<SUBJECT>Church attempted massacre, I've been there </SUBJECT>

<MSG>

I was in Mew Bethel Baptist Church in 1969 in Detroit, MI when what must have been the entire Detroit Police Department appeared to open fire on the occupants of Rev C.L. Franklin's church. They shot 4 innocent people. Fortunately none died. Allegedly some people killed one police officer and paralyzed another on Linwood AV. Yeah ALLEGEDLY because to this day no one has been found guilty of anything. Wanna know why, the police lied. They said the lights were out inside the church and people were shooting at them from the altar. If anyone was shooting at the police from the altar I would be dead and so would the group of 4 other people I was talking to as DRD stormed the church from a door between us and the altar. One guy had a bullet hole in his shoe between his foot and the sole of his shoe. His mom had to put him in a mental hospital. Me, I was just 17, and I grabbed a 3 year old girl and layed on top of her tp protect her. A few days later, the child and I were on Dexter Blvd and she saw a police and started screaming. I told him we had been at NBBC he picked her up , hugged her and drove us home on the back of his motorcycle. I saw intelligent black people who think logically and did their jobs right in regard to this situation. So I'm like Rev C.L. Franklin who was asked if he had it to do over again would he rent the church to those black people. He said yes. If I had things to do over in life, I would not have missed the New Bethel Incident. President Barack Obama had to sever his relationship with Rev Jeremy, I'd suggest you people (not too logical thinking politicians) sever your relationship with your equals not too logical thinging preachers. FYI President Jimmy Carter went to a segregated church. Amy Carter befriended Abby Hoffman a bomber or an undercover cop? No DPD officers lost their job or went to jail. The Japanese received damages for Hiroshima. The blacks got no reparations for slavery, The blacks at New Bethel Baptist Church received no damages for the police opening fire on them. But the white power structure got money to have opportunity to do for blacks what their ancestors had not. Thier ammends to put us in a low income existence out of their way. It is time you people do your job, clean up America and the world of the off the hook majority male dominance where they are failures who attack others instead of making better decisions.  <SUBJECT>Confederate Flag at State House</SUBJECT>

 <MSG>

In recent days, and for many months to come, there has been and will be a new debate involving the Virginia state battle flag of the Confederacy. Most recently the one that is attached to a Confederate Memorial and is protected under law in the capital of South Carolina. I would like to point out what we call the Confederate flag today was not the symbol for all southern states during the Civil War, but has somehow come to represent all of them during that time in our Nation's history. This particular flag was the one most flown on the battlefields in the state of Virginia, which so happens was the state that saw the most battles during the Civil War. This flag has also come to represent Racism, Oppression, Hatred, among other things. The only things this flag could possibly represent and should represent in its truest form is heritage and history.

I know many people will see that one sentence and automatically write off what I am going to say. Those same individuals who do not see this to the end are the ones who are ignorant to history and ignorant to change. These same individuals will be the first ones to cry foul, but always the last to actually do anything about it. If you want change then you must make things change. This statement rings true for any cause, any religious affiliation or lack thereof, any war, any way of life, anything!!! To make things change we must learn from the victories and the mistakes of the past. To do this, we must accept the past, teach it and teach how things can and should be different. Only then can we truly move on knowing that we, as a nation, are not doomed to fail and repeat those very same mistakes.

To start things off in the proper sense I guess, is to tell a brief and very short history. Before the Civil War, many people of the South felt OPRESSED by Northern aggressions. In the easiest way to put it, the North wanted more than the South could produce and it came at a greater cost to the South. For this very reason the South was left to pay a Northern tax without proper representation in Congress. Just like the Colonies felt towards England leading up to the Revolution. Things came to a head when California was introduced into Statehood without the consent and acknowledgement of the laws set forth regarding "free" and slave states. Tensions boiled over until the election of 1860 when Abraham Lincoln was elected president. From then on until the start of the war in SC in 1861. Part of this Northern aggression was the demand for cotton and tobacco products. Without the cotton from the South, Northern textile mills could not function and could not produce money or jobs for the more populated region of our Nation at the time. Many of the congressman from the North were attached to these mills. To keep up with production many plantation owners had slaves. Even then, slaves were not enough to keep up with production demands and this led to the invention of the cotton gin by Eli Whitney. The cost to own and operate the machine was more than owning slaves. A rather unfortunate event, but one that happened anyways. During this time slaves were still owned and used in the North, but given a different name and could be any race of person. These people would still be known as Indentured Servants to this day and is still completely legal.

The South had seen enough of this "aggression" and decided it was time for individual states to have more power governing its people within its borders over a Federal centralized government, better known as, states rights. So, with this in mind, the Southern states started to secede from the Union. Only 11 of the "slave states" would secede from the Union. Many men and women from the South were willing to give up everything they had including their lives. It didn't matter if they were rich or they were poor. What mattered to them was the ability to live a life that they had wanted and had come accustomed to. To many Northerners, past and present, believe that this was all about Slavery. To many it was about Slavery. The rich Southern plantation owners needed the cheap labor to stay rich and to look important. The more slaves you had the wealthier the man. The wealthier the man the more power he had. To many of the poor southern farmers this was about "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

Slaves had been an essential part of the lives for the Nation until the industrial age started. I personally didn't agree with slavery and still don't, but it has been something that is still not lost. So clearly, people of the world have not learned any lessons. Slavery is not here in the US, but in many nations it's still common place. Slavery was not a racist endeavor. Slaves from all periods of time were all different types of races. During the Roman Empire most slaves were in fact white. Those particular people were a different religion or class. If you were poor and had too much debt you could be put into slavery to pay off such debts. Which we all know didn't happen. Once a slave always a slave. Ancient Egypt used the Jewish community as slaves to build the great pyramids. At least that is what we are taught and what the bible tells us. People are still kidnapped and sold into slavery every day and many from right here in the US. It doesn't matter what race you are as long as you can bring in the money.

No one ever mentions it was the northern states merchant ships that brought the south the slaves. No one ever mentions how the north benefited from the slave market. Do we just assume the south was rich enough to do everything on their own with less population and control? No one ever mentions how no slave ship or government office or anything had the rebel flag flying during the time of slavery. No one ever mentions how only about 30% of people feel "offended" by the rebel flag, but now in the midst of tragedy people make it seem so much worse. No one mentions how actual hate groups like the KKK detest people who commit awful hate crimes like the Charleston shootings. No one ever mentions how the flag was traditionally used for the confederacy until the 1940s when it took on new roles. During this time many "patriot" groups used the flag to symbolize their hatred for the federal government and to the black community. It would eventually take a darker turn in the 50s and 60s to be about segregationism. People assume the rebel flag is the official symbol of the KKK and other white supremacy groups and it's not true. Some ignorant people do choose to use it, but that's due to lack of education.

Back to the point of the flag. The Confederate flag is a symbol. A symbol that no one should be paying respects to. This flag is a symbol of a forgotten era and a forgotten time and a forgotten war. This flag should not be treated like the American flag or states flags. As such, this flag should not be flying higher than other official flags. This flag, in my opinion should still fly where it is historically accurate. In this particular case it's on a confederate memorial. These memorials are symbols and reminders of the past. Yes a "failed" rebellion, but a rebellion that made this Nation better. Had it not been for that we may not be any different today. This flag was not about racism as many have turned it into. Just like the swastika was not a racist symbol until the Nazi's used it for their racist reasons. For the religions that still use this symbol, like Hinduism and Buddhism, should we condemn them for being racist? NO! They are respecting their faiths and using the symbols set forth to them in writings and drawings. We should look at the Confederate flag in the same manner. Men and women died trying to protect that flag and for different reasons. Should we automatically assume that anyone with that flag is a racist? NO! Not all people who still fly that flag are racist. They are trying to keep the past alive. Not just for their heritage, but to remember a time of when things weren't so great for our Nation and to teach how things need to be different. Many ignorant individuals still use this flag as a symbol for hate. Something this flag was never about.

I could do a brief history on the flag, but it's easy to Google. There were many different designs of the Confederate flag, but people only seem to care about this ONE! Why not look at the state symbols and flags currently in use today that contain their states version of the rebel flag. Florida has the simplest form of the flag. White background and a red x. Tennessee has the rebel flag in their state symbol, as does Georgia and many others. What is so different about this ONE? Why do we focus on something that has nothing to do with another?

Many people will say "this Bch is clearly racist." Well, guess what? I am not! I am proud of my families past. In a sense, I didn't agree with slavery, but I feel pride in knowing my ancestors were willing to fight to keep their livelihood. They were willing to die for something they felt, in their hearts, was right. There is no shame in that and there never should be. There are people today who give up everything to fight for something they believe in. It doesn't matter if it's right or wrong. At least those people have the balls to stand up and say something and to fight. I wish we, as people, would all be so willing.

Trying to force people into removing the flag and removing memorials to the Civil War is insane to me. Are we going to remove the Lincoln Memorial from Washington D.C.? He was severely racist towards the Native American cultures and people! Are we going to remove Mount Rushmore? After all, it was built by a member of the KKK and has presidents on the memorial that weren't so kind to Native American people. The answer to those is going to be a big, fat NO. Why is it a no? Because they are our presidents and symbols of a "great Nation." We use those memorials to teach our young ones about this nation and why we should all love them. So, why would you not want to teach future generations of Americans and people of the world about how a great Empire once fought itself? Why would you want to say it was all about racism when all it takes is beginner level history to know it was not all about slaves or the oppression forced onto the black community? Why would we not want to tell the full history of what was happening during that time? Not only were we a Nation fighting itself, we were fighting Native people in the west. We, as a nation, wanted more land, more money, more everything and were willing to do anything to get it. Even if that meant fighting each other! Forcing anyone to do something they feel isn't right is wrong. We can use religion as an example. Not all people are religious or of the same religion so why force religion upon them or other religious views upon them. Religious people do not want to hear me saying how I think god is a complete crock of excrement and I don't want to be preached to about god and Jesus and anything to do with religion. I respect peoples choices to be religious or not and to believe in whatever they choose to. So the least anyone can do is respect my choice. I do not force you to do something so don't force me to do anything. The very same thing applies to the Confederate flag. Not all people will agree and that is ok. Opinions are like assholes. Everyone has one!

If we are to remove things that are seen as racist such as the rebel flag and confederate memorials then we need to remove other symbols and organizations that can be deemed racist. This would involve many places, objects, memorials, etc and many will not like to hear it. We would need to remove organizations like the NAACP. "Founded in 1909, the NAACP is the nation's oldest and largest civil rights organization. From the ballot box to the classroom, the thousands of dedicated workers, organizers, leaders and members who make up the NAACP continue to fight for social justice for all Americans." But they are technically racist because they are for the "Advancement of Colored People". They are there to help only the black community and now other "minorities" to become a viable contributor to our society. We cannot have a white only organization. A couple exist and are racist, such as the KKK, but even if they were not, it would automatically be viewed as a racist group. We would need to remove race only schools, scholarships, etc. If we were to have white only institutions they would be condemned for being "racist." Statues of Rosa Parks, Martin Luther King, Abraham Lincoln, Andrew Jackson and many other would need to be removed for what they were fighting for was during a time of great racism in our Nation. Some of these involved racism in itself. Jackson was the president who forced thousands of Cherokee to walk and die. Lincoln killed and mistreated tribes of the West as he "freed" the slaves. King was a great man who did great things, but for the black community. All men and woman have done great things, but all effected by some hatred in some form or another. We would need to remove the street names, city names, school names, anything that has anything to do with the names of people who were involved in anything race related! Will this magically solve the problem? NO! It will only make matters worse. Because we would be forcing people to once again do things that they never wanted to do. We would be forcing people to sit down and talk to each other. We would be forcing people to stare at the ugliness that is our past and people can't do it and they don't want to it. People would be forced into seeing it isn't just a White and Black issue, but an everyone issue. Native American, Hispanic (multiple Nationalities), Asian(multiple Nationalities), etc! Everyone is affected!

There are so many things that can be seen as racist. Apparently the term "Jimmies" is racist. I was taught, growing up, this was literally the word in New England for sprinkles. Now everyone says it was for Jim Crow. I don't know if that is true and can't find anything on the matter online, but it seems totally absurd and ridiculous. Should people change the way they speak everyday just to appease someone else? There are words used for certain things that did not mean what they do now and some words are seen as "offensive" to some. Why is it ok for one race of person to say a certain word and not another? If you can use towards your own people as a slang term than anyone should be able to use the word. If not, then don't say it. The term fag means a cigarette in the UK. Here it's a derogatory word for a gay man. Gay once meant to be joyous or happy. Now it is a term used for someone who is sexually attracted to someone of the same sex. A simple word used to haunt some people I know. They were called crackers. Should we change the name of what we know as crackers because the term is racist? Everyone only wants to talk about the race issues involving the black and the white communities. What about all the racism towards Native Americans? What about the names of Native people and tribes and "red skins" being plastered everywhere for everyone to see? If we can turn our cheek to that than why don't we have teams and mascots named after the "honkeys", the "niggers" and the list goes on. There are so many terms used for other people it's just insane!

Racism has been a problem in this world forever. It always will be. People haven't learned from the mistakes of the past and can never fully accept the past so we are stuck dwelling on it. Hatred and Racism are learned behaviors as many psychiatrists have told us. So the only way to remove them is to teach our future generations about what is wrong and why those things are wrong. Only then can we fully accept who we are and who we want to become. For this reason I feel there may be another "civil war" between or nation. Not between north and south, but between political parties and the people most likely to align with them. Literally brother vs. brother, friend vs. friend, etc. When is this ever going to stop? Why is it ok to defile something and commit a crime to make your point? Martin Luther King marched in silence. He then went on to say amazing things to make his point. What he did was well within the confines of the law and he made is point and it was heard loud and clear!

Why are people ignoring the world around them? Why am I being told I owe the black community something? I owe you nothing. You owe me nothing and I am not asking for anything. I didn't own you and you were not owned. Yes my ancestors may have owned your ancestors, but that was over 150 years ago. You have been blessed to be free and to have the same rights as any other human being in this nation that is a legal citizen. I am sorry slavery has existed, but it is something we need to learn from. I don't know how many times I can say that. Maybe people should start to listen. There will always be people who hate someone or something. There is never going to be any stopping of that, but why should people do illegal things to get their point across? Why should people destroy things just because they don't like it or agree with it? I don't like the New York Yankees, but you don't see me destroying their statues or a fans flag on their home. I know completely different contexts, but is it that far off? I am not religious, but I don't go around destroying churches or insulting the people inside of them. I don't agree with most politicians, but I am not out there making death threats against them or hurting them in any way. I will try to speak up and get my word across, but not everyone is going to agree and that is ok. We are entitled with a wonderful gift. A gift that doesn't concern anyone and that is thought. We can think whatever we want and about anything. Sometimes its bad thoughts and sometimes good. Sometimes those good thoughts need to be shared and hopefully they can change the world we live in for the better. Too many times its bad ideas present that cause more bad things to happen!

With the removal of anything racist, we might as well remove anything that causes controversy. Remove the rainbow flag. Remove the don't tread on me flags, remove history from schools, remove all politicians who refuse to follow the law and separate religion from state, remove all illegal people who have come here, remove all money, etc. This list goes on. Why should we remove one thing just because some people don't agree with it? There are many things people don't agree with, but there they are just sitting there untouched. I don't agree with churches or religion so let's remove them. I don't agree with the bible so let's remove them from circulation. People don't like politics in America so let's remove it. The list is endless because there is always going to be people who find fault with everything and anything. We all see things every day that we don't agree with and do nothing about them.

I have been told flying the Confederate flag is the most "Un-American thing" that I can do. Is it more American for me to be burning our current National symbol in protest? Is it more American of me to allow the people of our Nation to stomp on the American flag as a social media craze? Is it more American to sit during the pledge of allegiance? Mostly because of two words. Is it more American to loot businesses in protest? Is it more American to destroy someone else's property? Is It more American to blame anything and everyone for my problems? Is it more American to completely ignore the Bill of Rights and every other important document started by our founding Fathers? Is it more American to force my beliefs onto another individual? Some of these things are seen as "freedom of expression". Well guess what? There is no such thing. There is freedom of speech which is our first amendment right and you could possibly put expression under it. But why would an act of treason against this Nation be seen as more American than simply keeping history alive for everyone to see? How does the term "under god" prevent someone from pledging their allegiance to their nation? Just don't say those two tiny words. It's called respect! Something that is lacking in today's society. I do not understand how something of so little importance can trump so many other things! There are real problems in America and flying the rebel flag is not one of them. How about we focus on crime, the state of our Nation as a whole, the lack of education for our people, the healthcare for our people (well lack thereof), the lack of jobs, the inability for many people to own a home, and the list goes on. All of this most recent debate was over a white man shooting up a church with black parishioners. A rather unfortunate event and I am terribly sorry that people had to die in such a manner, but what happened has nothing to do with the rebel flag. Why is it everyone is always willing to turn a tragedy into some political hoopla instead of grieving first. Every little event has to be turned into some media circus where only half truths are present and EVERYONE jumps to conclusions.

What happened in Charleston was disturbing, but it has happened before. These events have happened at Mosques, temples and other churches and were not just white shooters to the black community. There have been black shooters to white victims, black to Muslim, white to Muslim, white to white, black to black, every race has had something happen to them in recent history in this Nation and all could be classified as hate crimes. Yet we only focus on the one type? Why is it that we only want to pay attention to certain events? All of these shootings, killings, bombings are important. All of them have devastated a community. All of them have left people hurting, but yet nothing has been done to solve the problems in a productive manner. I have seen news reports of how "black lives matter." Don't all lives matter? No one person deserves to live more than the other especially when it comes to race. For those that are religious, we are all created in god's image. So we are all equal!

This individual, who doesn't deserve to have his name mentioned, did what he did out of hate. He used more than one flag to help fuel his hate. He, very clearly, was a sick individual. He only wanted one thing and that was to start a race war. Now everyone who sees a rebel flag or a confederate memorial jumps on the hatred band wagon and is fueling the fire he started! We should be thinking of ways to stop the "race war" and work together to stop the hatred. We, as a Nation, need to come together, grieve for the lost lives and find a solution to all the problems that lie ahead. Flying one type of flag is not going to change anything. People will still use it, still fly it and that's ok. We all see things in life differently and we always will. Like I said before, we are all gifted in thought. We can think what we want, when we want and there is nothing anyone can do about it. It's when we put those thoughts into the world, out in the open that it can actually be helpful or hurtful. This young man's was clearly hurtful. Maybe if more people had noticed what he was writing or saying this could have been prevented.

I am exhausted talking on the matter. I have been told I am too conservative because I support the flying of the flag. I have been called too liberal because I support gay marriage, etc. There is nothing political about the rebel flag and I am neither a left nor a right. I am in the middle forced to choosing someone to govern me because no able bodied man or woman will stand up and say how they feel against the current crap we have in office. This includes ALL congressmen, senators and a president. Our president could have done so many wonderful things and didn't. I cannot solely blame him. No president has absolute power thanks to a system of checks and balances, but that is for another time. Now back to the flag debate. The rebel flag is dead. It's a symbol like I have stated before. It should not be held in the same respects as our Nation's flag or the state's flags. There is so much more I want to say about this and the things I have seen in recent days, but I am just too tired of it all. I'm too tired of trying to argue with people who demand change, but never do anything productive to change anything. In all respects, I feel like the flag deserves to fly on the graves and memorials of the confederacy and a spot in a museum, but most people will not go and see it and we will forget all about it. Like usual, no one has seemed to learn a thing. It seems like every few years something happens to fuel a race debate again and its getting really old! The problems we face as a Nation today are the same problems from many years ago with different faces. Today it's a rebel flag, shootings, etc and yesterday it was statehood, slaves, taxes and expansionism.

I pray to God to help the family's through this terrible time, if you go back to all the shooting's in the past the killer's always talk's to a friend or leave's note's here and there or on the inter net or some thing, now in your case Dylann talk to a friend that they interview on camera and he said Dylann told him what he wanted to do and was thinking of doing so why wasn't he ask how come he didn't say anything to the Police or somebody if he had maybe there would be nine people alive today, the same thing happened at Sandy Hook School one key person new of the danger with that killer but he did nothing, but the blame always goes to the " GUN " or do we take away the knife' the rope's the box cutter, if somebody want's to kill anybody there is 50 ways to do it, I think we should spend more time coming up with law's to those people if you know of some one that want's and talks about doing something like this church shooting, maybe you might want to look in to that. there is more if you want to talk. hope you get to see this. Dear Governor Hailey,

I know in the deaths of the members of the Mother Emanuel AME Church that you have spoken out for the death penalty in this matter. I am not a vengeful person, but in this instance I whole heartedly agree with you.

I have seen reports that the medication is not readily available. PLEASE, for the sake of justice for these innocent people, and the reputation of South Carolina, try to obtain these medications. I know I speak for many. Thank you for listening to your constituents.

<SUBJECT>please take down Confederate flag</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Dear Gov. Haley,

I want to express my outrage and sorrow at the shooting in Charleston of 9 Black church members. It is a sickening and horrifying tragedy. In light of this, I want to urge you and your legislature to take down the Confederate flag. It does not represent history, it does not honor war dead; it merely breeds hatred like the shooter's. It is an ugly symbol of racism that gives sick people permission to commit the crimes this shooter did.

My thoughts go out to the families injured by this tragedy.

Sincerely,

Dawne [REDACTED]

Honorable Govenor Haley,

Your stand and comments about the abominable murders at the church in Charleston is a credit to you and the folks of your great state..If we had more like you we would not have all the division in the country..

I'm a Retired law enforcement detective, veteran and now a custom home builder in Palm Beach County Florida. I don't know you except for what I see and read..!

Be proud you are an outstanding AMERICAN a credit to your office, your family heritage and all great americans..

My wife and I would like to help is some way, we are not wealthy but we could do something..
PLEASE TELL US HOW..

Most respectfully,

Robert and Joy [REDACTED]

239. [REDACTED]

Ps..

In all my years of military and public service I have NEVER seen a better group of Americans that survived the Murders..

I would like to say I would have done the samething, forgiven the perpetrator, but I don't think I could or would..

I'd like to suggest we build on the momentum at Mother Emanuel in Charleston and designate the Saturday before Father's day as Mother Emanuel Unity Saturday annually. State and county parks open for free - come out for a picnic, free concerts in the park, unity walks across bridges (too hot for a run), etc. NO politician speeches! Let's show we are serious about uniting our state and make this a statewide annual event to come together.

 <SUBJECT>shooting in Charleston....The Day the Palmettos Cried....</SUBJECT>
 <MSG>

The Lord gave me these words this morning... Saturday, June 20, 2015.

The Day the Palmettos Cried...June 17, 2015

The day the Palmettos bowed their heads and cried...
 When evil burst in upon our Holy City...
 Our peaceful South Carolina coast...
 Suddenly ripped open with an unspeakable violence!
 South Carolina, our beloved state...
 So dripping with history...
 Some so beautiful, but always there is the sadness of the past.
 The evil that occurred on Wednesday, June 17, 2015...
 This painful event ...
 That we, all South Carolinians, cannot abide!

Our prayers must rise together for our fellow South Carolina brothers!
 Color? What color?
 There is none when we are reborn as God's children.
 The love of Christ joins us.

Our hope is in the cross!
Never ...no never allow evil to conquer our hearts and souls!
Join together as South Carolinians all...
To pray for our state, for Charleston, for the body of historic Emanuel AME Church, for the victims' families, for persecuted Christians everywhere!
But...do not forget the tortured soul overcome by evil.
His hand was the instrument of this evil, so hate the sin, and love the sinner, just as Mary did, Jesus' mother!

So now for our dear state,
May each brother and sister...
Stand up in our faith circle,
Hold hands and lift our voices together in prayer!
Pray until your soul is weary!
Pray for justice; pray for love!
Pray for forgiveness from God above!
Pray that Jesus Christ will lead us out of the darkness into the light.
Pray for our country and our leaders...
With all your might, and remember the day...
The Palmettos cried... remember that date...

June 17, 2015.....
Amen

Evelyn Anne [REDACTED] June 20, 2015...inspired by God.

It Is Time To Remove The Flag As a native of North Carolina, a one time resident of South Carolina, and now a Florida resident the Confederate Battle has been prominently displayed in each of these states. I was living in Columbia, SC when the fight to remove this flag from the top of the State Capital occurred and the end result was the flag was moved down to street level and changed from a speck in the sky to a prominent display on Main Street. To fully understand the history of this flag you would have to cover approximately 100 years of our history and the different versions that were displayed by different states before, during, and after the darkest time in our history which was the Civil War. As one who is a proud southern redneck, hillbilly, and country boy, whatever you want to apply to me, I have had doubts about displaying this flag throughout my life. Fast forward to 2015 and recall all of our Military Men and Women, police officers, deputy sheriff's, constables, 9-1-1 Operators, firefighters, EMT's, Paramedics, nurses and allied health professionals, Emergency Management Professionals, physicians, and every other public safety professional that has fought for our freedom and safety without regard to race, religion, color, creed, sexual orientation, or other beliefs. These professions just get up every day and serve everybody who is in harms way that crosses their path and do this without using the dangers they face, many of which are beyond their ability to stop, as an excuse to fail in their mission. This great nation was founded on a belief in GOD, freedom of religion, and to counter oppression by England. With the exception of several events such as slavery, segregation, not allowing our women to vote, and the number of tragic mass shooting events, we have always served everyone by allowing those to join us legally who sought a better life. This made America great and is a large part of our history. Now I firmly believe it is time to remove a symbol of a dark time in our history. The Confederate Battle a Flag belongs in museums, history books, and private property. It no longer deserves a place in our governmental buildings, our license plates, our schools, parks, and parades. This is a symbol of division that can no longer be part of a nation that needs unity of all. The families of victims of Charleston and the citizens of South Carolina responded to the recent tragedy with a level of respect towards all that this country had not see in any mass tragedy of this century. The Law Enforcement and Public Safety Agencies responded to this tragedy expertly and efficiently, and a private citizen call to the Kings Mt. NC Police Department relayed to the Shelby, NC Police Department did an outstanding job of apprehending the alleged shooter. As a southern redneck, hillbilly, country boy I no longer support governmental display of this divisive symbol and ask that it be removed. I hope everyone will join me in this endeavor.

It is disgraceful that a symbol that perpetuates injustice to human beings because of their skin color is allowed to proudly fly over God's earth. Time's they r changing and racist philosophies that disregard life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness for African Americans is unacceptable forevermore.

Governor,

have followed news of the tragic shooting in your state, specifically your comments to the press regarding repealing 2nd amendment rights: cannot agree more on how you handled the question.

The church shootings remind me of 9/11: the greatest thing it did, albeit short lived, was bringing together all people, as un hyphenated Americans. As bad as the violence was in South Carolina, those affected, are showing incredible compassion, that I believe can only come from their deep faith.

Lot of bright, qualified women in the political arena, especially in your party. It's great to see you as one of those bright shining stars.

Keep up the good work, maintain your faith!

Sincerely,

Danny W. [REDACTED]

I have had the good fortune to visit Charleston twice in the past 10 years. It is a beautiful town with wonderful people. Growing up in a small town in Oregon, it was quite a history lesson. Understanding its past is not a thing of beauty, our history of enslaving and brutalizing human beings. The Confederate Flag present in the State House is a symbol of tolerance of that history. I would be aghast to see the Nazi flag in government buildings in Germany, rather than in Holocaust museums where it belongs. I hope this terrible mass murder will result in one good thing, the Confederate Flag being put away, except as a teaching example in history never to be repeated.

In the aftermath of the shootings in Charleston, I ask that you take down the confederate flag on the capital grounds. This would send a strong message that we reject the racism and ignorance that motivated the shooters behavior, of which the confederate flag is a symbol. There is nothing about the flag that warrants or justifies the continuation of flying it on the capital grounds.

Sincerely,

Emma [REDACTED]

I supported you in both of your elections and have been a supporter of yours since you have been in office but I am really disappointed in your recent announcement that you want the Confederate Battle Flag removed. You must have no further political ambitions in South Carolina. The Confederate flag is the kiss of death.

I believe that most Blacks dislike the Confederate Battle Flag because of its connection with the KKK following the war. I can understand this so why don't we replace this flag with the standard, national Confederate flag? That could be a simple solution to the problem. I believe you are asking for trouble if you try to remove the flag completely.

Why would you bow to the ranting and ravings of this NAACP leader who is taking advantage of the sadness of the recent events in Charleston which had nothing to do with the Confederate flag. The shooting of the church members by this deranged young boy is unbelievable and terrible but for these Black leaders to try to take advantage of this situation and bring the flag into it, is only an opportunists attempt to continue the racial divide. Can't you see this? This has done more harm than good toward the improvement of race relations. All they want is controversy.

I have great sympathy for the victims of the church tragedy and their families but I do not believe that this is the time to get into the hassle again of removing the Confederate flag. This was done in detail by our legislature a number of years ago when the flag was removed from the top of the State House to a pole down by the Confederate Monument (where it should be). The Confederate flag is a reminder of the bravery and suffering of the many thousands of South Carolina's men who fought and died trying to defend our state and the South from Northern Aggression. It has nothing to do with discrimination.

I hope you will change your view on the flag as I believe it will cause great controversy in the State.

Thanks, Bill [REDACTED]

I was going to write a different letter but then came the discovery of all the photos, manifesto and background information related to Mr. Roof and the impetus for his horrible crimes. Contrary to your prior statement we now know what motivated Mr. Roof to enter one of our places of worship and take the life of another WE ALSO KNOW (see his photo) THAT FOR HIM THE CONFEDERATE FLAG STANDS AS A SYMBOL OF THAT HATE AND RACISM, AS IT DOES FOR MANY OTHERS. While I do not doubt the legitimacy of your tears, Government can no longer appear to support hate and racism by fly.ing the confederate above its buildings. TAKE DOWN THE CONFEDERATE FLAG.

Dear Governor,

I have never written a letter to an elected official before. It is passed time to take down the Confederate flag. It is a horrible reminder of slavery for both black and white. Everyday racism cannot be over looked anymore. The spotlight is on South Carolina(although this symbols days in every state are numbered) you can be the official who is remembered for doing what is right even though it was at the time controversial. This how we became America. Thank you for your service, I can't imagine having your job Governor.

Sincerely,

Laura [REDACTED]

Also I cannot support South Carolina's industry/commerce etc. if it continues to support this remainder of violence and inhumanity.

I have just come from church where our priest spoke with emotion about the brutal and senseless killing in the Episcopal church on Wednesday. I truly believe if there were fewer guns available in our population there would be fewer killings, as evidenced in other countries around the world. That is one difficult issue related to this terrible case. Another is the sobering realization that racial relations & prejudice are still part of our country. I am blessed to live in the most diverse community (Queens, New York) in this glorious nation. Race and religious tolerance is the norm, although there are pockets of ignorance and hatred to be sure. We celebrate our diversity and I know there are good people in South Carolina who do also.

You have been a strong and gracious leader during this awful week. I want you to know that you are in my thoughts and prayers as you deal with this painful situation.

I heard you say that "now is not the time" to consider removing the confederate flag from public locations, including the state house. I respectfully disagree. We may want to cling to the idea that the flag represents a cultural past, but the ugly truth is that it represents the worst part of our shared history. I can think of no better time than to advance the idea of removing this flag as a powerful gesture to what South Carolina means to our great United States. It has no place in our world today. Thank you for your leadership and courage.

The news has reported the thing who killed 9 people at the church is Charleston, SC can bail out for $1,000,000.00. Thats utterly absurd! And to think the church stupid folks want the state government to take the Confederate flag off the top of YOUR OFFICE BUILDING. How can the confessed murderer of 9 people even get bail? SC is SOS i.e. STUCK ON STUPID. I an a black American mind you with a mind that would be a terrible thing to waste. Those bible thumpers need to sit down sit down cause you are rockin the boat and the colored girl said don't rock the boat tip the boat over. The issue is whats his name who deserves no claim to fame is a pathetic lonely wretch. Obviously he hated that allo he could nuster up for a friend is that black guy with dread locks. I bet the rednecks teased ham and called him a nigger lover and wouldn't let poor redneck play in their redneck games. So the pathetic redneck decided he would get a web site to make himself a powerful person by preaching hatred. So what makes this redneck any different than all the otherpowerless lonely people who kill people to make the 6 o'clock news for fame. That includes the ones you call terrorist and the ones you call gangs and the brainiact white men and the Dodge City cops on the wanted dead or alive mission. Back in the day President Jimmy Carter sent Mohammed Ali to Africa. His mission was to tell his African Brothers and sisters to boycott the Olympics in Moscow. Good thing we are not all stuck on stupid, an African brother told President Jimmy Carter not to ever send a sports figure to talk world politics with him again. So, you people i.e. need to stop talking to the black churches about serious issues that they respond to with prayer viguals. Who deals with nuts? Thats who you better discuss these types of issues with. Those folks have the Minnesota Wasserman test, it asks if you hear voices to qualify people insane. Find some black people with an IQ over 69 to discuss such matters with. Please respond. Sincerely, Dorienné [REDACTED]

I cannot tell you how upset I am with the seeming grave insensitivity of the people of South Carolina. The US and State flag fly at half mast to mourn the terrible tragedy visited upon the people of Charleston's Emanuel AME Church, and indeed, upon all of SC- and all of America. However, the Confederate flag flies high. BY LAW cannot be lowered to half staff? That alone tells us something about the bigoted nature of many in the South. Why someone didn't just realize it needs to come DOWN - and do it - is beyond me! If that breaks a "law" so be it.

That it still flies is an amazing affront to the the folks of that church who are suffering so.

Thank you.

When will the insanity stop? Someone once defined insanity as taking the same actions over and over, expecting a different result. We need to use our common sense to stop the violence now. Only people who are mentally capable and school trained should be considered for gun ownership license. Further, the civil war is over, the South lost. The confederate flag serves no purpose flying on state buildings except to inflame the racially tense situation in America. Obama is generous suggesting it be displayed in museums. I would not allow it at all, just as I would not allow a Nazi flag.

Thank you

South Carolina can avoid the oncoming tsunami of outrage by taking down the confederate flag. If you don't care what Americans think about your state, by all means keep the slave flag flying.

However, if you keep it, your state's reputation and tourism will not recover.

Many lives were lost in the civil war in order to end slavery in America. The south LOST! Get over it, move on, and tell the racists in your state that they are fomenting terrorism.

There seems to be no effective, ethical leadership in S.C., it is not much better in New Mexico. Many people are racist, our government should do everything possible to discourage them from acting on those feelings. Flying the confederate flag encourages people like Dylan Storm. Do you not get that or are you like him?

I'm a resident of New York City, home to the largest population of South Asians in any city in the country. As a child of Indian immigrants, I am shocked and outraged by the shooting of the AME Church in Charleston. I urge you to not tokenize your personal success as a South Asian, or the representation of non-Black people of color, in order to erase or neglect the rampant structural anti-blackness that pervades South Carolina, and the rest of this country. I understand that you have defended the display of the Confederate flag on the grounds of the statehouse in Columbia. Please take down the flag which is a symbol of racist ideology and actions targeting Black communities. As an Indian American, I stand against racism, and in solidarity with Black communities. I hope you will too. Please make a public statement during this critical moment, and take action.

As an annual visitor to South Carolina (Isle of Palms), I would hope that the terrible events in Charleston of this past week and the outpouring of loving concern and solidarity shown by and for the AME Church would inspire rethinking of the flag issue by the SC legislature and administration.

It is well past time for the flag of the Confederacy to come down from the grounds of the state capitol. Change of policy on this would show meaningful official concern and response to the tragedy.

Please assert your leadership in this matter. All of us Americans need to transcend the old partisan politics and come together.

Dear Gov. Haley.

The Confederate flag had nothing to do with the tragedy that occurred at Emmanuel AME church. The flag honors our ancestors who gave their lives for states rights and freedom from the tyranny of Lincoln and the federal government.

The evil that occurred in Charleston was the result of a sick and demented individual. We should not kowtow to the liberal agenda, political correctness and historical revisionism.

To do otherwise is an insult to the majority of South Carolinians.

As I am sure you are aware, the citizens of our state, regardless of race or faith, have come together to grieve and support the families of the victims. No riots, no civil disorder were seen. We came together as southerners and South Carolinians, caring for our own.

Respectfully,
Russell [REDACTED]

I am extraordinarily proud of my City and State in the aftermath of the Mother Emmanuel AME Church. We have shown clearly that we lead the Country in the proper way to respond to tragedy. You, Tim Scott, Joe Riley and Jim Clyburn were very strong in your demonstration of who we are. We are not Baltimore, not Ferguson and not New York.

Now you as governor can show leadership again by taking down the Confederate Battle Flag, the flag my ancestors fought under, from the statehouse grounds while Reverend Pinkney lies in state. Then you could leave the flag down on a continuing basis thereafter. The empty flagpole over the monument would be a strong message that South Carolina has continued to lead the nation in racial reconciliation as we lead the Confederacy in secession. Further, CNN is reporting. That all flags are at half mast EXCEPT the Confederate flag. I believe that, as Governor, you need to rapidly make statement of apology and take corrective action with the officials responsible for this accidental misstatement of South Carolina sentiment. I believe that this would extend the beautiful show of leadership that you made with your initial statement and fix your position as Governor for all the people.

I am proud to be an adopted son of Charleston and South Carolina and happy that you received my vote.

Thank you for considering my opinion.

<MSG>

Of course, there will be renewed calls for suppressing the 2nd Amendment due to the actions of Dylann Roof in Charleston, SC who reportedly received a gun from his father when he tragically killed 9 people in an AME Church there! Pres. Obama mentions other countries where he claims such things don't happen but what about the killing by armed Muslims of Jews in France rather recently? France has strict gun control laws so even the mainstream police were not capable of fighting the ISIS supporters once they had their weapons which criminals will get if they are determined to do so!

Was Dylann Roof on psychiatric drugs for depression, etc? Bet he was!

An organization that South Carolina should use for data on the effects of psychiatric drugs is WWW.CCHR.ORG which has done a lot of research on the effects of drugs pushed by the psychiatric profession for their own profit to the detriment of patients and public. Fact is the psyche profession in general is run by pro-Obamacare, pro-gun control leftists so the State of South Carolina and other patriotic entities have nothing to lose when they go after them for their own self-defense! Fact is CCHR has done the research and we of the right need to get together and start cooperating right now or we will hang separately! It wasn't the Confederate Flag flying in the state capitol that caused Dylann Roof to lose all common sense or restraint nor think about the results of his actions to himself if nothing else!

I bet it was the meds he was on! The State of S. Carolina should consider a lawsuit against the drug companies that manufactured the drugs I believe Dylann Roof was on!

Dear Governor Haley...PLEASE, in the love of God and country, and out of respect for the 9 people tragically killed at AME, remove the Confederate flag from flying on any SC government building! The night before the tragic shootings, I had a friend, visiting from CA who said, "Diane, I can see why you moved here...it is a beautiful city, fantastic historical buildings, history, great restaurants, gorgeous beaches, but how can you live somewhere that raises a flag that is tantamount to flying a Nazi flag under the Israeli flag?" I've only lived here a bit over 5 months and was shocked to learn that this is true! Then to wake up, literally wake up, to the fact that this very disturbed young man, Dylann Roof, thought that he could divide the people of Charleston by praying with them and then killing them...we can thwart his sad, misguided, and, some would say, evil intentions, by turning them into a movement towards healing the pain of the African-American community! I am a caucasian, 63 year old, single female and I only share those statistics to let you know that I will only cast my ballot for someone that moves us towards a positive change so that my 7 month old Grandson, the prime reason that I moved here...could inherit a world, not marching in the past, but a world marching toward trust, kindness and hope! Thank you for listening! Peace for all of the world! Diane [REDACTED]

Governor Haley, I feel that you have a unique opportunity to honor the lives and deaths of the victims of the tragic church shooting which occurred last week by addressing the issue of the confederate flag which flies over government buildings in your state. Acts of bigotry like this are the product of a certain mindset, (having been the target of racist slurs yourself, I am sure you are painfully aware of this) and it is my strong feeling that to have confederate flags flying over buildings with government sanction plays a part in perpetuating this mindset. It would be a bold and perhaps costly move for you, but you are in a position as an individual to make more of a difference than most of us can ever dream of making, and I hope you will consider taking action.

 Gov. Haley,

The country is watching. Please take down that confederate flag which currently flies on the capitol grounds. Such action by you and other Southern governors would help to move forward the critical discussion of race relations in the U.S. Change happens by actually changing things. This would be a big symbolic gesture in the right direction and it is past time to do so. And the murder of the black parishioners at the Emanuel Church may then serve some purpose.

Thank you,

Suzanne [REDACTED]

By the way, it is very difficult to make out the words above when you have a blue on blue field.

After the shooting that so sadly occurred as a horrific result of bigotry, prejudice and hatred. South Carolina was the birth place of the civil war!!!! Your state thought it was "ok" to OWN OTHER PEOPLE!! HOW TRULY SICK IS THAT!! Flying a confederate flag that is NOTHING MORE than a symbol of everything horrible about what mankind does to one another is disgusting!! SHAME ON YOU AND MOST WHO LIVE IN SOUTH CAROLINA!! To hide behind saying this is a symbol of your heritage and should proudly be displayed is comparable for an entire state of mostly German decent flying the swastika PROUDLY, and at government BUILDINGS no less!!! This makes my heart ache and my stomach want to vomit!

I watched you tell the nation you would not take down this disgusting flag because you wouldn't do that to "your" people. You have shown the nation who "your" people are. WHITES ONLY.... Still seems to be the backward way YOU and the whites of South Carolina think! Do you honestly believe that ANY black person sees that flag and feels PRIDE? Pride for all the poor souls who lost their lives fighting for the right to own another? If you think because they lost their life for a SICK notion of what is RIGHT should be celebrated, I think you and all who support this twisted thinking should be voted out of office! Since I don't live there I can not cast my vote to take it down and get YOU OUT OF OFFICE!

What I can do us so little, but it's what I MUST!! My husband and I scheduled a vacation to visit

South Carolina next May. We were planning on moving there when we retire next year!! Even though I lost my $1000 deposit, it was worth it knowing your state will NEVER receive even 1 cent of my $. We have reconsidered living in such a state that finds the confederate flag something of PRIDE!!

After posting your statements on FB I HAVE SEEN HUNDREDS of thousands who feel as I!! When we ALL decide to boycott your backward thinking state and vacation somewhere else, maybe just maybe the loss of tourism dollars and the loss of all the income one brings to a state when they move there, South Carolina will begin to care about ALL THE PEOPLE!! I know I intend to plaster your disgusting message everywhere. You said it all. When you made THAT statement!! In such a short time since this horrible event I know 3 families who say they too, we'll NEVER set foot there. If I know 3 in my small world how many who feel as I are out there. Hopefully enough to make you do what is RIGHT! If not, maybe enough to vote to take it down and vote you out!!!

I'm sure it pleases you that I will NEVER SET FOOT there, but my hope is enough people feel as I do. Maybe even some will finally be so ashamed they will move away!!

SHAME ON YOU AS GOVERNOR AND SOUTH CAROLINA FOR YOUR BACKWARD, BIGOTED SICKENING WAY OF HANDLING YOURSELVES. AND YOU CLAIM TO BE A CHRISTIAN???? Again... SHAME ON YOU!!!

My church prayed for the victims at Mother Emanuel this morning and challenged us to pray for God's guidance on what we could each do to help the survivors. I am a Republican and a Conservative and I believe that it is time to take down the Confederate Battle Flag. Put it in a museum where it belongs. This would be one very small step that would symbolize to people of African heritage that we offer peace and ask forgiveness for the sins of our forefathers. It is only complicated if we want it to be. Take it down. It's way past time!

[There wasn't a Topic that I felt was appropriate, so I just chose one at random. Please either add more topics or add "Other" to the list.]

I have just send the following message to my State representatives, Mike Fair and Wendy Nanney. I hope that you will offer what ever support you can on this important issue.

"In light of this week's shooting in Charleston, I ask, as one of your constituents, that you do everything in your power to remove the Confederate Flag from the grounds of the Statehouse in Columbia.

I am white, 57 years old and female. My great-grandparents moved from Camden, SC, to just outside Gainesville, FL, back in the 1850s. They took their slaves with them. They built a plantation on slave labor that still stands today. They fought in the Civil War. Am I proud of my heritage? No. Am I ashamed or embarrassed? No. It is what it is: history. I can't change it. All I can do is accept that it's a part of who I am, learn what I can from it, and move on. Which is what the citizens of SC need to do.

The Confederate Flag has no relevance in today's world and should have no active role. There is a huge population of our fellow South Carolinians who are offended by what they perceive the Flag represents. That alone should be enough to put the Flag where it belongs - in a history museum. I stand with President Obama on that.

I knew about the compromise to remove the Flag from on top of the Capital dome to the Statehouse grounds. I didn't really understand what that meant until I was in Columbia for a funeral, and drove down Main Street to Gervais to see our beautiful Statehouse. There, at one of the most prominent intersections in our State, was the Confederate Flag, at street level, for all to see, flying in the face of anyone who is offended by it. How could this possibly have been a compromise? No wonder the NAACP imposed its economic and tourism boycott.

Please, I beg of you: end this. It's not a matter of whether it's a symbol of heritage or hate. A large, and I hope growing, segment of our population - black AND white - believes it is offensive and divisive. If nine lives isn't proof of that, I don't know what is.

Thank you."

<SUBJECT>PLEASE WAKE UP AND REMOVE THE CONFEDERATE FLAG FROM THE STATEHOUSE</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Dear Governor Haley: Although I am not a resident of your state, I was born and raised in Tennessee and Mississippi. I earned a BBA and an MBA from the University of Mississippi and my Tennessee born/California raised child is currently attending the University of Mississippi. I am proud of my Southern Heritage and upbringing. In light of the mass shootings in Charleston, SC this week, I felt compelled to contact you to plead with you to use your influence to remove the Confederate flag from the South Carolina State Capitol. I realize that you and Representative Sanford consider this a complicated issue, however I strongly disagree. It is quite simple, actually. The flag should be removed, preserved and displayed in a museum to honor and promote the proud aspects of our shared Southern Heritage that the flag represents to many. But it should be removed from the Statehouse in order to renounce the outdated and wrongful aspects of Southern white hatred that the flag represents to just as many, if not more...White AND Black. When I was a student at the University of Mississippi, the Confederate Flag was the official flag of the school and was flown and waved at sporting events, etc. Eventually, officials wised up and the flag was changed to what is now the Battle M flag. This issue is not political or complicated. It is a simple matter of morality and civil rights; a simple gesture that will result in massive positive impact. You say your role is to "heal the state". Technically, your role is to GOVERN the state and only by governing responsibly can you heal people with whom you have no knowledge or relationship; those most affected by this racially-motivated tragedy. Your position of leadership requires that you step up and join some of your prominent fellow Republicans, such as Jeb Bush and Mitt Romeny in recognizing that this simple act simply must be done. IMMEDIATELY! Respectfully, Elizabeth [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

Today I write to urge you to take this 'unique' opportunity to speak out about moving the flag. You have this moment to be the hero for all South Carolinians...all colors. I was a staunch Confederate flag supporter until 15 years ago when I formed a friendship with a thirty-something black man in our gym in Columbia. I had one opinion, he had another. In our conversations, I began to realize that my argument about SC ancestors from the 1700's and history did not match his hurt about oppression for an entire segment of our citizens. I am an older Christian woman and my love for the Lord surpasses everything. I understand you're speaking today at 4. I sincerely hope you will ask yourself, "what would Jesus do"? This is "a defining moment in time" for you and SC. Please continue to shine on our state and country as the Emanuel Church did yesterday. Something important is happening here. Please let it grow across this land. Sincerely...Joanne [REDACTED] Republican

Since the tragic shooting in Charleston, the issue of the Confederate Flag has come up again. Please do not cave! This is an issue that needs to be decided by South Carolina voters not by someone from New York! This is not other people's business. let south Carolina voters make that decision.

Thank you for listenining and thanks for making South Carolina a great place to be.l

Dear Governor Haley,

While listening to your speech on Thursday after the shooting of 1 of the 9 your employee Senator Democrat Clementa Pinckney you stated that the people of your state needed to heal. I agree with you however I think that the healing will begin by honoring Senator Pinckney and removing the Confederate flag. I agree with President Obama, Mitt Romney and Jeb Bush that it is time for the Confederate to be take down to become apart of history only. We are praying for the victims families and the state however in this situation we would like to see you make history in this healing by starting the process of having the Confederate remove. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Harriet [REDACTED]

<SUBJECT>"we do know that we'll never understand" quote from your message</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Dear Governor Haley:

You have the following posted in a message expressing sorrow about the murders in Charleston:

"we do know that we'll never understand what motivates anyone to enter one of our places of worship and take the life of another."

With all due respect, within a few hours of the shooting, we DID know what motivated this individual. To state that we will never know what motivates someone, especially in this situation, smacks of turning a bit away from the real issue.

Any South Carolinian knows what the issue and motivation are here, and it doesn't take a whole lot of effort at introspection to see it.

I challenge you to do the politically difficult, but morally right thing, and completely denounce this act as the act of hatred and racism that it is. Support taking the flag down, and say so publicly. Our state already has a reputation for racism - do you think that's healthy, culturally and economically (regardless of opinions of the rest of the country, which is abysmally low)?

Fact: this happened because a racist kid had easy access to a gun. Taking the flag down will not solve EITHER of those problems, obviously, and it won't bring back the victims.

But it is at LEAST a nod showing that we, and you as leader, recognize that waving a flag that offends so much of our population, in a prominent place on the grounds of our State House, is not just wrong, but antagonistic and hurtful.

Thank you for your consideration, and I ask you to please put the politics aside here, and just do what is best for our state.

Best regards,

Bruce [REDACTED]

My name is Mari [REDACTED] and I live in the San Francisco Bay Area. I am a devout Christian woman, and I do not have political agenda or any other motive for writing other than love and concern for our great Country, and all who are hurting over this horrible shooting.

I respectfully ask consideration be given to removing the confederate flag in honor and memory of the nine people killed and their grieving families, the church congregation, and also your State, our Nation, the first responders, law enforcement, the cleaning crews, yourself and your colleagues, All who have felt so hurt and betrayed by this horrible violence against the family of God (in the House of God).

Thank you. You all are in my most fervent prayers.

God IS Great.

Dear Governor Haley,

Thank you for your statement about the shootings that reflected exactly how I felt, "We woke up today---". I think the whole country's heart and soul is broken. I am writing to urge you to put these feelings into action by spearheading a campaign to get the confederate flag taken down from the Capitol grounds and anywhere else that it is publicly displayed on government property except in museums. The flag is so offensive to so many of us, not just to African Americans. I am a 75 year old white person. Let's not flaunt the worst of our history, a history which, unfortunately, is still not resolved. Even though the legislative vote may be months away the campaign could, and should, begin now.

Sincerely,

Isabelle [REDACTED]

Dear Governor Haley,

As a native Virginian, grandson of a Confederate cavalrayman who wrote with Jeb Stuart, I regret the necessity of taking down the BATTLE FLAG. aLLow ME TO SUGGEST A SOLUTION. IN PLACE OF THE BATTLE FLAG, RAISE THE bONNE bLUE FLAG, WHIH WAS THE FIRST FLAG OF THE cONFERDERATE sTATES OF aMERICA. i'M SURE YOU HAVE HEARD THE SONG ABOUT THE BONNIE BLUE FLAD. IT SHOULD OFFEND NO ONE; IY SHOULD INDPIRE ANYONE TO SHOOT HIS FELLOW CITIZENS. IF YOU HAVE NOT HERARD OF THIS FLAG, PLEASE CONSULT A HISTORIAN AT YOUJR STATE UNIVERSITY.

Please hold your ground on the Confederate Flag issue and not cave to the liberal media. Nothing that you do will make them happy or stop their hatred for SC and all things Southern. They will never be happy and no matter what you do for them or give them they will want more. Monuments, Streets, Parks and even the name "Fort Jackson" will be next. Liberal Yahoo News, prior to the shooting, has been running at least three "anti-Confederate flag" articles a week. Hold fast and please remind people that this is a South Carolina issue and we will not be bullied by the liberal media.

In the wake of the recent horrible tragedy occurring in the Emanuel African Methodist Episcopal Church you should be aware that the eyes of the nation, no the eyes of the entire world, are upon you now. Governor, history has put you in the unique position of ushering in a new area for South Carolina, and turning away from the racist history of your state.

I am certain you know that the flag displayed so proudly on state grounds is not a symbol of peaceful, productive southern heritage, or Southern Hospitality - it is a battle flag. A divisive, violent, and racist symbol, currently representing your state.

Is it a surprise that a young man who was raised under this banner, and drives the streets named after Confederate generals, should turn out to uphold this violent and racist tradition?

I believe that the perception is that a miscreant like Dylann Roof was created, and nurtured, in the arms of an intolerant racist southern tradition.

This is your chance to influence history forever Governor, by removing a racist violent symbol on state property, and proving to be a state which is home to, and governed by, decent, God fearing, welcoming people - and not a state of racist miscreants which sadly, is quickly becoming the entire world's perception of SC, and of the old south.

History is watching Governor. Do the right thing.

I hope you stand firm and let the flag continue to fly at the capital. Most people are not taught the real reason the war was fought. It was not over slavery. It was many things including money. I know the KKK displays the Confederate flag, but they also display the American flag. Not everybody who displays the Confederate flag is a racist. The shooting in Charleston was a tragedy and was committed by a racist mentally ill drug addict idiot. People like that do not know the true meaning of the flag.

Please keep the Confederate flag flying in honor of the thousands of South Carolina and southern soldiers both black and white who fought and died for it. Thank You

First I must say my heart grieves for those cut down by that young mans hatred of his fellow human being whose only crime was SKIN COLOUR!! I am white, 73 years old, celebrating 2 years of successful open heart surgery. Most of my young formidable days were spent in Southern Missouri where I heard respected church deacons/elders refer to Dr. King as dr. coon and other slurs during my high school days of the 50s. As my Uncle ran a drive-in theatre and had employed myself as projectionist I viewed Westerns more than I cared to. In a good majority, the South and Johnnie-Reb., were shown as heroic, brave and full of sacrifice for a good cause. And in truth it can be said the individual soul fighting against the North was that but the cause was wrong WRONG. And why did I feel that way then, no idea. Shouldn't have as at age 11 when living with my Dad in Los Angeles Ca. one night when he was at work I went out, against the rules, to look at comics. While walking by a vacant lot I was grabbed by a black male of around 20s, pulled into a lot and raped while he held a knife to my throat. Did I tell my Dad? no. Did I ever tell anyone? yes. one ex-girl friend and now you(and staff). Did it turn me into a copy of Roof? no. My deacons/elders? no. A Captain who signed my evals in the service who was so happy when Dr. King was killed he told me just how happy he was and was amazed when I told him he was minutes away from being reported (and I really should have). 2 m/srgts. on same day expressing same opinion to me, a s/srg., and once more I threat but let them off. WHY? For some reason I have this singular attitude that you judge people by actions not color. In my 23 years of service I have worked with some Whites I would not leave my money/woman alone with(a couple from South Carolina-really) and a number of Black

Brothers I would give my life for and I KNOW they would do the same!! In closing and not trying to equate the flags as standing fully for same history or background. I have heard the Confederate flag is about history and heritage for your state and the state has the right to honor that history of bravery by its citizens. So you may not be aware but Germany has States and how do you think we Americans-Jews-GLBTS-Gypsies-and so many others would feel if some state in Germany put the Nazi flag on equal status with German flag? it is time-individuals want to display ignorance fine-state/counties/city? NO

<MSG>

My parents from Tennessee first began vacationing in Myrtle Beach in the 1950s, and over the decades my family has spent many happy times on the Grand Strand. We have booked a three-generation vacation at Folly Beach for September of this year, with family members converging from Montana, Colorado, New York, Virginia, and Tennessee.

If that Confederate flag remains flying at the South Carolina state capitol, however, I will never set foot-or spend money-in your state again. I find it outrageous that this symbol of oppression was flying when the American flag and the South Carolina state flag were lowered in respect for the murders in the Charleston church, a massacre committed by someone who draped himself with that Confederate battle flag.

For what it's worth, I am the descendant of Confederate veterans. But enough is enough. Leave that flag to the rednecks; it has no place on state property.

Yours,

Jeff [REDACTED]

Subject: THE FLAG. !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Folks, last night I came down really hard on Governor Nikki Haley<<https://www.facebook.com/NikkiHaley>>. At the start of her first run for the Governors office of the Great State of South Carolina, I held her on a very high pedestal, and thought of her as only second to Sarah Palin<<https://www.facebook.com/sarahpalin>>. I had the chance to meet her once at a town hall meeting in the myrtle beach area. After she was elected to office, she did so much to help the state, that I almost thought she walked on water. I have always held her in much regard. Last week she really made me proud when she told Rev. Sharpton to stay out of Charleston so that he could not stir up a racial issue in this terrible tragedy that took place at the church. I stood proud, and said that's my Governor. She stood up against people like Obama and Sharpton that love to stir the pot. Now, on Monday the 22nd, she did a complete flip flop and went against her campaign promise. Now I see that I should have slammed her harder here on social media. She has let down the non racial folks of this Great State. She did something Obama has never done. She hit the main stream media all over the globe faster than the speed of light. Please help me out here. WHAT WAS SHE THINKING ??????? Her words are now the NEW SHOT THAT HAS BEEN HEARD AROUND THE WORLD. !!!!!!!!!!! Folks, I was born in 1960, and grew up in New England (Rhode Island). As children, we knew nothing of racial tension. My family moved to the deep south (Tennessee) in 1968. There and then is where I was educated about racism. I did not like it then, and I don't like it today. Trust me when I tell you, it was very hard for a Yankee boy to fit in the south in the late 60s. But, with the help of some very good friends from Halls and Dyersburg, I made it through it. It did not go without getting my butt handed to me a few times. But, I learned a big lesson. Most of us children were not sure why it was going on. Only the adults did. Now, move ahead a few years and my family moved to South Carolina in the summer of 1975. Over the years racism faded and when I hit high school, we all got along very well. I had many black friends, and guess what ??? we all got along, and racism NEVER came up in a conversation. After school, I entered the work force. Guess what ?????? We all got along. !!!!! Aint that something. Who would have ever thunk. ?????? Now, fast forward to these last 7 years, and we now have a black president that is doing everything he can to dig up the past that we had nothing to do with. Between Obama and Sharpton, they are doing everything they can to divide our country again for no other reason but their own agenda. Now, I WILL SAY THAT I FEEL THAT ALL MY BLACK FRIENDS WILL STAND WITH ME ON THIS. !!!!! Obama, Sharpton, and haley, if you really want to start another race war, THEN WE ARE READY TO FIGHT. !!!!!!!!!!! But not for a race war, but a war against all the corrupt politicians that are trying to start a race war. Nikki Haley, your political career is over.

TO:

Due to the recent media coverage we are yet again having to take a stand and try to protect the symbol of our culture and heritage. I am well aware of the awful tragedy that has occurred as of late in the city of Charleston SC. I think that the culprit must be charged to the fullest extent of the law and Justice MUST prevail. I know that there has been many people who would like nothing better than to see the "Battle Flag" removed from in front of the State House grounds and are using this tragic incident to help their cause and to stir up the media. I have watched some of the news coverage and none of the family members as well as the church members ever mentioned the flag! They are concerned as we all should be with the healing and wellbeing of the families involved in this incident.

I am writing you today to ask that you join the thousands of residents of this great state to keep the flag where it is! I am a direct descendant of 2nd LT Frederick Copeland Allred who fought with the Tennessee 25th infantry. I honor the Confederate Battle Flag as a symbol of the war that my ancestor fought and died for and not a symbol of hatred and racism. I know there are many arguments to be made and everyone sees something different when they look at the flag but I also have a Father and a Son who fought for this Great Country under the stars and stripes. I as a citizen of these United States and a lifelong resident of South Carolina HONOR BOTH FLAGS and salute all those in authority that do the same. I urge you today to take a stand and protect our right as descendants of solders who have fought and died for this State and this Country to ignore all the media hype and pressure from all these groups who are mounting a full scale attack to remove a piece of History from in front of the State House in Columbia South Carolina.

It amazes me that most of the protesters that are stirring everything up were not even born and raised in our great state and some don't even live here. I ask today that you follow your forefathers and do the right thing and "Leave the Flag Alone"!

Respectfully for the cause,
Mark L [REDACTED]
Direct descendant of 2nd LT Frederick Allred

<SUBJECT> Removal of the Confederate Flag from the Capitol Grounds</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Dear Governor Haley,

Please get the SC State Government to remove the Confederate Flag from the SC Capitol Grounds as soon as possible. I have been a historian all my life. The flag does have a unique symbolism. However, the symbolism has been largely lost. Hate groups have taken the flag and made it something else. They use it as a symbol of racial hatred and division in South Carolina. I call on you to remember your confirmation into membership of the United Methodist Church. It was on that occasion that you were taught about John Wesley's tenet for Christian living "We are to do no harm."

The Confederate Flag is used by hate groups to do harm. By allowing the flag to stay up on the SC Capitol Grounds, you are enabling them. Take the flag down and start a new day in SC.

Grace and Peace,

Rev. Ralph T. [REDACTED] III

Governor,

10 years ago my wife and I purchased a home in Mt. Pleasant and adopted the Charleston Area and South Carolina as our second home. We love the area and we love the people, the culture and the history. We take every opportunity when we are in the New York area, to talk up Charleston as a great place to live, retire and visit. This is why the carnage at the church last week is particularly painful to me and my family.

I don't know if we will ever end racism, or be able to "fix" broken human beings, but I do know that we can stand up to the hatred and racism. And one way you can do this is to take down the Confederate Flag hanging at the Capital. I've meet enough white South Carolinians in the past 10 years to know, the ones with no hatred or racism in their heart could care less for that flag and what it stands for. The South Carolinians who fight to keep that flag flying, in my opinion, do so with questionable intentions. If for no other reason, that it is so hurtful to their fellow neighbors, they should agree to take it down. Please Governor, take it down. They symbolic gesture will go a long way toward healing this terribly painful wound.

I remember in port Huron Mich horrible nights and days where you were threatened about skit for church and murder skit but you refused. They murdered my cousin McKeever mcelwee anyway. I also had to ask you if you could request money for me. They just ... Steal my phone cause of my mother . I can't even get a job but I offered you what's left of a New York fork to assist you with threats from the kill and Selfridges pilot.. God protect you and bless you. They killed so many while feds and cops participated as Klan. Do you see I'm still here with Mr. Patterson. What can we do for each of us. We ended up with a rotten fam. And fake suits behind our backs... Feds know that too.

You asked me to write the feds and you hoped Michigan would have to pay for some of the money you hoped the feds would send. I did too. The other places I heard were buffalo NY and Canada who portrayed the Hurricane dying of heat... I'm on my cellphone.. Your line hg so I can't leave messag.. Hope this helps you and me too. If they don't pay then they won't stop murdering. Murfreesboro

Black and white men fought and died for this flag. It has nothing to do with hate. One man shot that church. Don't blame the rest of us. And now they are trying to say that the cotton in pill bottles is racists too??? They need to grow up. Black peoe are finding any excuse to call something racists and its not fair to the rest of us. They are the racists ones. Blaming us for something our ancestors did. Calling us "Crackers". Why don't you make a law against them?? If your going to do something, at least be fair about it.

That flag never once stood for racism or slavery. Just as many blacks that were free died defending it as the whites that fought right beside them. The world needs a history lesson on a lot of things that got us the freedom we have today. Not to mention I think Abraham Lincoln was white. He set the slaves free.

<SUBJECT>Confederate flag and recent recent racist mass murder of S. Carolina citizens</SUBJECT>

<MSG>

Dear Governor Haley, I am a U.S. citizen and am appalled by the amount of racist murders that defeat the efforts of decent Americans to get along with their neighbors. You may not be interested in my opinion as I live in another state but since the recent murders of 9 South Carolinians IN THEIR CHURCH affects me and all Americans, I felt the need to write to you.

NOW is the time to take down the Confederate Flag from your capital. By continuing to fly it atop the highest seat of S. Carolina government, you condone ALL of the actions taken by those who seek to use its historical, hateful power to terrorize and murder African Americans. That flag denotes a history and a contemporary "club" of haters and murderers. On top of this you should be gathering your black citizens together in the Capital to find meaningful ways to rid your state of the evil of racism once and for all.

I urge you to take action now and make a positive difference in our country. Don't allow your state to continue to tear our country down. Thank you.

Dear Governor Haley,

Please do not bow to pressure on the flag. It is not or ever was a symbol of racism or slavery. It was a symbol of a time in our history where the south was slammed by the north over trade policies, and financial policies. It is a part of our history. Georgia should have never bowed to the pressure. I am not a racist or a bigot. With the recent events at the church, that man should be put to death as soon as he is convicted. I am a firm supporter of Dr. Ben Carson, and have talked with (and met Herman Cain), this is not a race issue. I strongly admire your fortitude, and in my opinion your are a great conservative and would love to see you throw your hat in the ring. With the current state of affairs in our country, I am not so sure that the south didn't have the right idea. GOD bless America, and may the south rise again.

May God bless you Governor,

Ron [REDACTED]
