Now Accepting Applications
for the 2017 STAR Award
Recognizing State Programs That Exemplify Good Governance

Showcase your state government program's success!

The Southern Office of The Council of State Governments (CSG) is now accepting applications for its 2017 State Transformation in Action Recognition (STAR) award for innovative state government programs and services. The deadline for submitting your program for consideration is May 26, 2017.

Apply Now!

The CSG Southern Office recognizes that state employees work hard, not only to provide outstanding services, but also by striving to develop and adapt new and improved programs to make their states a better place to live and work. Such efforts should be recognized, and innovative ideas should be shared among colleagues.

For nearly 40 years, CSG has identified and promoted exceptional

What's Next

Following an initial review process, five finalists will be invited to present their program to the STAR judges panel—comprising state legislators, legislative staff and policy experts—convening on August 1, 2017, at the 71st Annual Meeting of the Southern Legislative Conference in Biloxi, Mississippi. There, two exceptional programs will be selected as models of efficiency and effectiveness in state governments in the Southern region.
