,

Jean Cecil

Jean Cecil:

Who dropped the ball on this below? They have been waiting to hear from someone since January 6.....over 3 weeks ago! I'm hearing from other Senate staffers that DEW is being VERY slow on responding back to them with constituent issues. What has changed in DEW policies to make this happen? We have never had these type of complaints before.

Call Senator Fair's Director of Research, Anne Wallace, at 212-6422 TODAY on what progress has been made on their constituent issue below. Senator Fair's office phone is blowing up from this lady because someone at DEW isn't on the ball.
