African American Heritage Day
Saturday, February 18th

On February 18th, from 10am to 3PM, The Slave Dwelling Project will present: Inalienable Rights: Living History through the Eyes of the Enslaved. This program brings together interpreters who give life to the stories of enslaved Africans who labored on rice plantations. From craftspeople to storytelling, we would like you to experience this unique event with us.

At 2PM, the gospel choir of the local Howard AME Church will be performing a concert on the park

Time: 10AM to 3PM
Cost: $15/adult, $7.50/children ages 6-15
Lunch available through Howard AME Church
