Rob and Chaney,

On behalf of the Atlantic, I'm writing to invite Governor Haley to be a featured speaker at a lunch forum dedicated to the topic of women & politics at the Republican convention in Cleveland. We're starting the conversation at 12:30 pm on Wednesday July 20th at the Blue Point Grille, 700 W St Clair Ave, Cleveland.

From the vantage point of the Republican Convention, we're going to dive into the why – why aren't more women involved in politics, running for office, or getting involved? And why does having more women in the political process matter?

We are hoping she will be able to join us for a one-on-one keynote conversation drawing on lessons as Governor of South Carolina and as a leading woman in the Republican Party.

Increasing the participation of women in the political process is a non-partisan issue and our event will gather women speakers who have battled for the highest position in the land, those who are just starting out and veterans of political campaigns.

Running Start, She Should Run and All in Together are providing underwriter support for this program.

The program's audience of about 125 people will include convention delegates, members of the media, business leaders, academics, nonprofit groups and state and local administration staffers.

We hope it will work for the Governor to join us at this event, and many thanks for your consideration.

Thank you,
Rob

Importance: High

Dear Governor Haley,

On behalf of the National Foundation for Women Legislators, I would like to cordially invite you to our 2016 Annual Conference in Orlando, Florida from November 16 to November 20, 2016.

The National Foundation for Women Legislators is not only the nation's oldest organization for elected women, but it is also the only organization for elected women on the local, county, and state levels. Since NFWL does not have dues, we consider the over 5,000 elected women in the United States to be our members, and that includes you!

Elected women from across the country will gather in Orlando for NFWL's Annual Conference to identify effective solutions to some of the nation's most pressing issues. Providing a non-partisan environment that encourages dialogue and the sharing of information and experiences, women leaders are able to build coalitions, share the concerns of their constituents, and identify out-of-the-box solutions to the pertinent problems facing their communities today.

Since the Republican Governors Association will be holding meetings in Orlando about the same time, I sincerely hope you will be able to carve some time out of your busy schedule to join us. We would be honored to have you stop by and perhaps make some remarks to the elected women from across the country in attendance. Kathy, Chris and Chuck,

Thanks for the feedback about Doug's participation in the RGA Policy Summit next week in Boston – he has agreed to participate. As far as I know, Governors Scott, Bevin and McCrory are still confirmed to attend the summit and will likely attend the panel. Could you please give your State Presidents a heads up?

A prep session for Doug has been scheduled for Monday, Sept 12 at 8:00 am – if you able to participate in the prep (or your State President would like to), that would be wonderful. If not, please let me know of any context Doug should be aware of.

Here are Doug's panel/event details:

- Republican Governors Association Policy Summit, Fairmont Copley Plaza, Boston
- Panel is Wednesday, Sept 14th at 10:45 – 11:45 am
- Panel topic is "Energy: affordable, reliable, sustainable" and will be focused on the need for a balanced portfolio and the role of renewables
- Other panelists:
  - Tom Kuhn (CEO, EEI)
  - James Dozier (President, Citizens for Responsible Energy)
  - Governor Susana Martinez (Arizona, RGA Chair)
  - Governor Scott Walker (Wisconsin, RGA Vice Chair)
- Governors Scott (FL), Bevin (KY) and McCrory (NC) are confirmed to attend from our regulated states, as well as Governor Haslam from a future regulated state (TN)
- He will join a small group in the RGA box for the Red Sox game the evening before, along with a few other select VIPs/donors

Stan, Lee, Chuck – I'm not aware that your Governors are attending next week, but just FYI.

If you or your State President wish to attend, Duke has a few registrations that you are welcome to.

Should you have questions or wish to discuss, feel free to call or email.

Thanks,

Katherine and Rob,

It was a pleasure meeting you and Governor Haley a few weeks ago. I look forward to seeing you again soon—perhaps at an RGA function or in Columbia for the Georgia-South Carolina game. In the meantime, if I can ever be a resource, please don't hesitate to ask. Enjoy the weekend!
