Steve,
We have a meeting with dhec and the corps on Monday to develop a common understanding on a few issues. I don't anticipate any problems based on the preliminary discussions with both agencies. We'll let you know if any issues develop after the meeting.

Thanks,
Tom

Tom-

What is the current status of your discussions with DHEC staff regarding the special conditions and the mounding issue?

Great News. No appeals filed that Lisa Longshore, Clerk of the DHEC Board, is aware of. Per the procedures, appeals must be directed to her. So it appears we are in the clear on the DHEC permit.

One down; one to go.

A big Thank You to everyone on the Team whose efforts have gotten us to this milestone.

Best Regards,
Tom

As of this date and time, to the best of my knowledge, no requests for review have been filed.

Lisa – I represent South Island Dredging Association (SIDA). I'm copying Tom Hutto on this email – he is the Association's environmental consultant. By our calculations, today would be the last day for a party to request a Final Review Conference of the SIDA critical area and 401 permit that was recently issued. Could you let me and Tom know if something is filed today? I'm in trial in Conway, but I know that Tom would want to let our client know one way or the other. Thanks Lisa!
