Friends,

Thank you for subscribing to my e-newsletter, a great way for me to share updates from Washington and South Carolina. You are free to share this message with friends and family, and all are invited to subscribe here.

Celebrating Our Liberty

Everyone knows the 4th of July for the signing of the Declaration of Independence, but fewer know that it was the Liberty Bell tolled in Philadelphia to summon people to the first public reading of a document that changed history.

The principles that guided our Founding Fathers are still vital to our country today—life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness.

Honoring Vietnam War Era Veterans

America's service men and women paid a heavy price in the Vietnam War, and we can never thank them enough.

I have had the privilege of honoring our WWII and Korean War era veterans for the past two years, and this special ceremony honoring all of those who served during the Vietnam War era.

On Saturday, August 2, 2014 at 10 AM at the First Baptist Church in Columbia, all Vietnam War era veterans invited to come and be recognized, and our doors are open to all who would like to come and thank them for their service. For more information can be found at www.scott.senate.gov/veterans or by calling toll-free (844) 820-0146.

Palmetto Wednesdays

Every Wednesday when the Senate is in session, I invite South Carolinians to come to my office in Washington for some conversations and some southern hospitality. We make plenty of real sweet tea, put out some potato chips that are from South Carolina, and look forward to meeting constituents. Please contact my office at (202) 224-6121 for more information. I know you'll be joining us!

I appreciate hearing your thoughts, ideas, and concerns—please do not hesitate to contact my office. For more information on my work in the Senate, you can follow my blog, Facebook, twitter, Instagram, or Youtube.

Sincerely,

Tim Scott
